(6) No producer, regardless of whether he has heretofore engaged in the business of selling combed cotton yarns, or not, shall refuse to accept and fill, to the extent of his production of reserved combed yarns, a purchase order therefor of the kind specified in paragraph (d) (1), unless:

(i) The person placing the same is unable or unwilling to meet the established prices and terms therefor; or

(ii) The producer shall have already sold all of his reserved combed yarns to be produced in the delivery period required by the said purchase order to another person for a use permitted in the said paragraph (d) (1); or

Provided, however, That nothing in this order shall excuse any person producing combed cotton fabrics from the requirements of complying with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 with respect to the compulsory acceptance and filling of defense or other preference rated orders in accordance with the preference ratings assigned thereto; but any person with whom an order is placed for fabrics for a use permitted in paragraph (d) (1) hereof may, if his own supply of reserved combed yarns is not available, in whole or in part, for any of the reasons set forth in paragraphs (d) (6) (ii), (iii) and (iv) above, place a purchase order with any other producer for the necessary combed cotton yarns required over and above his own reserved combed yarns, to be filled out of such other producer's reserved yarns. Such other producer shall accept and fill such purchase order subject to paragraphs (d) (6) (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv).

(e) Restrictions on the sale or delivery of the residual supply of combed cotton yarns and on fabrics woven therefrom. No producer shall make any discriminatory cuts in sales or deliveries of non-reserved coarse or medium combed cotton yarns in counts which the producer continues to make, or fabrics woven therefrom, between former customers desiring to purchase the same, and who purchased such yarns or fabrics in the year 1941 and heretofore in 1942, notwithstanding the provisions of any contracts to which he may be a party, or between such former customers and his own use of such yarns or fabrics, except to the extent necessary to make his required deliveries upon purchase orders for such yarns or fabrics carrying preference ratings.

(f) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of combed cotton yarn conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or telegram, Reference M–155, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time, but no reports other than the notifications required by paragraph (d) hereof, shall be filed until forms therefor shall have been prescribed.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 1256—PLATINUM

[Interpretation 2 of Conservation Order M–162]

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Director General for Operations with respect to the meaning of the term "assemble" as such term is defined and used in General Conservation Order M–162 (§ 1256.1):

Subparagraph (b) (11) of General Conservation Order M–162 states: "The term 'assemble' shall not be deemed to include the putting together of an article after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knockdown form pursuant to an established custom • • •." Some question has arisen as to whether or not this exception permits a processor after January 1, 1943, to assemble findings which he has purchased from other processors. It has been the custom of the trade for findings manufacturers to deliver to manufacturers of completed jewelry findings which will then be assembled from time to time, as the need arises, by the manufacturer of the completed jewelry.

The assembly of findings in the case described comes within the meaning of the term "assemble" as such term is used in the order and is prohibited after January 1, 1943. The quoted exception applies only to a case where an article of completed jewelry, for convenience in packing and shipment, is customarily delivered to a sales outlet in knockdown or unassembled form. The distinguishing points of the exception are that the various parts being shipped together are all designed for assembly into a single completed article, that convenience in packing and shipping requires shipment of the article in unassembled form, and that shipment of the particular article in such unassembled form is an established custom in the trade.

HOUSING ACCOMMODATION OTHER THAN HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

CAPE CHARLES DEFENSE RENTAL AREA

In the judgment of the Administrator rents for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the designation and rent declaration issued by the Administrator on October 5, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this maximum rent regulation for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 62 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.881 to 1388.894, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.881 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 62 applies to all housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area (referred to hereinafter in this maximum rent regulation as the "defense-rental area"), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration No. 31 (§§ 1388.1341 to 1388.1345, inclusive) [1] issued by the Administrator on October 5, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This maximum rent regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the maximum rent regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this maximum rent regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses.

(4) Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this maximum rent regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this maximum rent regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this maximum rent regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this maximum rent regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this maximum rent regulation.

§ 1388.882 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation of any housing accommodations within the defense-rental area higher than the maximum rents provided by this maximum rent regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this maximum rent regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this maximum rent regulation, where housing accommodations are heated with fuel oil the landlord of such accommodations may as hereinafter provided enter into an agreement with the tenant providing for payment by the tenant of part or all of the cost of changing the heating unit to use some fuel other than oil or of installing a new heating unit using some fuel other than oil. Prior to making such agreement the landlord shall in writing report the terms of the proposed agreement to the area rent office. The landlord may enter into the agreement either upon its approval by the Administrator or, unless the Administrator has disapproved the proposed agreement within 5 days after the filing of such report, upon the expiration of such 5-day period.

(c) Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of this maximum rent regulation and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this maximum rent regulation, may be authorized to receive payments made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Administrator if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this maximum rent regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this maximum rent regulation: Provided, however, That if at the termination of the lease the tenant shall not exercise the option to buy, the landlord may thereafter remove or evict the tenant only in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.886 of this maximum rent regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Administrator as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

§ 1388.883 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.885 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for housing accommodations, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§ 1388.884 Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.885) shall be:

(a) For housing accommodations rented on March 1, 1942, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942 nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, the first rent for such accommodations after March 1, 1942. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.885 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after March 1, 1942 and before the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between these dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed betweeen those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1308.885 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between January 1, 1942 and such effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shal, register the accommodations as provided in § 1388.887. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.885 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on March 1, 1942, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.885 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this maximum rent regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this maximum rent regulation.

§ 1388.885 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Administrator finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942: Provided, That no adjustment under this subparagraph increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) There was in force on March 1 1942, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942: or the housing accommodations were not rented on March 1, 1942, but were during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.883, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by § 1388.883, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the accommodations become vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.885 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraph (c), (d), (e), or (g), of § 1388.884 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.883 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this maximum rent regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this maximum rent regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order upon such petition. The receipt by the landlord of any increased rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord, since the date or order determining the maximum rent, has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Administrator may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.886 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and regardless of any contract, lease, agreement or obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into which provides for entry of judgment upon the tenant's confession for breach of the covenants thereof or which otherwise provides contrary hereto, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this maximum rent regulation, or

or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord owned, or acquired an enforceable right to buy or the right to possession of the housing accommodations prior to the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, and seeks in good faith to recover possession of such accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling for himself. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the accommodations or any part thereof during a period of six months after such removal or eviction.

(b) (1) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this maximum rent regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(2) Removal or eviction of a tenant for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations[*] on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, is inconsistent with the purposes of the Act and this maximum rent regulation and would be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof, unless (i) the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser, excluding any payments made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, aggregate 33⅓% or more of the purchase price, and (ii) a period of three months has elapsed after the issuance of a certificate by the Administrator as hereinafter provided. For the purposes of this paragraph (b) (2), the payments of principal may be made by the purchaser conditionally or in escrow to the end that they shall be returned to the purchaser in the event the Administrator denies a petition for a certificate. If the Administrator finds that the required payments of principal have been made, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law at the expiration of three months after the date of issuance of such certificate. In no other case shall the Administrator issue a certificate for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, unless he finds that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without removal or eviction of the tenant, or unless he finds that other special hardship would result; under such circumstances the payment by the purchaser of 33⅓% of the purchase price shall not be a condition to the issuance of a certificate, and the certificate shall authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law.

(c) (1) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an occupant of a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment, located within the residence occupied by the landlord or his immediate family, where such landlord rents to not more than two occupants within such residence.

(d) (1) Every notice to a tenant to vacate or surrender possession of housing accommodations shall state the ground under this section upon which the landlord relies for removal or eviction of the tenant. A written copy of such notice shall be given to the area rent office within 24 hours after the notice is given to the tenant.

No tenant shall be removed or evicted from housing accommodations, by court process or otherwise, unless, at least ten days prior to the time specified for surrender of possession and to the commencement of any action for removal or eviction, the landlord has given written notices of the proposed removal or eviction to the tenant and to the area rent office, stating the ground under this section upon which such removal or eviction is sought and specifying the time when the tenant is required to surrender possession.

Where the ground for removal or eviction of a tenant is non-payment of rent, every notice under this paragraph (d) (1) shall state the rent for the housing accommodations, the amount of rent due and the rental period or periods for which such rent is due. The provisions of this paragraph (d) (1) shall not apply where a certificate has been issued by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant, including an action based upon non-payment of rent, the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the area rent office stating the title of the case, the number of the case where that is possible, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant, and the ground under this section on which removal or eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.887 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this maximum rent regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.884 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the defense-rental area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.888 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.889 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 62 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.890 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation 62 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.891 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this maximum rent regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).[2]

§ 1388.892 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this maximum rent regulation may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.2 1 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.893 Definitions. (a) When used in this maximum rent regulation:

(1) The term "Act" means the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(2) The term "Administrator" means the Price Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Administrator may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

(3) The term "Rent Director" means the person designated by the Administrator as director of the defense-rental area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Administrator.

(4) The term "area rent office" means the office of the Rent Director in the defense-rental area.

(5) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[MRR 63 A]

HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

CAPE CHARLES DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the designation and rent declaration issued by the Administrator on October 5, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increase in rents for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established for this maximum rent regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.931 to 1388.944, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.931 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 63A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Cape Charles Defense-Rental Area (referred to hereinafter in this maximum rent regulation as the "defense-rental area"), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration No. 31 (§§ 1388.1341 to 1388.1345, inclusive)[1] issued by the Administrator on October 5, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This maximum rent regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this maximum rent regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this maximum rent regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this maximum rent regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this maximum rent regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this maximum rent regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this maximum rent regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this maximum rent regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of this maximum rent regulation for housing accommodations other than hotels and rooming houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this maximum rent regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the maximum rent regulation for housing accommodations other than hotels and rooming houses all housing accommodations previously brought under the maximum rent regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the maximum rent regulation for housing accommodations other than hotels and rooming houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this maximum rent regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the maximum rent regulation for housing accommodations other than hotels and rooming houses.

§ 1388.932 Prohibition. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the defense-rental area higher than the maximum rents provided by this maximum rent regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this maximum rent regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.933 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.935 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date or during such period: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for a room, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§ 1388.934 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly, or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.935) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after March 1, 1942; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after March 1, 1942, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.935 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this maximum rent regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this maximum rent regulation.

§ 1388.935 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942: Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase: And provided, further, That no adjustment shall be ordered because of a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, where it appears that the rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the other determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on March 1, 1942, was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, the services provided for a room are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.933, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with a room are less than the minimum required by § 1388.933, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided the landlord shall, until the room becomes vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the room becomes vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.935 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.933 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.936 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this maximum rent regulation; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the room during a period of 6 months after such removal or eviction.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this maximum rent regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the area rent office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

(4) An occupant of a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment, located within the residence occupied by the landlord or his immediate family, where such landlord rents to not more than two occupants within such residence.

§ 1388.937 Registration and records. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.934 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Within 45 days after the effective date of this maximum rent regulation, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.934 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, all his existing records showing or relating to (1) the rent for each term and number of occupants for which such room was rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room and (2) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under § 1388.934 (c).

Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms rented or offered for rent shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

§ 1388.938 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may from time to time require.

§ 1388.939 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this maximum rent regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.940 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this maximum rent regulation are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.941 Procedure. All registration statements, reports, and notices provided for by this maximum rent regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).*

§ 1388.942 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this maximum rent regulation may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 292]

SALES OF CITRUS FRUITS BY PACKERS, BROKERS, AUCTION MARKETS, TERMINAL SELLERS AND INTERMEDIATE SELLERS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, that maximum prices be established for the sale of citrus fruits by packers, brokers, auction markets, terminal sellers and intermediate sellers.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and will promote equitable distribution of citrus fruits through normal channels of trade.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 292 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1401 to 1351.1416, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1401 Prohibition against dealing in citrus fruits above maximum prices. (a) On and after January 11, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no seller subject to the provisions of this regulation shall sell or deliver any citrus fruits at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation for such seller.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any citrus fruits from a seller subject to the provisions of this regulation at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation for such seller; and

(c) No seller subject to this regulation or other person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1351.1402 Sellers subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 292. (a) This regulation applies to the following sellers, as defined herein, of citrus fruits and such sellers shall be and they are subject to the provisions of this regulation: (1) Packers, (2) auction markets, (3) brokers, (4) terminal sellers, and (5) intermediate sellers.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1403 Definition of citrus fruits and general instructions—(a) Meaning of citrus fruit. "Citrus fruit" or "citrus fruits" when used in this regulation means any citrus fruit or fruits for which maximum prices are established by this regulation and any citrus fruit or fruits for which maximum prices may be established by amendment to this regulation.

(b) Application of this regulation. All provisions of this regulation shall apply on and after the effective date of this regulation to citrus fruits for which maximum prices are established herein and all provisions of this regulation shall apply to any citrus fruits for which maximum prices are established by amendment to this regulation, on and after the date such amendment becomes effective, unless otherwise specified in such amendment.

(c) Separate maximum prices for separate items and units. Any person subject to the provisions of this regulation shall calculate maximum prices separately for each item of citrus fruit and for each unit of each item, for each area and season shown for such item in § 1351.1416, Appendix A, of this regulation.

(d) Freight. Freight to be used in calculating any base price or maximum price pursuant to this regulation shall include actual charges for icing or refrigeration and shall mean freight by common carrier or contract carrier. In the event that the citrus fruit is transported by other means, freight shall be computed at the lowest available common carrier or contract carrier rate. Freight shall not include unloading or local trucking.

(e) Fractions of a cent. Any maximum price calculated for any citrus fruit under this regulation which contains a fraction of a cent shall be reduced to the nearest lower cent if the fraction is less than one-half cent and shall be increased to the nearest higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

(f) Statement of intent and purposes. The following statement is made in order to aid persons subject to this regulation to comply with the intent and purpose of this regulation:

(1) Maximum prices established by this regulation for intermediate sellers are calculated from base prices as established herein. Such base prices may or may not be the same as the actual prices paid. This regulation, in the provisions requiring notification of a base price, intends that the base price should be reported, and not the actual price.

(2) The base price to be used by an intermediate seller who purchases from a packer, broker, auction market or terminal seller shall be the base price reported to him by his supplier, unless the intermediate seller must transport the merchandise to his own customary receiving point which is not within local hauling distance. If such hauling is necessary, the intermediate seller shall compute a new base price, which shall be the base price reported to him by his supplier plus freight to his own customary receiving point, not including loading, unloading or local trucking. That new base price then becomes his base price and also the base price to be reported by him when he sells to other intermediate sellers.

(3) It is the purpose of this regulation to permit handling and resale of citrus fruits by any number of intermediate sellers but not to permit such intermediate sellers to add successive mark-ups at the full margin allowed. All such intermediate sellers must sell within the limits of the maximum price which is established by a margin added to the base price regardless of the number of transactions. The intermediate seller who sells to the retailer, commercial, industrial or institutional user may not exceed the price reached by adding the mark-up to the base price and not to his cost.

§ 1351.1404 Definition and maximum prices of packers, brokers, auction markets and terminal sellers. (a) For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) A "packer" is a person who grades, sizes, packs, whether or not washed or waxed, or prepares citrus fruits for shipment to market.

(2) A "broker" is a person who acts as the packer's agent in the sale of citrus fruits and who does not warehouse, storage, or customarily distribute the citrus fruits.

(3) An "auction market" is a market to which citrus fruits are delivered and sold at auction for the account of the packer and which market charges a fee for such services.

(4) A "terminal seller" is a person who buys citrus fruits from a packer and sells them in the same or substantially the same units in which he purchased them and who does not warehouse or storage and does not customarily sell in less than carload lots.

(b) The maximum price for direct sales of citrus fruits sold by a packer, f. o. b. packing house, shall be as set forth in this section and in § 1351.1416, Appendix A, of this regulation.

(c) The maximum price for direct sales of citrus fruits by a packer, on a delivered basis, shall be the packer's maximum price, f. o. b. packing house, plus freight to the point of delivery.

(d) The maximum price for sales of citrus fruits through a broker shall be the packer's maximum price for direct sales multiplied by 1.015. If the sale is made f. o. b. packing house, the packer's maximum price for direct sales, f. o. b.

packing house, shall be used in such computation. If the sale is made on a delivered basis, the packer's maximum price for direct sales at the point of delivery shall be used in such computation.

(e) The maximum price for sales of citrus fruits at an auction market shall be the packer's maximum price for direct sales, delivered at the market, plus the usual auction charge or fee.

(f) The maximum price for sales of citrus fruits by a terminal seller shall be the packer's maximum price for direct sales, delivered at the terminal market, multiplied by 1.015.

(g) Every sale of citrus fruits by a packer, broker, auction market or terminal seller, to an intermediate seller, shall be accompanied by a notification in writing to the intermediate seller, showing the maximum price permitted for such sale, which price shall be called the "base price" in such notice. The "base price" so reported shall be the maximum price determined under the foregoing paragraphs of this section, whether or not such maximum price was paid, except that in the event of a direct sale by a packer, or a sale by a packer through a broker, on an f. o. b. packing house basis, the "base price" so reported shall be the maximum price for such sale on a delivered basis at the purchaser's customary receiving point.

(h) Each packer, broker, auction market and terminal seller shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, such records as he or it customarily kept relating to the prices charged for each item of citrus fruits after the effective date of this regulation.

§ 1351.1405 Definition and maximum prices of intermediate sellers. (a) For the purposes of this regulation, the term "intermediate sellers" means any wholesale sellers, jobbers or any other persons who take title and purchase for the purpose of reselling and who customarily make sales to other wholesalers, retailers, or industrial, institutional or commercial users, except that the term "intermediate sellers" shall not include packers, brokers, auction markets, terminal sellers or retailers as defined in this regulation. "Intermediate sellers" shall include commission merchants who receive citrus fruits on consignment and sell in the same or similar manner as other wholesalers and such commission merchants shall come within the appropriate class of intermediate sellers set forth in this section according to the type of distributive service rendered.

(b) Intermediate sellers shall be divided into the following classes:

(1) Class 1: Retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler. A retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler is either a nonprofit organization or a corporation of which 51% or more of the stock is owned by its retailer customers and which distributes citrus fruits for resale.

(2) Class 2: Cash-and-carry wholesalers. A cash-and-carry wholesaler is a wholesaler not in Class 1 who distributes citrus fruits for resale or to commercial, industrial or institutional users and who does not customarily deliver to purchasers.

(3) Class 3: Service wholesalers. A service wholesaler is a wholesaler not in Class 1 who distributes citrus fruits for resale or to commercial, industrial or institutional users and who customarily delivers to purchasers.

(c) The "base price" of any intermediate seller who purchases from a packer or broker, shall be the "base price" furnished to him by his supplier. The "base price" of any intermediate seller who purchases from an auction market or terminal seller shall be the "base price" of his supplier, except that if his supplier is not within local hauling distance of his customary receiving point, the intermediate seller shall compute a new "base price" by adding to that "base price" the freight to his customary receiving point. If he resells to another intermediate seller, he shall give such purchaser notice in writing of his "base price", which shall be the "base price" reported to him by his supplier or his newly computed "base price", as the case may be. The "base price" of a commission merchant making consignment sales shall be the packer's maximum price for direct sales, delivered at the commission merchant's customary receiving point.

(d) The "base price" of any intermediate seller who purchases from an intermediate seller shall be the same "base price" reported to him by his supplier. In the event that he resells to another intermediate seller he shall give such purchaser notice in writing of such "base price".

(e) The intermediate seller shall calculate his maximum price for each item of citrus fruit for each calendar week as follows:

(1) He shall first determine his proper class under paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) He shall next determine the "largest single purchase" made by him during the preceding calendar week of the citrus fruit for which he is calculating his maximum price. The "largest single purchase" means the greatest quantity of the item for which he is determining a maximum price, purchased in one lot, and which was delivered to his customary receiving point during the preceding calendar week. The "preceding calendar week" is the calendar week preceding the week for which he is calculating his maximum price.

(3) He shall next obtain his base price for his "largest single purchase" during the preceding calendar week. In the event that he made two or more purchases of the quantity which would be his "largest single purchase", he shall use as his base price the average of the base prices for such purchases.

(4) He shall then compute his maximum prices as follows:

(i) A commission merchant in Class 1 or Class 2, or any intermediate seller in Class 1 or Class 2 who buys from a packer, broker, auction market or terminal seller, shall multiply his base price by 1.095.

(ii) An intermediate seller in Class 1 or Class 2, who buys from another intermediate seller, shall multiply his base price by 1.20.

(iii) A commission merchant in Class 3, or any intermediate seller in Class 3 who buys from a packer, broker, auction market or terminal seller, shall multiply his base price by 1.21.

(iv) An intermediate seller in Class 3 who buys from another intermediate seller, shall multiply his base price by 1.32.

(5) The resulting figure in each case shall be the maximum price of the intermediate seller for the calendar week for the item of citrus fruit being priced.

(6) In the event that the intermediate seller received no deliveries of the item being priced, during the preceding calendar week, but made sales of the item during the preceding calendar week, his maximum price remains unchanged from his maximum price of the preceding calendar week. In the event that he received no deliveries and made no sales of the item during the preceding calendar week, he shall calculate his maximum price for the item in the same manner as set forth in this section except that he shall use the base price of the first lot of the item delivered to him during the calendar week for which he is computing a maximum price and the maximum price so calculated shall continue to be his maximum price for the remainder of the calendar week.

(f) No intermediate seller may change his customary allowance, discounts and price differentials for different classes of purchasers, unless such change results in a lower price.

(g) Every intermediate seller selling citrus fruits shall:

(1) Make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charges for each item of citrus fruits after the effective date of this regulation and, in addition, records showing as precisely as possible the basis upon which he determined maximum prices for each item.

§ 1351.1406 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.1407 Exempt sales. (a) Sales of five boxes or less of citrus fruits in any one lot by mail or express to any one consignee, or to the agents or representatives of such consignee, shall be exempt from the provisions of this regulation, but such sales of more than five boxes shall be subject to the maximum prices established herein for packers.

(b) Sales at retail shall be exempt from the provisions of this regulation.

§ 1351.1408 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation [1] shall be and they are applicable to all persons subject to this regulation, except packers.

[MPR 26,[1] Amendment 10]

DOUGLAS FIR AND OTHER WEST COAST LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1381.53 and 1381.58 (a) (3) are amended, and a new subparagraph (4) is added to § 1381.62 (d) as set forth below:

§ 1381.58 Definitions. (a) * * *

(3) "Mill" means a manufacturing plant, concentration yard, or other establishment which processes into lumber by sawing, or planing at least 50 percent of the volume of such logs or lumber so purchased or received by it. The term mill also includes any Douglas fir plywood plant that manufactures from any percentage of its logs or cores of logs the items of lumber covered by this regulation.

(4) When a truck haul precedes rail shipment, as when a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railhead, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following three cases a mill may apply for special permission to make an addition:

(i) Where the mill was located away from rail connections because it specialized in water-borne lumber, and where shortage of shipping has forced it to operate by rail;

(ii) Where the mill prior to the shortage of tires and gasoline, shipped lumber to the particular final destination, principally by all-truck haul, and now wishes to convert to truck-and-rail haul to save tires and gasoline;

(iii) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be acted upon by letter. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

PART 1370—ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

USED HOUSEHOLD VACUUM CLEANERS AND ATTACHMENTS FOR USED HOUSEHOLD VACUUM CLEANERS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices for the sale and rental of used vacuum cleaners and for attachments for used vacuum cleaners have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purpose of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices for the sale and rental of used vacuum cleaners and for attachments for used household vacuum cleaners (less than one-half horsepower) prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Therefore under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1370.71 to 1370.85, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Congress, E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1370.71 Maximum prices for the sale and rental of used household vacuum cleaners and attachments for used household vacuum cleaners. (a) On and after January 7, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell, rent, or deliver any model of used household vacuum cleaner or any attachments for used household vacuum cleaners, and no person shall buy or receive or accept the rental of any model of used household vacuum cleaner or any attachments for used household vacuum cleaners in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1370.83; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1370.72 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1370.73 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, rental, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to used household vacuum cleaners or attachments for used household vacuum cleaners, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, services, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(3) Misrepresenting the state of repair of a used household vacuum cleaner.

(4) Refusing to permit a person renting a used household vacuum cleaner to arrange for delivery (of a rented used

(5) Removing manufacturer's name plate from the motor of the used household vacuum cleaner.

(6) Misrepresenting original manufacturer's name.

(7) Misrepresenting model or age of used household vacuum cleaner.

§ 1370.74 Notices. (a) Every person offering to rent a used household vacuum cleaner shall post in a conspicuous place on his business premises a notice in the following form:

§ 1370.75 Records and sales slips. (a) Every person offering to rent or sell used household vacuum cleaners or attachments for used household vacuum cleaners in the course of trade or business, after January 6, 1943, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, his customary records of such rentals and sales.

(b) Any seller who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip or receipt shall continue to do so. Regardless of previous custom, any seller shall, upon request, give the purchaser a receipt showing the date of the sale, the name and address of the buyer, the make, model number and condition of the vacuum cleaner as defined in § 1370.79 ("as is" or "rebuilt"), the discounts and trade-in allowances given, and the price received for each used household vacuum cleaner or set of attachments.

§ 1370.76 Retail price label. Before delivering any rebuilt vacuum cleaner, the rebuilder must attach to it a label containing a statement in the following form, and with the blanks appropriately filled in, except the retail selling price blank which the retail seller shall fill in. No person shall sell, or offer to sell any rebuilt vacuum cleaner unless such label is attached:

Make _____ Model _____
Retail ceiling price _____
Retail selling price _____
Rebuilt and guaranteed for one year

§ 1370.77 Guarantee. The maximum retail price (as set forth in § 1370.83, Appendix A of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294) of any rebuilt vacuum cleaner shall include a guarantee by the seller for the benefit of the buyer for a period of one year from the date of delivery to the ultimate consumer. The seller shall guarantee the efficient operation of the rebuilt vacuum cleaner at the time of delivery, and shall agree to replace without charge for labor or materials any part which is found to be defective during the one year period. Pick up or delivery expense and defects caused by normal wear or accidents are excluded from this guarantee. Specific authorization must be obtained from the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of the maximum retail price for any rebuilt vacuum cleaner sold without a guarantee.

§ 1370.78 Requirements for rebuilt vacuum cleaners. (a) Before a vacuum cleaner shall be sold as "rebuilt", and subsequent to any previous use, the following requirements shall have been met:

(1) The cleaner shall have been taken apart and the motor field coils, armature, bearings, impeller fan and brush roller bearings shall have been washed with a grease removing solvent and blown out.

(2) All parts of the cleaner shall have been inspected for breaks and excessive wear.

(3) Any broken, defective or badly worn parts shall have been replaced.

(4) The commutator shall have been resurfaced.

(5) The motor shall have been supplied with new carbon brushes.

(6) In the case of excessive mechanical noise, vibration or other evidence of wear, motor bearings shall have been replaced.

(7) New oil felts shall have been installed with motor bearings.

(8) Any motor equipped with oil wicks shall have been furnished with new wicks.

(9) The brush roller bristles shall have been replaced.

(10) The cleaner shall have been reassembled so that all mechanical parts operate with minimum friction to produce maximum speed of operation at rated voltage.

(11) When reassembled all motor bearings and other bearings shall have been repacked with new grease or oil as the type of bearing requires.

(12) Electrical insulation—all cleaners shall have been capable of withstanding without breakdown for a period of 30 seconds the application of a 900 volt 60-cycle alternating potential between all current carrying parts and any non-current carrying metal parts, at the maximum operating temperature reached in normal use.

(13) The vacuum cleaner cord shall have no cracks or breaks over its entire length. This cord shall have a minimum length of eighteen feet type 5V National Board of Fire Underwriters approved vacuum cleaner cord or its equivalent.

(14) The cleaner shall have been equipped with a new bag.

§ 1370.79 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 the term:

(1) "As is" vacuum cleaner means one which has all major operating parts intact but which does not meet the standards of a rebuilt vacuum cleaner.

(2) "Rebuilt" vacuum cleaner means one which has met the requirements set forth in § 1370.78 above.

(3) "Attachments" means all supplementary devices which may be combined with the cleaner to increase the number of its functions and improve its efficiency, except those for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 111.

(4) "Standard attachment sets" mean sets which include the following attachments: (i) couplings and cut-off plate, if necessary; (ii) hose; (iii) nozzle; (iv) extension rod; (v) radiator tool.

(5) "Deluxe attachment sets" mean standard attachment sets plus a minimum of three additional attachments.

(6) "Built-in headlight" vacuum cleaner means a type of motor driven brush vacuum cleaner in which a headlight was installed in the original manufacturing process.

(7) "Used household vacuum cleaner" means any vacuum cleaner which has been in the physical possession of a user and which has been subjected to use for other than demonstration purposes; the term includes "as is" and "rebuilt" vacuum cleaners.

(8) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1370.80 Relation between Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 and the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] (a) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this § 1370.80. However, the seller must comply with the provisions of the following paragraphs, which are identical, except for appropriate changes in dates and terminology, with the sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation indicated in parentheses. Any amendments to such sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation are automatically applicable to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294.

(1) Sales for export (§ 1499.6). The maximum price at which a person may export any used household vacuum cleaner or attachments for used household vacuum cleaner shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[2]

(2) Petitions for amendment (§ 1499.19). Any person seeking a modification of any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1370.81 Federal and state taxes. There may be added to the maximum price established by this regulation the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise tax statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, if, but only if, (a) such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax, separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or (b) such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be separately paid by the purchaser, consumer or user with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or (c) such a statute or ordinance permits the vendor to state such tax separately, and such tax is in fact stated separately by the vendor. The amount of tax permitted to be added by this provision shall in no event exceed that paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user.

§ 1370.82 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of license provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1370.83 Minimum trade-in allowances. If a person regularly engaged in the business of selling used vacuum cleaners accepts a vacuum cleaner from the buyer as a trade-in, he shall make an allowance to the buyer at least equal to three-fourths (75%) of the maximum wholesale "as is" price of the cleaner traded in.

§ 1370.84 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 294 (§§ 1370.71 to 1370.85 inclusive) shall become effective January 7, 1943.

(e) The maximum price for the sale of the following models of used household vacuum cleaners shall be:

PART 1382—HARDWOOD LUMBER

[Rev. MPR 97]

SOUTHERN HARDWOOD LUMBER

The title and preamble are amended and §§ 1382.101 to 1382.113, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth herein:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of Southern hardwood lumber have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of Southern hardwood lumber prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 Revised Maximum Price Regulation No 97—Southern Hardwood Lumber, is hereby issued.

Sec.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1382.101 to 1382.113, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1382.101 Sales of Southern hardwood lumber at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after January 7, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Southern hardwood lumber for direct-mill shipment at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things. The maximum f.o.b. mill prices are set forth in Appendix A.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

§ 1382.102 To what transactions, products, and persons this Regulation applies—(a) What transactions are covered—(1) Direct-mill shipments. This ceiling applies to all shipments originating at a mill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill, wholesaler, retailer or anything else. It does not apply to sales out of distribution yard stock. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the lumber reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard. A sale is considered a sale out of distribution yard stock only if the lumber was a part of regular yard stock at the time the sale was made.

(2) How to tell a mill from a distribution yard—(i) General tests. The term "mill", as used here, covers what are known in the trade as sawmills, planing mills and concentration yards. Three types of establishments are described below: the first, (a), a typical sawmill or planing mill; the second, (b), a typical concentration yard; and the third, (c), a typical distribution yard. An establishment which resembles a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard more than it does a typical distribution yard is considered a mill; and one which resembles a typical distribution yard more than it does a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard is considered a distribution yard.

(a) A "typical sawmill or planing mill" is an establishment which is chiefly engaged in manufacturing lumber from logs or rough lumber by sawing or planing; which is located in or near a lumber producing area; which makes and sells chiefly Southern hardwood or softwood lumber.

(b) A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which concentrates and prepares lumber for commercial shipment; which keeps in stock mostly Southern hardwood lumber; which has its lumber brought in chiefly in rough green form by truck from small local sawmills and sells chiefly for rail shipment; and which has been located at its particular site to be near the lumber producing area.

(c) A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail lumber yard which gets lumber from mills or other yards; unloads, sorts, stores, and resells or redistributes it; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which gets its lumber mostly by rail and sells mostly for truck shipment; which is equipped to make quick deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a lumber consuming area.

(ii) New yards. In order to prevent violation of this regulation by unnecessarily routing through yards, the Office of Price Administration will not recognize distribution yards set up after January 1, 1943, unless the new yard writes to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and proves that it satisfies the requirements of the definition and that the purpose is not to get around this regulation by means of unnecessary yard business. Until approval is received, the new yard cannot consider itself a distribution yard for the purpose of this regulation.

(iii) Retail type sales excepted. A "retail type" direct-mill sale is not subject to this regulation. A "retail type" direct-mill sale means a sale of not more than 2,000 feet of lumber in which the purchaser requests delivery to a point not more than 20 miles from the mill at which the shipment originates. It includes only sales of lumber to contractors or consumers for use in construction, remodeling, repair, maintenance, fabrication, or remanufacture, and it does not include sales for resale in substantially the same form.

(b) What products are covered. (1) This regulation covers all Southern hardwood lumber, whether the grades, sizes and specifications are specifically named in the price tables in Appendix A or not. All grade terms have the meaning given in the "Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Hardwood Lumber" issued by the National Hardwood Lumber Association, effective January 1, 1942.

(3) The Southern hardwood area is described by exact boundary lines in Appendix B.

(4) Some of the things which this regulation does not cover are: glued stock, moulding, risers, step treads, thresholds, hand rails, bevel and drop siding, flooring, switch, cross and mine ties, mine material, small dimension stock, and lath.

(c) What persons are covered. Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase covered by this regulation is subject to it. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of any of the foregoing.

§ 1382.103 How to figure delivered prices; and mixed car charges—(a) Transportation addition. The transportation charges set forth below may be added to the maximum f. o. b. mill prices set forth in Appendix A.

(1) Common or contract carrier. When shipment is by common or contract carrier, the following rules govern:

(i) When estimated weights are used, the rate times the estimated weight is the proper transportation charge. Estimated weights may be used only if they have been filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The weights must be the weights used by the seller during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941. The estimated weight must be the weight for the exact kind of lumber actually shipped; for example, green weights may not be used if dry lumber is shipped. The transportation charge may be evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per M.

(ii) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier, evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per M.

(2) Private truck. When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by truck; and, no matter what the actual cost is, the amount added may not be more than the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul. However, if this railroad charge is less than $1.50, and if the actual cost of delivery is more than $1.50, a transportation charge of $1.50 may be made.

(3) Trucking to railhead. When a truck haul precedes rail shipment, as when a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railhead, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following three cases a mill may apply for special permission to make an addition:

(i) Where the mill was located away from rail connections because it specialized in water-borne lumber, and where shortage of shipping has forced it to operate by rail;

(ii) Where the mill prior to the shortage of tires and gasoline shipped lumber to the particular final destination principally by all-truck haul, and now wishes to convert to truck-and-rail haul to save tires and gasoline;

(iii) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

(4) Truck delivery after rail haul. When truck delivery follows a rail haul, the actual cost of truck delivery may be added

(5) All-truck haul. When an all-truck haul ends in delivery to the job site, no special addition may be made above the charges provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, since in this case delivery to the job site involves no extra expense.

(b) Mixed cars. The following additions per M may be made where the purchaser (or purchasers, in the case of a pool car) orders an item consisting of one species, thickness and grade, in the following quantities:

Quantity ordered:	Addition per M
3,000 to 4,000 ft.	$1.00
2,000 to 2,999 ft.	2.00
1,000 to 1,999 ft.	2.50
999 ft. and less	3.00

§ 1382.104 What the invoice must contain—(a) General. Because of the large number of possible additions to the basic f. o. b. mill prices, it is necessary that some of them be separately shown on the invoice. Otherwise the purchaser and the Office of Price Administration could not tell in many cases whether a price which appeared to be above the ceiling was proper or not.

Failure to invoice properly is just as much a violation of this regulation as charging an excessive price.

(b) Basic price. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not. Any working, specification, quantity, or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for these does not have to be separately shown, except in a few special cases which are specifically mentioned later.

(c) Transportation charges. In delivered sales, the invoice must contain the:

(1) Point of origin of shipment,

(2) Destination.

(3) Rail or truck rate (or, if shipment is by private truck, the amount added for transportation),

(4) The words "Direct-Mill Shipment."

(d) Delivery, and custom kiln drying charges. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for the following must be separately shown on the invoice:

(1) Truck delivery after rail haul;

(2) Custom kiln drying: The invoice of the custom kiln must be attached to the lumber invoice of the seller.

§ 1382.105 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-in agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices from what they were in October 1941. This includes decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit. In any case, on sales made through the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, terms of 30 days net may be used. In all cases, if the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount as the sale price would have been reduced for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $40.00, and if in sales of this item on October 1, 1941 to purchasers of a certain class, the seller reduced sales prices 2 per cent for cash within 10 days, the ceiling cash price in sales to purchasers of this class is $39.20.

(2) Refusing, without good reason, to ship except in small quantities, or in specified or restricted random lengths, or under other circumstances which bring the seller an extra return.

(3) Refusing, without good reason, to ship lumber in standard grades and in grade-rule range widths and lengths.

(4) Grading as a special grade lumber which normally is graded by the seller as a standard grade; or wrongly grading or invoicing lumber in any other way.

(5) Refusing to sell on an f. o. b. mill basis, and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(6) Unnecessarily routing lumber through a distribution yard.

(7) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(c) Waiver of moisture content. Under this regulation lumber is either green, partially dry, or dry. If it does not actually meet this regulation's moisture-content requirements for dry lumber, it cannot be sold at the dry price, even if the moisture requirement is waived.

(d) Purchasing commissions. No purchasing commission based on the quantity or value of lumber purchased may be charged or paid, if the commission plus the purchase price is an amount over the maximum price.

(e) Combination grades. Lumber sold on combination or special inspection grades, for which no maximum price has been established in this regulation, such as log run, mill run, or No. 1 Common and Better, may not be sold at above the maximum price for the lowest grade actually included in the special inspection grade. For example, the maximum price for No. 2 Common and Better is that set for No. 2 Common. Of course, the amount of the different grades included can be quoted and invoiced separately at the individual prices for those grades.

(f) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the lumber has been completed. But the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1382.106 Grades, specifications and extras not specifically priced. (a) Southern hardwood lumber, sold on special grades or specifications, or with special services or other extras not specifically mentioned in Appendix A, is nevertheless subject to this regulation. The maximum price is a price which bears the October 1941 relation to the most comparable standard item. The seller should find his price difference between the special item and this most comparable standard item in October 1941 or the first month before that in which he had sales of both items, or if this is impossible, the price differential he would have used. This difference is then added to or subtracted from the maximum price of the comparable standard grade, and the result is the maximum price for the special grade.

This price must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on OPA Form 197:3, given in paragraph (c) below. It may be ordered reduced, if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved.

(b) A seller using this pricing section can go ahead with delivery of the lumber and collection of the price he has computed or requested. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

(c) OPA Form 197:3 is as follows:

(d) Existing authorizations. (1) Any reports filed prior to January 7, 1943, with the Office of Price Administration under any of the former special grade provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 97 shall be considered as reports filed under paragraph (c) just above.

(2) Maximum prices for special grades or items, other than No. 1 construction boards approved before January 7, 1943, by the Office of Price Administration shall continue in effect as the maximum prices for these special grades or items produced at the mill which obtained the approval. With respect to these special grades or items, the producing mill need not file the report required in paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 1382.107 Petitions for adjustment and amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contract" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the Government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this Regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of lumber which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6.[1]

(3) As soon as the application is filed, deliveries and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if that requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1382.108 Records and reports—(a) Records. All sellers of Southern hardwood lumber must keep records which will show a complete description of the item of lumber sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought $500.00 worth or more of Southern hardwood lumber. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. Any reports that the Office of Price Administration requires must be submitted.

§ 1382.109 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(d) All sellers of Southern hardwood lumber under this regulation, except mills, have been licensed by Supplementary Order 18.[3] This order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary, except for mills, to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and Supplementary Order 18 tell the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended. The license cannot be transferred.

[3] 7 F.R. 7240.

§ 1382.110 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] Any sale or delivery covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation 97 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[2] The maximum price for export sales of Southern hardwood lumber is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1382.111 Effective date. (a) This regulation (§§ 1382.101 to 1382.113, inclusive) shall become effective January 7, 1943.

(b) If lumber has been received before January 7, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of any regulation, whether the General Maximum Price Regulation or earlier version of this regulation, which covered it at the time the lumber was turned over to the carrier.

§ 1382.112 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Southern hardwood lumber in standard or near-standard grades—(a) Application of Appendix A. Appendix A applies to all Southern hardwood lumber of the species and grades named, when sold on grade-rule-range widths and lengths, or widths and lengths substantially the same as grade-rule-range widths and lengths, or on specified average widths or specified average lengths which are substantially run-of-the-log.

(b) Basic maximum prices. The maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1,000 feet of Southern hardwood lumber in a rough air-dried condition shall be as follows:

(1) TOUGH ASH

(j) Where tough ash lumber is shipped to the purchaser out of the stocks of a tough ash specialty establishment, rather than directly from the mill which produced the lumber from the log, an addition of $15.00 per thousand on FAS, $10.00 per thousand on No. 1 Common and Selects, or No. 1 Common, and $5.00 on No. 2 Common may be made to the price of all thicknesses. A tough ash specialty establishment is an operation which does not manufacture any species of Southern hardwood lumber from the logs, which maintains a yard that receives an average of more than 50,000 feet of tough ash lumber a month, which usually obtains tough ash lumber without specifying to the supplier thicknesses, widths, or lengths, which is normally in a position to furnish tough ash lumber in a wide range of grades and specifications (thicknesses, widths, and lengths), and which has been approved and certified by the Office of Price Administration as a "tough ash specialty establishment" by publication of its name in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The following have been certified as "tough ash specialty establishments":

Name	Location of establishment
Bankston Lumber & Export Company	Savannah, Ga.
Dudley Hardwood Company	New Orleans, La.

The "Appalachian hardwoods area" is that area circumscribed by a line beginning at the intersection of the western line of the State of West Virginia and the western line of the State of Pennsylvania; thence southwesterly on the western line of West Virginia to the western boundary of Boyd County, Kentucky, thence extending southwesterly through Kentucky along the generally northwestern boundaries of the following counties: Boyd, Carter, Rowan, Menifee, Powell, Estill, Jackson, Rockcastle, Pulaski, Wayne, and Clinton to the Tennessee state line; thence westerly along said state line to the western boundary of Pickett County, Tennessee; thence southerly in Tennessee along the western boundaries of Pickett, Fentress, Morgan, Roane, Rhea, and Hamilton Counties to the intersection of the western boundary of Hamilton County and the Nashville, Chattanooga, and St. Louis Railroad; thence easterly along said railroad through Chattanooga to the intersection of said railroad and the Georgia state line; thence easterly along said state line to the western boundary of Fannin County, Georgia; thence southeasterly in Georgia along the southwestern boundaries of Fannin County and Lumpkin County; thence generally easterly in Georgia along the southeastern boundary of Lumpkin County, the southern boundary of White County, and the southern and eastern boundaries of Habersham County to the South Carolina state line; thence southeasterly along said line to the southeastern boundary of Oconee County, South Carolina; thence in a generally northeasterly direction through South Carolina along the southeastern boundaries of Oconee and Pickens Counties, and the western, southern, and eastern boundaries of Greenville County to the North Carolina state line; thence easterly along the southern line of North Carolina to the eastern boundary of Cleveland County, North Carolina; thence northerly in North Carolina along the eastern boundaries of Cleveland and Burke Counties; thence continuing generally northeasterly in North Carolina along the eastern or southern boundaries of Alexander, Wilkes, and Surry Counties to the Virginia state line; thence east on said state line to the eastern boundary of Patrick County, Virginia; thence northeasterly through Virginia, following the eastern boundary of Patrick County and the southeastern boundaries of Franklin, Bedford, Amherst, Nelson, Albemarle, Greene, Madison, and Rappahannock Counties, turning southerly along the southwestern boundary of Fauquier County, and resuming a generally northerly direction along the eastern boundaries of Fauquier and Loudoun Counties to the Maryland state line; thence northwesterly along said state line to the eastern boundary of Frederick County, Maryland; thence northerly through Maryland along the eastern boundary of Frederick County to the Pennsylvania state line; thence westerly and thence northerly along said state line to the starting point. All sawmills on the boundary line of the Appalachian hardwoods area shall be deemed to be outside the Appalachian hardwoods area, except that mills in West Virginia and Maryland on the lines touching Pennsylvania and Ohio shall be deemed to be in the Appalachian area.

(b) Any sawmill located in the Southern hardwoods area, which satisfies all of the following requirements can sell its red oak and white oak lumber at the maximum prices established in § 1382.64 (b) (21), (22), (23), (24) and (25) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 155[7] (Central Hardwood Lumber).

(1) The mill must certify in a letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that (i) during the previous calendar month more than 45 percent of the hardwood lumber produced by the mill (either from logs or from rough lumber) was red and/or white oak and at least 85 percent of the oak logs and lumber received at the mill were obtained from logging operations or concentration yards located in the South Central hardwoods area (as defined in § 1382.58 (a) (4) (ii) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 155) and the counties of Tennessee not included in that area; (ii) the mill agrees to maintain these proportions during each calendar month in the future; (iii) the mill agrees not to purchase in the future, either directly or indirectly, any red or white oak stumpage or logs in the Southern hardwoods area at prices higher than the prices paid by the mill for the most comparable stumpage or logs purchased during March 1942; and (iv) the mill agrees that any oak lumber purchased by it in the future, either directly or indirectly, in the Southern hardwoods area will not be resold by it at prices higher than the maximum prices established in this revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 97.

(2) The mill has been approved and certified by the Office of Price Administration as having qualified under this paragraph and the certification and the firm name and location of the mill have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(3) The mill agrees to and does certify to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration at the end of each following calendar month that during that month the mill satisfied all the requirements mentioned above.

The Office of Price Administration may at any time withdraw its approval and certification.

COIL AND FLAT BEDSPRINGS WITH NON-STEEL FRAMES

The preamble is amended and §§ 1365.51 to 1365.74, inclusive are renumbered and amended to read as set forth below:

The purpose of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 is to set specific maximum prices for coil and flat bedsprings with non-steel frames at manufacturing, wholesale and retail levels. It is necessary to revise Maximum Price Regulation 213 to include the new models of coil and flat bedsprings with non-steel frames which will be made in accordance with War Production Board Order L-49, as amended August 4 1942. Amendment 2 limiting the amount of steel that may be contained in any bedspring. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices and the trade practices prevailing in the industry between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this revised regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this revised regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 is hereby issued.

§ 1365.58 Permitted variations of specifications. (a) If a manufacturer is unable to manufacture a bedspring fulfilling all of the requirements of a class of bedspring as set forth in § 1365.57, then upon specific authorization in writing by the Office of Price Administration any manufacturer may, at his option, vary the specifications of the classes of bedsprings from those set forth in § 1365.57 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 in the following ways by:

(1) Substituting a different gauge of wire which is of equivalent serviceability.

(2) Substituting a wood frame of different design or construction which is of equivalent strength and serviceability.

(3) Changing the number of coils without reducing the serviceability of the bedspring.

(4) Substituting a different type of spring fabric which is of equivalent strength and serviceability.

(b) The maximum price for a bedspring manufactured with all of the specifications of a class of bedspring set forth in § 1365.57, except for variations in specifications permitted in paragraph (a) shall be the price set forth in § 1365.53 for that class of bedspring, provided that such altered bedspring does not cost less than a bedspring fulfilling all of the requirements of that class of bedspring as set forth in § 1365.57. If such altered bedspring costs less then it shall be priced according to provisions of § 1365.61.

(c) Prior to manufacturing a bedspring for sale as a class of bedspring set forth in § 1365.57 with the variations of specifications set forth in paragraph (a) hereof, the manufacturer shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement setting forth (1) the specifications of the bedspring in which the substitution is being made, (2) the reason for the necessity of such substitution, (3) an explanation of why such a substitution does not decrease the serviceability of such bedspring, (4) a detailed cost breakdown of the direct labor and material for the proposed substitute bedspring and for the bedspring with specifications listed in § 1365.57. Upon receipts by the manufacturer of authorization in writing from the Office of Price Administration, such manufacturer, and each subsequent purchaser may sell, offer to sell, or deliver the altered bedspring at a price no higher than the price established in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 for sales of bedsprings of the class from which the altered bedspring differs only as the result of variations of specifications herein authorized.

§ 1365.61 Maximum prices for the sale of coil and flat bedsprings with non-steel frames other than those established under §§ 1365.53, 1365.54 and 1365.58. (a) The maximum price for a coil or flat bedspring with a non-steel frame which does not comply with the specifications for any class of bedspring set forth in § 1365.57 of the Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213, and for which the manufacturer has filed no application under § 1365.58 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 shall be a price in line with those established under such sections specifically authorized by order of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Prior to the first delivery or to first offering such bedspring for sale, the manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report applying for specific authorization of the maximum price. The report shall contain a description in detail of the article (including the manufacturing process), a statement of the facts which make it necessary to price the article under this section and the proposed maximum f. o. b. factory, delivered and warehouse prices with a detailed explanation of their computation. The manufacturer shall also propose maximum prices for persons selling at wholesale and persons selling at retail in line with the differentials established in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 for the classes of coil bedspring with wood frames listed in § 1365.53 (a) hereof. On the basis of this application, the Office of Price Administration may authorize by order maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, for sales at wholesale, and sales at retail of such bedspring. After receipt of the authorization, the manufacturer may sell the bedspring if, by a communication in writing at the time of or prior to his first invoice to a person purchasing for the purpose of resale, he informs each purchaser of the provisions of the authorization which establishes the maximum prices of such bedspring, and if such manufacturer complies with the requirements of § 1365.62 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213.

§ 1365.62 Retail price labels. (a) Before the delivery of any coil or flat bedspring with a non-steel frame, the manufacturer must attach securely to such bedspring so that it is clearly visible a durable tag containing, in easily readable lettering the statement in the following form:

> The Office of Price Administration has established a retail ceiling price of $------ (inserting correct figure) for this bedspring. Lower prices may be charged. This tag may not be removed until after delivery to the consumer.

(b) No sale, offer for sale, or delivery at retail of a coil or flat bedspring with a wood frame may be made unless the tag specified in paragraph (a) containing the correct retail ceiling price is attached to such spring.

§ 1365.63 Evasion. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 shall not be evaded either by direct or indirect methods in connection with the manufacturing or sale of a coil or flat bedspring with a non-steel frame or in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, or sale of any such bedspring, or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or trade understanding, or by any other means.

§ 1365.64 Records. (a) Every manufacturer and person selling at wholesale a coil or flat bedspring with a non-steel frame after September 7, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration complete and accurate records of each sale of such bedspring, name and address of the buyer, name, number or other designation, and the price received for each such bedspring, quantity sold, and discounts, and allowances of any nature given.

(b) Every person selling at retail a bedspring for which, upon sale by that person, maximum prices are established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213, shall keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, records of all bedsprings sold of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged for bedsprings.

§ 1365.65 Reports. On or before September 7, 1942, every manufacturer and person selling at wholesale offering to sell a coil Class A, B, C, D bedspring with a non-steel frame shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a statement giving specifications and the f. o. b. factory and delivered maximum price of such article, showing all allowances, discounts, charges and other differentials in effect at the time of filing of such statement. Every manufacturer and person selling at wholesale shall file on the 10th day of any month thereafter, a similar statement of any coil or flat bedspring with a non-steel frame which was first manufactured and offered for sale during the preceding calendar month.

§ 1365.66 Sales slips and receipts. (a) Any seller of bedsprings who has customarily given a purchaser a flat or coil bedspring with steel frames a sales slip, receipt, or similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so to purchasers of flat or coil bedsprings with non-steel frames. Upon request from a purchaser any seller of a flat or coil bedspring with a non-steel frame, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the name of such bedspring sold, and the price received for it.

§ 1365.67 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended and proceedings for the suspension of licenses.

(a) As to a tax in effect during the year 1941

(1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the year 1941 the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Amendment No. 4 to Revised Price Schedule No. 38.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount or tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Amendment No. 4 to Revised Price Schedule No. 38.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

FLOUR FROM WHEAT, SEMOLINA AND FARINA SOLD BY MILLERS AND BLENDERS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, that the maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 for flour from wheat be revised, and set forth in a separate regulation. The following regulation sets forth more definite maximum prices for flour from wheat in the various sections of the United States, and supersedes Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 as to flour sold by millers and blenders. It also establishes maximum prices for farina and semolina sold by millers and blenders.

The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of flour from wheat, semolina and farina prevailing between January 1, 1942 and September 15, 1942, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. The maximum prices established by this regulation are in the judgment of the Price Administrator generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein for flour from wheat, semolina and farina are not below prices which will reflect to the growers prices for their product equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order No. 9250, after making appropriate deductions from parity prices for payments made under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, parity payments made under the Agricultural Adjustment of 1938, as amended, and other governmental subsidies.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 296 is hereby issued.

§ 1351.1656 Carrying charges. No contract for the sale of flour from wheat, semolina or farina shall provide for higher carrying charges than at the rate of 1/6 of a cent per barrel per day for each day's delay in shipment beyond 60 days from the date of the contract of sale or beyond the delivery date specified under such contract, whichever is later, which is caused by the failure of the buyer to furnish shipping instructions and necessary containers, if sale is made on a bulk basis) in accordance with the specifications of the contract of sale.

§ 1392.58 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 263 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this § 1392.58. However, the seller must comply with the provisions of the following paragraphs, which are identical, except for appropriate changes in dates and terminology, with the sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation indicated in parentheses. Upon request from a purchaser any seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the name of each commodity sold, and the price received for it.

(3) Petitions for amendment (§ 1499.19). Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 263 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person selling at wholesale or retail any commodity for which a maximum price is established by this regulation or by any amendment or supplement thereto. The terms "selling at wholesale" and "selling at retail" shall have the meaning given them by §§ 1499.20 (p) and 1499.20 (o) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Said provisions became applicable as to persons selling at wholesale on May 11, 1942 and as to persons selling at retail on May 18, 1942.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

AUTHORITY: §§ 1413.51 to 1413.75, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

(b) If, upon the purchase of stock millwork, the buyer gets from the seller a written statement that to the best of his knowledge the price does not exceed the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and if the buyer has no reason to doubt the truth of the statement, the buyer shall be deemed to have complied with this section.

(c) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged or paid.

§ 1413.52 To what products, transactions, and persons this regulation applies—(a) Products covered by the regulation. This Maximum Price Regulation 293 covers woodwork items referred to in the Appendices of the regulation when such items are made either wholly or in large part with lumber cut from the following woods: Ponderosa pine (Pinus ponderosa), Idaho pine (Pinus monticola), Sugar pine (Pinus lambertina), and Northern or Northeastern pine (Pinus strobus).

(2) "Standard Pine Frames, Catalogue No. 8–A" means the document with that title published by the Pinney Printing Company, Clinton, Iowa.

(3) "Design Book No. 25" means the document with that title published by the Universal Catalogue Bureau, Dubuque, Iowa.

(4) "Jobber's 'A' Light Glass List of August 15, 1938" means the document with that title copyrighted by the National Glass Distributors' Association.

(b) Transactions covered by the regulation—(1) Meaning of the term "direct-mill sale". A "direct-mill sale" of millwork is a sale in which the shipment of millwork originates at a millwork factory (a plant which manufactures millwork) or a factory warehouse (a warehouse which is physically next to a mill and which is not operated as a sales agency separate from the mill sales agency), no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a manufacturer, jobber, wholesaler, distributor, retailer, or anything else. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the millwork reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution warehouse or plant. For example, a shipment which originates at a mill and which is temporarily stored in a distribution warehouse, but which is not placed in the regular stock of that warehouse for purposes of resale or redistribution, is a direct-mill sale.

(2) Direct-mill sales covered by the regulation. The following sales are covered by this regulation:

(i) Any direct-mill sale of 15,000 pounds or more of stock millwork which moves by rail to one or more places.

(ii) Any direct-mill sale of 12,000 pounds or more of stock millwork which moves by truck to a single place.

(c) Persons covered by the regulation. Any person who sells or purchases (in the course of trade or business) stock millwork is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or their legal successors, or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1413.53 Maximum prices for carload sales of millwork. (a) The maximum prices for carload sales of stock millwork are set out in Appendices A to E (§§ 1413.64 to 1413.68, inclusive), and Appendices G to K (§§ 1413.70 to 1413.74, inclusive). These ceiling prices are stated as f. o. b. mill prices with full freight allowed. This means that where shipment is by rail the seller must allow the buyer all rail charges (including taxes on the charges) which are paid by the buyer. Where shipment is by truck the seller must allow the buyer all trucking charges (including taxes on the charges) which are paid by the buyer. If the seller pays for the transportation he does not have to allow any freight.

(b) A sale takes the carload ceiling price if the total weight of the millwork (both stock and special) sold is 30,000 pounds or more. A sale which is a carload under this test takes the carload ceiling price even though the millwork is shipped by truck.

§ 1413.54 Maximum prices for less-than-carload sales—(a) Maximum prices f. o. b. mill. The maximum f. o. b. mill price (no freight allowed) for a less-than-carload sale (any sale which is not a carload sale) of stock millwork shall be the price figured as follows:

(1) Take the maximum price (established by this Maximum Price Regulation 293) which would govern the sale if it were a carload sale;

(2) Add 5 percent of that price;

(3) Deduct freight on the weight of the shipment at the carload rate from the mill to the buyer.

(b) Maximum delivered prices. If the less-than-carload sale of millwork is on a delivered price basis, the seller may add to the ceiling price the actual transportation charge paid or incurred by him in making delivery from the mill to the buyer. This means that if delivery is by common or contract carrier the actual amount paid to the carrier may be added to the ceiling price. If delivery is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the amount added for delivery may not be more than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by truck. This "actual cost" may not be higher than the overall average trucking charge for a similar delivery, arrived at as of the 6-month period ending July 31, 1942.

(c) Example of how to compute the ceiling price for a less-than-carload sale. An example of the correct application of this section is as follows: The buyer has ordered 400 doors, specifications: 2'–6" x 6'–8", $1\frac{3}{8}$", 5 x P, No. 1 Ponderosa pine; and 200 windows, specifications: $8\frac{5}{8}$" x 14", $1\frac{3}{8}$", 12 lights, glazed, SSB, to be delivered by rail to a siding in Washington, D. C., which is in Zone 3. Shipment is made direct from a mill, and the sale is made on an f. o. b. mill price basis (actual freight to be paid by purchaser).

Ceiling price of the doors if the sale had been a carload sale ($7.50 (list), 52½ (minimum discount) x 400 (number of doors))	$1 425 00
Crating (40 bundles at $.95 per bundle)	38 00
Ceiling price of the windows if the sale had been a carload sale ($6.50 (list), 66 (minimum discount) x 200 (number of windows))	442 00
Face crating (no extra charge)	0 00
Item I (total of above figures)	$1 905 00
Add: Item II (5 percent of this total)	95 25
	$2 000 25
Deduct: Item III (deduct freight on 16,800 pounds at carload rate of 50¢)	84 00
Maximum f. o. b. mill price	$1 916 25

§ 1413.55 Addition for storage in transit. When a distribution warehouse or yard sells millwork that it does not already have in stock, and then, instead of shipping it directly from the mill to the buyer, stores it in its warehouse or yard and delivers it, in quantities less than the total order, to the buyer as he calls for it, the distributor may shorten the applicable basic discount two points on so much of the millwork as is actually stored. (Note that the sale is still a direct mill sale.)

This addition may not be made when the distributor merely reloads millwork at the warehouse or yard, or handles and stores it no more than is necessary in a normal case where the distributor receives a mill shipment, reloads it, and delivers it to the buyer. Nor may this addition be made if the millwork is stored at the job site since this is not storage in transit.

§ 1413.56 Charges for special cars and bracing. (a) No addition to the maximum prices may be made for pool car, community car or stop-over car shipments, except that in the case of stop-over car shipments by rail, the seller may require the purchaser to pay stop-over charges made by the railroad. If the millwork shipped in any one of these combination cars weighs 30,000 pounds or more, it takes the carload ceiling prices.

(b) Where bracing is required to permit partial unloading of a railroad car, a charge not to exceed $3.50 may be made for one brace and $2.50 for each additional brace.

§ 1413.57 What the invoice must contain—(a) General. Because the ceiling price depends upon a number of different factors, it is necessary that each of the factors which affects the maximum price be separately shown on the invoice. Otherwise, the purchaser and the Office of Price Administration could not tell in many cases whether a price which appeared to be above the ceiling was legal or not.

Failure to invoice properly is just as much a violation of this regulation as charging an excessive price.

(b) Basic price. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the millwork to show whether the price is proper or not. Any specification or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for extras does not have to be separately shown, except in a few special cases which are specifically mentioned later in this section.

(c) Type of sale. The invoice must show whether the sale is a direct-mill sale and whether it is a carload sale or less-than-carload sale.

(d) Destination of shipment. The invoice must show the place to which shipment of the millwork was made.

(e) Storage-in-transit: Bracing. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for storage-in-transit, or for bracing to permit partial unloading, must be shown separately on the invoice.

§ 1413.58 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this Maximum Price Regulation 293 as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific prohibited practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were on October 1, 1941. This includes reducing the cash discount period, decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit. In any case, on sales made through the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, terms of 30 days net may be used. In all cases, if the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount as the sale price would have been reduced for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $10.00, and if in sales of this item on October 1, 1941, to purchasers of a certain class the seller reduced sales prices 2 percent for cash within 10 days, the ceiling cash price in sales to purchasers of this class is $9.80. For purposes of this paragraph, no discount over 2 percent is considered a cash discount.

(2) Unnecessarily routing stock millwork through a distribution warehouse or plant.

(3) Shipping millwork to the purchaser in less-than-carload quantities where the buyer would like to have, and the seller is in a position to ship, carload quantities of millwork.

(4) Charging a purchasing commission based on quantity or value of millwork purchased, if the commisison plus the purchase price is higher than the maximum price permited by this regulation.

(c) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect sometime after delivery of the millwork has been completed. The price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1413.59 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that the maximum price established in this Maximum Price Regulation 293 is impeding or threatens to impede production of stock millwork which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1413.60 Records and reports—(a) Records. All sellers must keep records which will show a complete description of the items of stock millwork sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought $200 or more of stock millwork in transactions which are covered by this Maximum Price Regulation 293. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. Any reports that the Office of Price Administration has required in the past, or requires from time to time, must be submitted.

§ 1413.61 Enforcement and licenses. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation 293 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War Procurement Agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. Persons who make sales covered by this regulation to War Procurement Agencies are, however, subject to all the liabilities imposed by this regulation. "War Procurement Agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(d) All sellers under this regulation, except mills, are licensed by Supplementary Order 18.[2] This order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary, except for mills, to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and Supplementary Order 18 tell the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended. The license cannot be transferred.

§ 1413.62 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 293 is not subject to the General Maximum

[1] 7 F.R. 8961.

[2] 7 F.R. 7240.

Price Regulation.[3] Any sale or delivery of stock millwork which is not covered by this Maximum Price Regulation 293 is subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Maximum Export Price Regulation. The maximum prices for export sales of stock millwork are governed by the Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1413.63 Effective date. (a) This Maximum Price Regulation 293 (§§ 1413.51 to 1413.75, inclusive) shall become effective January 8, 1943.

(b) If stock millwork has been received before January 8, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 6.300 Purpose of regulations. The regulations contained in this subpart are promulgated to insure the safety of all vessels in port while anchored or while moored to docks, piers, wharves or other waterfront facilities. Nothing contained in this subpart shall be construed to repeal the provisions of the regulations relating to Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles On Shipboard, promulgated April 9, 1941, as amended (46 C.F.R. Part 146), or the Regulations Relating to Tank Vessels, as amended (46 C.F.R. Parts 30–38 incl.), or any other existing laws or regulations for the safeguarding of vessels not inconsistent herewith.

§ 6.301 Powers of captains of the port; special circumstances. The regulations contained in this subpart shall be considered as providing the minimum requirements for the security of vessels. Captains of the port are authorized to issue orders not inconsistent with such regulations, as they may determine to be necessitated by special circumstances for the safeguarding of individual vessels, docks, piers, wharves or other waterfront facilities.

§ 6.302 Distribution of regulations. Copies of the regulations contained in this subpart are available for distribution by the captain of the port to masters, owners of vessels, piers, terminals and other waterfront facilities, guards and all other interested parties.

§ 6.303 Primary responsibility. Nothing contained in the regulations in this subpart shall be construed as relieving the masters, owners, operators and agents of vessels, docks, piers, wharves or other waterfront facilities from their primary responsibility for the security of such vessels, docks, piers, wharves or waterfront facilities.

§ 6.304 Vessels subject to this subpart. The regulations contained in this subpart shall apply to all vessels, foreign or domestic, except where otherwise specifically provided.

§ 6.305 Ports at which regulations apply. The regulations contained in this subpart shall apply to vessels, docks, piers, wharves, and other waterfront facilities in the ports of the continental United States, Alaska, Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands.

§ 6.306 "Disabled" vessels. Vessels, regardless of tonnage and whether self propelled or not and whether having cargo aboard or not, which have suffered such extensive damage to their hulls or machinery as to place them in imminent peril of further damage or loss shall be considered as "disabled" vessels. Disabled vessels are not subject to the regulations contained in this subpart, but such casualties shall be reported immediately to the captain of the port who will issue special instructions to safeguard them.

§ 6.307 Effect of local or unusual conditions. If the captain of the port shall find that the facilities, conditions or services necessary for the protection of vessels pursuant to any provision of this subpart are not available, he may waive compliance with the specific provision involved to the extent which he deems necessary. In case of emergency circumstances causing imminent danger to any vessel, nothing in the regulations contained in this subpart shall be construed as preventing the senior ship officer aboard such vessel from pursuing the most effective action in his judgment for the safety of the vessel.

SABOTAGE

§ 6.315 Reporting of sabotage. Evidence of sabotage or subversive activity involving any vessel, dock, pier, wharf, or other waterfront facility shall be reported immediately to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the captain of the port, or to their respective representatives.

§ 6.316 Precautions against sabotage. The master, owner, and operator of a vessel shall take all necessary precautions to protect the vessel, cargo and personnel from sabotage.

MANNING OF VESSELS

§ 6.320 Vessels "out of service". For purposes of manning, vessels complying with all of the following requirements shall be considered as vessels "out of service":

(a) All persons, other than the crew, who have been or are to be transported have been removed from the vessel.

(b) All cargo has been removed from the vessel.

(c) Fires under main and auxiliary boilers have been extinguished and main engines have been shut down.

(d) The prior approval of the captain of the port has been obtained.

§ 6.321 Additional requirements or waiver. Nothing in the manning schedule which follows is to be construed as preventing the master or the captain of the port from requiring additional men, or all hands, to be on board and on active duty in time of extraordinary emergency or to prevent the captain of the port, at the request of the master, from waiving compliance with these manning requirements when, in his discretion, this may be done consistently with the safety of the vessel and the port.

§ 6.322 Manning of vessels in port. Vessels subject to the regulations contained in this subpart when anchored or when moored to a dock, pier, wharf, or other waterfront facility, shall have no fewer than the following number and kind of officers and men on board and subject to duty as may be required by the master:

(a) Self propelled vessels of 1000 gross tons or over except when "out of service": A crew of officers and men equivalent to the regular deck and engine room sea watches not including day men.

(b) Self propelled vessels of 1000 gross tons or over when "out of service": Guards shall be provided in lieu of crew as set forth in the regulations under "Guarding", and in addition thereto one licensed officer shall be aboard except when the vessel is in a shipyard. The captain of the port may waive the requirement for the licensed officer if he shall find that the vessel is secure without his presence aboard. When vessels are seasonally "out of service" the captain of the port shall determine the number of guards to be used.

(c) Vessels regardless of tonnage having explosives as cargo on board shall be manned in accordance with the requirements of the captain of the port.

§ 6.323 Relief crews. Any or all of the duty required of the ship's officers and men under the regulations contained in this subpart may be performed by relief officers and men holding the necessary licenses and certificates.

§ 6.324 Officers and men on duty to be on alert. Where the regulations contained in this subpart require the presence of officers on vessels which are not "out of service," efficient continuous watches shall be maintained by them both day and night. The night relieving officers shall remain actually on watch and make tours of the decks, superstructures, cargo spaces where cargo is being worked, boiler rooms, engine rooms and machinery spaces at irregular but sufficiently frequent intervals to inform themselves on conditions. Officers shall maintain necessary supervision and direct the work of the men on duty under them in order that a state of alert shall prevail.

GUARDING OF VESSELS

§ 6.330 Kinds of guards. Guards for vessels shall be of the following kinds:

(a) "Ship guards." Ship guards shall perform service at the ship's gangways or roving service throughout the ship.

(b) "Cargo guards." Cargo guards shall perform service in cargo spaces during the time general cargo of certain kinds is being worked.

(c) "Fire guards." Fire guards shall perform service when repairs to the vessel create special fire hazards.

§ 6.331 When guards shall be used. On all vessels guards shall be employed in accordance with the following schedule in addition to the crew requirements set forth under the section on manning:

(a) "Ship guards." Ship guards shall be required as follows:

(1) Self propelled vessels of from 2000 to 5000 gross tons, shall, when moored to a dock, pier, wharf or other waterfront facility maintain a guard continuously on duty at each gangway.

In the absence of ship's power and in the cleaning of the fire sides of boilers the following procedure shall be followed:

(a) In all cases where any vessel is without power to operate its fire pumps, its fire system shall be connected to the shore fire system, if available, by fire hose and, weather permitting, pressure shall be maintained on the ship's fire system from shore.

(b) In all cases where the vessel is without electric power its switchboard shall be connected to a source of shore electric power, if available, to maintain the ship's lighting system.

(c) Manually cleaning the fire side of any boiler having fires under it, is prohibited on vessels at docks, piers, or wharves, when working dangerous cargo or when gas-freeing tanks.

§ 6.356 Maintenance of mobility of vessels. No self propelled vessel of 1,000 gross tons or over when moored to a dock, pier, wharf, or other waterfront facility or when at anchor shall be without means of propulsion for over 24 hours except when loading liquid inflammable cargo in bulk unless the approval of the captain of the port has first been obtained. The captain of the port shall be notified when such vessels have been returned to a status of mobility.

§ 6.357 Maintenance of boiler fires on tank vessels. In the case of tank vessels, regardless of tonnage, when moored to a dock, pier, wharf or other waterfront facility when loading liquid inflammable cargo of Grades A, B or C in bulk, it shall be determined whether fires shall be maintained under boilers by the following procedure: Upon arrival at the loading terminal the master and terminal superintendent or their representatives shall consult as to the safest procedure to follow, consideration being given to the over-all security of the vessel and the terminal, the availability of shore steam, water and electric power, the state of the weather and the practice of the terminal. In each instance the decision reached shall be entered in the deck log book of the vessel.

§ 6.358 Tending of mooring lines. At all times when vessels are moored to docks, piers, wharves, or other waterfront facilities, care shall be taken to assure that all mooring lines are hove taut to prevent surging. Fire axes shall be kept conveniently at hand, forward and aft, to be used on the ship or passed to the dock for cutting hawsers in case of emergency.

§ 6.359 Emergency towing hawsers. At all times when vessels of 1000 gross tons or over are moored to docks, piers or wharves they shall have available on deck, fore and aft, hawsers capable of being used for emergency towing. The length of portable wiring shall be kept at a minimum consistent with the lighting problem and as little portable wiring as possible shall be run over the main deck. All lighting shall be shaded or so arranged that it does not interfere with nearby navigation and, to the extent possible, it shall be so directed as to keep the positions of guards in shadow.

(a) The dock: the dock shall be lighted in way of the gangway and where such lighting is not available from shore it shall be lighted from the ship.

(b) The ship's main deck: The ship's main deck shall be lighted with the ship's permanent deck lighting system.

(e) For barges alongside: The deck of barges and the top of house lighters alongside the ship shall be lighted either by these vessels or from the ship.

(f) Cargo hatches: The hatches and other cargo spaces when working general cargo shall be lighted by one or more lights in each space as may be required.

(g) Alleyways: The ship's alleyways shall be lighted at night and as may be required during the daytime.

§ 6.365 Compliance with blackout regulations. All vessels, regardless of tonnage, when moored to a dock, pier, wharf, or other waterfront facility, or when at anchor, shall comply with blackout and dim out regulations issued by competent authority.

§ 6.366 Vessels alongside. No vessel of any kind shall be permitted to come alongside and no vessel shall be permitted to remain alongside after its business with the ship has been concluded, except with the permission of the senior deck officer on duty.

§ 6.367 Ship's keys. Ship's keys properly tagged, shall be readily accessible to the deck and engineer officers on duty.

§ 6.368 Removal and disposal of refuse. Trash and rubbish which will float shall not be taken to sea for disposal but shall be removed from the ship at sufficiently frequent intervals to prevent a fire hazard. Garbage, except that which may be prohibited ashore by the provisions of any laws or regulations, shall be placed in covered metal containers and removed as required. Under no circumstances shall galley or boiler ashes be put over the side in port.

CARGO HANDLING

§ 6.375 Transfer of cargo. Cargo spaces shall not be opened, until the cargo is ready to be worked or to perform necessary work in such spaces. When the work is completed the cargo spaces shall be closed and secured. To prevent unlawful access to the ship, save-alls, cargo nets, stagings and side ladders, other than gangways shall be removed or triced up, meal time excepted, as soon as the working of the cargo is concluded.

PERSONNEL

§ 6.380 Responsibility for compliance by crew and others. The master, owner, operator, and agent of the vessel shall require strict compliance by the members of the crew, guards, and others with the regulations contained in this subpart and shall instruct them therein. Violations of the regulations contained in this subpart shall be reported to the captain of the port.

§ 6.381 Return to ship in emergency. When officers and men are ashore and a state of emergency is announced in the port, they shall endeavor to proceed with all possible speed to their ship.

§ 6.382 Discussion of ship's business. Officers, crew members, and others shall not discuss ship's business or inform anyone of any anticipated movement of the vessel except as required in the line of duty and then only with persons having proper credentials. Weather permitting, fire hose so connected shall be tested under pressure for flow.

(b) Inspection during daylight: At least twice during each four hours, the deck and engine officers on watch shall make a general inspection of their departments. At frequent intervals steam and gas fire smothering apparatus and fire fighting, rescue and life saving apparatus shall be examined to determine its condition and readiness for use.

(c) Sundown inspection: Prior to sundown the deck officer on watch shall make a general inspection of the moorings, and the offshore side of the vessel including the security of barges and lighters permitted to remain alongside for the night.

(d) Inspection during night: At least twice during each four hours the deck and engine officers on watch shall make a general inspection of their department paying particular attention to spaces which are unoccupied but cannot be locked, to the lighting system, to the deck, and to conditions at the stern of the vessel.

(e) Inspection of cargo spaces: Prior to the loading of general cargo, the mate or deck officer on watch shall make a thorough inspection of the cargo spaces involved assuring himself that they have been properly cleaned, that no unnecessary inflammable or combustible materials remain, and that the lighting is safely arranged. [Docket No. A-1732]

WILLIAMS COAL CO.

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of Williams Coal Company, District No. 9 for relief with respect to the effective minimum price pertaining to a limited tonnage of 8 M x O carbon coal.

On November 3, 1942 the Williams Coal Company, a code member in District No. 9, filed a petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, with this Division, requesting permission to sell 12 cars of 8 M x O carbon coal, produced by the said Williams Coal Company at its Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 87, which were on track on October 24, 1942, at the time when Louisville and Nashville Railroad reduced the car rating of petitioner, at a price less than the minimum price and also requested that such relief be effective as of October 24, 1942. The petitioner states that notwithstanding strenuous and continuous effort to sell the 8 M x O carbon coal at the mine price of $1.20 to 90 cents per net ton (depending on the market area), it was able to move only 5 cars of such carbon coal from October 1 to October 24, 1942. Petitioner further states that it had unloaded on the ground as much of this carbon coal as its facilities permitted, and that on October 24, 1942, it had on hand 13 cars of 8 M x O carbon coal which it was unable to dispose of at the established minimum prices for such coal. Petitioner states that it received an offer of 70 cents per ton f. o. b. mine for 12 of the 13 cars of carbon coal on track for storage for future use in a plant engaged in war production.

In view of the above circumstances, it appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the petition of the Williams Coal Company in the above-entitled matter is granted and permission is given to petitioner to dispose of the 12 cars of 8 M x O carbon coal, produced by the Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 87, in District No. 9, which were on track on October 24, 1942, at the time when Louisville and Nashville Railroad reduced the car rating of petitioner at a price not less than 70 cents per net ton;

It is further ordered, That the relief granted herein be retroactive to October 24, 1942;

It is further ordered, That the petitioner shall notify the Division and file a report indicating the name and address of the purchaser or purchasers and the price or prices at which the 12 cars of coal were sold within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

Dated: December 31, 1942.

DECISION AND ORDER ON APPEAL

Decision and order on appeal in Compliance Case No. 9.

Pursuant to part 807 of the regulations adopted under section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, as amended, the Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division of the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, charged the F & B Manufacturing Company, Automotive Export Association, Inc., W. J. O'Hara, Export Manager, and Julio Carrillo, Export Manager (hereinafter referred to as appellants) with violations of proclamation number 2475 authorizing the control of certain exports issued in part under the authority of said section, in matters relating to export control and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Economic Warfare. The appellants filed a written answer to the charges above set out.

The Compliance Commissioner, duly designated under § 807.1 of the aforesaid regulations, reviewed the record and filed his findings of fact and recommendations in the matter. The Compliance Commissioner found that the appellants violated section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, and the Export Control Regulations of the Board of Economic Warfare, in particular subparagraph c of paragraph d, page 79 of Comprehensive Export Control Schedule No. 7, by filling orders for ignition parts in excess of $25 by partial shipments of thirty-seven (37) packages by registered parcel post under General License G-17, between the dates of May 7, 1942, and June 15, 1942, to Sr. N. Glezer, Bucareli #137, Mexico City, Mexico; Srs. Casa Corona, Bucareli #55, Mexico City, Mexico; Sr. Benito Singer, Continental Automotriz, Correjidora #142, Mexico City, Mexico; and Srs. Productos Casso, 4 a Milan #44, Mexico City, Mexico.

Upon consideration of the record, findings of fact, and recommendation in the matter, the Acting Chief, Export Control Branch of the Office of Exports of the Board of Economic Warfare denied to appellants and any person, association, or organization acting on behalf of, or for their account, the privilege of obtaining individual export license and the use of any general or unlimited export license from the United States until January 16, 1943. Said appellants acknowledged receipt of a copy of said order as of December 5, 1942, and within ten days thereof duly filed a written appeal to the Assistant Director in Charge of the Office of Exports. The undersigned Assistant Director has considered the record in this matter and has concluded that the facts and conclusions of the Compliance Commissioner are supported by the record.

Now therefore, It is determined and ordered. That the order of the Acting Chief, Export Control Branch of the Office of Exports, denying to appellants and any person, association or organization acting on behalf of or for the account of them, the privilege of obtaining individual export licenses and the use of any general or unlimited license for any exportation whatsoever from the United States until January 16, 1943, is affirmed.

Dated: December 31, 1942.

Assistant Director in Charge of Exports.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Suspension Order 185]

FABER OIL COMPANY

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Faber Oil Company, a Massachusetts corporation, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Boston, Massachusetts, on November 2, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station at 233 Winter Street, Haverhill, Massachusetts.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1503) in that on various occasions between July 22, 1942, and August 27, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles and accepted in exchange for such transfers 15 Class A, No. 2 coupons; 4 Class A, No. 3 coupons; and 1 Class A, No. 4 coupon.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Massachusetts respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 185 shall be in effect, respondent shall not sell, transfer, or deliver any gasoline to any consumer.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 185 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 185 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 6, 1943, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. January 16, 1943.

[Suspension Order 183]

CHRISTINE DODSON

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Christine Dodson, doing business as Dodson Service Station, 400 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Atlanta, Georgia, on November 9, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at 400 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that, on numerous occasions between July 2, 1942, and September 22, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles and accepted in exchange therefor one hundred twenty-three (123) Class A, No. 2 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Georgia, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detriment to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 183 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 183, that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 183 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 7, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. January 22, 1943.

THE NORTH AMERICAN COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 28th day of December 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with the Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by The North American Company, a registered holding company. All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

The North American Company proposes to acquire approximately 12,500 shares of capital stock of The Detroit Edison Company, a public utility company, on one or both of the following bases: (1) By purchases on the New York Stock Exchange from time to time prior to February 11, 1943 in accordance with such limitations as to price as this Commission may by order prescribe, (2) by purchases off the market prior to February 11, 1943 at prices not to exceed the closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange (or the average between the bid and ask prices if no sales have been consummated) on the business day immediately preceding the date of any such purchase.

The applicant states that it desires to acquire the shares of stock in order that it may have sufficient shares, together with shares presently held by it, to pay a further quarterly dividend on the applicant's common stock payable in shares of The Detroit Edision Company stock on or about April 1, 1943, at the rate heretofore in effect.

The applicant has hitherto declared seven consecutive quarterly dividends on its common stock payable in shares of The Detroit Edison Company stock at the rate of one share of The Detroit Edison Company stock for each 50 shares of the applicant's common stock. The balance of The Detroit Edison Company stock which will be held after December 30, 1942 will be approximately 143,500 shares and the applicant will require approximately 156,000 shares to pay its next quarterly dividend at the previous rate. The payment of the next quarterly dividend at such rate will eliminate substantially all of the applicant's direct holdings in the Detroit Edison Company In addition to applicant's direct holdings of the Detroit Edison Company stock, North American Utilities Securities Corporation (all of the preferred stock and 80.6% of the common stock of which is owned by the applicant) owns beneficially 5,000 shares.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on January 6, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., E. W. T., in such room in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration or application (or both) shall become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above named declarant and applicant and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to declarant and applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration or application (or both) otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed transactions are appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors;

(2) The propriety of the proposed acquisition;

(3) What limitations, if any, as to price should be prescribed as appropriate in the public interest or the interest of investors;

(4) Whether the applicant should be directed to acquire the shares of North American Utilities Securities Corporation; and

(5) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

By the Commission.

OGDEN CORPORATION

NOTICE REGARDING FILING OF AMENDMENT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of December, 1942.

Notice is hereby given that an amendment to a declaration or application has been filed with the Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Ogden Corporation ("Ogden"), a registered holding company;

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 5, 1943 at 10:00 a. m. E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said amendment to the original application which is now on file in the office of said Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

By order dated March 6, 1942, this Commission, after a public hearing, granted an application filed by The Laclede Gas Light Company ("Laclede"), a subsidiary of Ogden, for exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the Act regarding offers proposed to be made by it to the holders of its outstanding and unpledged Refunding and Extension Mortgage, 5% Gold Bonds, dated 1904 ("1904 Bonds"), in the principal amount of $10,000,000, to extend such bonds to April 1, 1945. The Commission also granted, subject to certain conditions, an application of Ogden regarding the acquisition by it of such portion of those bonds of Laclede not extended by other holders thereof. Jurisdiction was reserved by the Commission in said order with respect to (1) its proposal to borrow not in excess of $2,250,000 for the purpose of purchasing the said bonds, and (2) its proposal to resell such bonds as might be acquired by it

By order dated July 27, 1942, this Commission, after a public hearing, granted an application filed by Ogden and its subsidiary company, Laclede, requesting approval of the sale to The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States of $1,998,000, principal amount of the Laclede 1904 Bonds, and such additional bonds as Ogden might acquire through July 28, 1942, the aggregate principal amount not to exceed $2,500,000. The Commission exempted such sale from the provisions of Rule U-50 promulgated under the Act, and thereafter Ogden sold to said insurance company $2,011,000, principal amount of 1904 Bonds, as extended, on July 28, 1942.

Since July 28, 1942, Ogden, pursuant to its commitment to acquire 1904 Bonds, which commitment was extended to and terminated on November 24, 1942, has purchased an additional $176,000, principal amount of said 1904 Bonds. Ogden now proposes to sell to The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States the principal amount of $176,000 of said 1904 Bonds, as extended, at the price of 99% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest thereon from October 1, 1942 to the date of sale and delivery. The amendment also requests an exemption from Rule U-50 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, with respect to the proposed sale of said bonds.

By the Commission.

A. F. BERNSTEIN AND CO.

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS BROKER AND DEALER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 29th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of Arthur F. Bernstein, doing business as A. F. Bernstein and Co., 1221 Northern Life Tower Building, Seattle, Washington.

1. Arthur F. Bernstein, doing business as A. F. Bernstein and Co., a sole proprietorship, hereinafter referred to as registrant, is registered as a broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

2. On October 21, 1942, we instituted proceedings under section 15 (b) of the Act to determine whether the registration of the above registrant should be revoked. The order for proceedings stated that information had been reported to the Commission by its staff which, if true, tended to show that registrant had willfully violated the anti-fraud provisions of section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule X-15C1-2 promulgated pursuant thereto. The information reported to the Commission, outlined in the order for hearing, indicated in substance that:

A. In September, 1939, registrant obtained an option from the Portland Mortgage Company to purchase an idle winery plant, located in South Tacoma, Washington.

B In October, 1939, the registrant, together with two individuals (hereinafter referred to as his "associates"), participated in arrangements to purchase the aforementioned plant.

C. On December 2, 1939, the registrant and a third party (not an associate) entered into a contract with said Portland Mortgage Company for the purchase of the aforementioned winery for the sum of $24,000 and made a down payment of $2,500.00, such payment being furnished by said third party.

D. In January, 1940, registrant and his associates caused Associated Wineries, Inc. to be organized to take over the winery plant mentioned above. On January 18, 1940, the corporation contracted to pay the registrant and the third party mentioned in paragraph C, $31,500 for the winery or $7,500.00 more than the sum registrant and said third party had contracted to pay.

E. Also in January, 1940, registrant and his associates caused the corporation to issue stock in such a manner that they became the beneficial owners of substantially all of the shares issued.

F. Registrant was in control of the corporation at all times and participated actively with his associates in the management thereof.

G. From February, 1940, to May, 1941, inclusive, registrant and his associates caused the corporation to sell its preferred and common stock to various persons. In making the sales and inducing the purchase of said securities, one of the registrant's associates and salesmen employed by the corporation made one or more of the following false representations to each of the purchasers:

(1) Associated Wineries, Inc., owned a winery plant in South Tacoma against which there was only a small indebtedness;

(2) Associated Wineries, Inc., had raised amounts varying from $45,000 to $60,000 for operation of the plant;

(3) The proceeds from the sale of the stock were to be used for putting the plant into operation;

(4) Associated Wineries, Inc., had berries already in cold storage awaiting the completion of the financing necessary to put the plant into operation;

(5) Henry A. Kyer, President of the Associated Wineries, Inc., had a substantial interest and investment in said company;

(6) Even if Associated Wineries, Inc., never began to operate as a winery its stock would be worth $1.05 on the basis of the assets of the company.

H. During the period from February, 1940, to May, 1941, the corporation realized approximately $20,700 from the sale of its stock and from other miscellaneous sources. Of this sum, registrant and his associates received $14,029.70 in payments on the contract of purchase and for salaries and expenses;

I. To the date hereof, the corporation has not started operation of its winery plant;

J Registrant effected transactions hereinabove mentioned in paragraph G otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

K. Registrant used the mails and instrumentalities of transportation and communication in interstate commerce in effecting the transactions and inducing the purchase of the securities hereinabove described in paragraph G.

3. On November 10, 1942, registrant submitted to the trial examiner an "answer and consent" to revocation in which he acknowledged receipt and service of adequate notice of these proceedings and waived his opportunity for hearing. In said "answer and consent" registrant further admitted the existence of the cause of action set forth above and consented to the entry of an order revoking his registration as a broker and dealer.

4. On the basis of the foregoing, we find that registrant has willfully violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule X-15C1-2 promulgated pursuant thereto; and that it is in the public interest to revoke registrant's registration as a broker and dealer. Accordingly,

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration as a broker and dealer of Arthur F. Bernstein, doing business as A. F. Bernstein and Co., be and it hereby is revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy, Burke, and O'Brien), Commissioner Pike being absent and not participating.

Secretary.

COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 30th day of December 1942.

Appearances: William R. Nowlin and David Unterberg, for the Public Utilities Division, Securities and Exchange Commission; Frederick S. Beebe, of Cravath, de Gersdorff, Swain & Wood, New York City, for Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation.

Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, (hereinafter referred to as Columbia Gas), a registered holding company, and a subsidiary of The United Corporation, also a registered holding company, has filed an application for an extension to December 31, 1943, of the date, December 31, 1942, on which the balances remaining in its accounts designated "Special Capital Surplus" and "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" must be restored to its common capital stock account.

A public hearing on the application has been held after appropriate notice.

The application arises by reason of provisions in the findings and opinion (4 SEC 406) an order (Holding Company Act Release No. 1417) of the Commission permitting a declaration by Columbia Gas to become effective regarding the reduction of its common capital stock account from $194,349,005.62 to $12,304,282, so as to create a "Special Capital Surplus" of $182,044,723.62 and freezing for certain specified purposes the balance in its surplus account as of December 31, 1937 in the amount of $13,261,609.45 in an account designated "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938". Our order contained, among other things, a condition that:

(3a) * * * unless the time be extended by application to this Commission and order thereon, balances remaining in "Special Capital Surplus" and "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" on December 31, 1942 shall be restored to common capital stock account as of the date last mentioned.

The purpose, as stated by applicant, for the creation of the special surplus accounts was (a) to free future earnings for dividends, and (b) to make provision for correcting or eliminating any debatable items in applicant's investment account and in an amount adequate to absorb the various adjustments which applicant might be required or might decide to make in its accounts, including a reduction of the figures appearing on its books for its investment in each subsidiary as of December 31, 1937.

Certain adjustments and deductions of the nature proposed have been made to the surplus accounts, leaving balances remaining as at October 31, 1942 of $104,482,575.71 in "Special Capital Surplus" and $944,096.08 in "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938".

As to such remaining balances applicant states that the determination of the original cost of the fixed assets of its subsidiary companies is a necessary prerequisite to a final decision as to the amounts remaining in "Special Capital Surplus" and "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" accounts which are to be restored to the common capital stock account. Applicant further states that although the original cost studies of its subsidiaries have been diligently pressed and the subsidiary companies have at the peak of their respective studies employed over 750 men, unexpected delays and inability to obtain qualified help have hindered the completion of all the original cost studies. Nine such studies, however, have been completed and filed with regulatory bodies for review. In one instance (Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company) the regulatory body has made a field examination of the original cost report and conferences have been held regarding corrections and adjustments to be made in the property accounts of that company. Applicant estimates that most of the remaining cost studies will be finished by the middle of 1943 and contemplates the completion of all of the cost studies by the end of 1943.

Having considered the record, we have concluded that it is not detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers to grant the requested extension, with the express understanding that nothing herein contained is to be construed as a waiver of modification of any of the other terms and conditions contained in our Order of January 25, 1939 entered in this matter, and, It is so ordered.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL WATER AND GAS CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 31st day of December 1942.

In the matter of Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies, File No. 54-66; Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies, Respondents, File No. 59-61; and New York Water Service Corporation and Federal Water and Gas Corporation, File No. 59-35.

Notice of filing and order for hearing on plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e); notice of and order for hearing pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and order consolidating proceedings.

I

Notice is hereby given that Federal Water and Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for approval of a plan, the purpose of which is to effect compliance by Federal Water and Gas Corporation and its subsidiaries with the provisions of sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said Act. The plan provides for the disposition by Federal of all of its interests in subsidiary companies and its subsequent elimination either by dissolution or by merger with an appropriate company. All interested persons are referred to said plan which is on file at the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

(a) Federal proposes to sell sufficient assets to provide funds to retire its 5½% Debentures, Series due 1954, presently outstanding in an amount of approximately $4,600,000. In this connection a contract has already been entered into covering the sale of the preferred and common stocks owned by Federal of Union Water Service Company for $1,200,000 and in addition Federal is presently negotiating for the sale of its interests in Ohio Water Service Corporation and West Virginia Water Service Corporation.

(b) Federal proposes to sell to Southern Natural Gas Company, a subsidiary of Federal which is also a registered holding company, its investments in Chattanooga Gas Company and Mississippi Public Service Company, and also proposes to sell the Mississippi properties of Peoples Water and Gas Company to the Southern Natural Gas Company system.

(c) Thereafter, upon payment of its outstanding debentures and the sales described in (b) above, Federal will, in partial liquidation, distribute to its stockholders the share of stock of Southern Natural Gas Company of which it is then possessed.

(d) Federal also proposes to dispose of its interest in Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company, Pennsylvania Water Service Company, The Winton Water Company, New York Water Service Corporation, Peoples Water and Gas Company, Alabama Water Service Company, and the subsidiary companies thereof: Provided, however, That disposition by way of sale of securities of Pennsylvania Water Service Company, Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company, Peoples Water and Gas Company, and New York Water Service Corporation shall not be effected except after recapitalization of such companies.

(e) With respect to the recapitalization of New York Water Service Corporation, Federal Water and Gas Corporation and New York Water Service Corporation will consent to the entry of an order requiring them to take such steps as the Commission shall find necessary to change the capital structure of New York Water Service Corporation so as to provide a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders of such company, the common stock of such company held by Federal to be accorded no recognition in such recapitalization. Notwithstanding the above, it is, however, the intention of Federal Water and Gas Corporation and New York Water Service Corporation to sell the properties constituting the New York Water Service Corporation system from time to time as favorable opportunities are presented.

(f) In the event that the assets of Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company and Peoples Water and Gas Company are not disposed of by sale, it is proposed that such companies be recapitalized and that consent will be given to the entry of an order by the Commission requiring such recapitalization.

(g) Following the distribution to security holders of the stock of Southern Natural Gas Company owned by Federal, Federal will dispose of its assets, not theretofore sold, through sale wherever feasible and will distribute the proceeds thereof to security holders, or where disposition by sale is not advisable will distribute securities in kind to its stockholders. Federal will thereupon be eliminated either by dissolution or merger with an appropriate company.

II

The Commission having examined, pursuant to sections 11 (a), 18 (a), and 18 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "Act"), the corporate structure of Federal Water and Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, the relationship among companies of said holding company system, the character of the interests thereof and the properties owned or controlled thereby, to determine the extent to which the corporate structure of such holding company system and the companies therein may be simplified, unnecessary complexities therein eliminated, voting power fairly and equitably distributed among the holders of securities thereof, and the properties and business of such system should be confined to those necessary or appropriate to the operations of an integrated public utility system or systems under the standards of section 11 (b) of the Act; and said examination having disclosed data establishing or tending to establish the following:

* Exclusive of $125,000 pledged under Court Appeal Bond.

† Earned Surplus has been charged with the amount of preferred dividend arrears, totalling $4,172,765.

11. No dividends have been paid on either class of preferred stock of Scranton since November 15, 1931, nor on its common stock since August, 1931. Arrears on the $6 preferred stock and the $5 preferred stock, as of December 31, 1941, aggregated $60.75 and $50.62½ per share, respectively.

12. The consolidated balance sheet of Scranton and subsidiaries at December 31, 1941 states property, plant, and equipment, including intangibles, as follows:

Gross property	$58,065,218
Reserve for retirements and replacements	5,706,963
Net property	52,358,255

The reserve for retirements and replacements represented 9.8% of gross property.

13. As of December 31, 1941, the percentage of long term debt to consolidated net property was 68.0%; the percentage of the total of long term debt, the Special Loan from Federal, and preferred stock, including arrears, to consolidated net property was 92.3%.

14. The gross book value of the water and gas properties of Scranton, as reflected on its books at date of acquisition, March 20, 1928, was approximately $17,000,000 in excess of the amounts at which such properties were carried in the accounts of the predecessor companies. The amounts at which the property, plant, and equipment of such predecessor companies were shown on their books reflected an upward revaluation recorded since January 1, 1915 by a predecessor, Spring-Brook Water Supply Company, by which fixed capital was written up by $3,500,944 and the reserve for depreciation was decreased by $511,417. The contra credit was to surplus.

15. The gross book value of the properties at date of acquisition was $2,932,962 in excess of cost to the company, which amount was credited to the reserve for retirements and replacements.

16. Estimates of the original cost of the gas utility properties owned directly by Scranton, as of December 31, 1940 and as furnished by it to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, indicate that the book carrying value of approximately $6,500,000 of such properties, as of December 31, 1941, exceeds the estimated original cost of approximately $4,480,000 (including net addition in 1941) by more than $1,900,000.

17. The operating revenues, gross income before fixed charges, net income, preferred dividend requirements, and the balance for common stock, of Scranton, on a consolidated basis for each of the years from 1937 through 1941, were as follows:

	Operating revenues	Gross income before fixed charges	Net income before dividends	Preferred dividend requirements	Balance for common
1937	$4,157,318	$2,251,770	$440,056	$412,125	$27,931
1938	4,085,207	2,232,305	424,314	412,125	12,189
1939	4,170,837	2,320,269	494,778	412,125	82,653
1940	4,222,648	2,279,979	454,333	412,125	42,208

[1] Deficit.

18. For the years 1937 through 1941 (and since at least 1934) the Federal income tax returns of Scranton contain deductions for depreciation which are substantially greater than the provisions for retirements and replacements of property on its books during such years.

19. Unless and until preferred stock dividends of either series of preferred stock are in arrears for four quarterly periods, the entire voting control of Scranton is vested in the common stock, each share of which is entitled to one vote.

20. As a result of dividend arrears, the preferred stock of Scranton now has 41.4% of the voting power, and the common stock has 58.6% of the voting power.

22. Peoples operates natural gas distribution properties in Mississippi, man-

24. The balance sheet of Peoples, as of December 31, 1941, states utility plant, including intangibles, as follows:

Gross property	$4,534,233
Reserve for depreciation	761,021
Net property	3,773,212

The reserve for depreciation represented 16.8% of gross property. In addition, the company's balance sheet provided a reserve for "Loss on sale of property" of $150,655.

25. As of December 31, 1941, the percentage of long term debt to net property, per books, was 80.8%; such percentage, after deducting the reserve for "Loss on sale of property", was 84.1%.

26. As of December 31, 1941, the percentage of long term debt and preferred stock (stated at minimum liquidating value of $100) to net property was 99.3%; such percentage, after deducting the reserve for "Loss on sale of property", was 102.4%.

27. The recorded value of the properties at date of acquisition was $352,946 in excess of cost to the company, which amount was credited to the reserve for depreciation. In addition the recorded value of the properties included write-ups of $278,063 reflected by contra credits to capital surplus.

28. The operating revenues, gross income before fixed charges, net income, preferred dividend requirements and the balance for common stock, of Peoples per books, for each of the years 1937 through 1941 were as follows:

	Revenues	Gross income before charges	Net income before dividends	Preferred dividend requirements	Balance for common
1937	$1,695,876	$258,397	$88,703	$42,000	$46,703

1941	1,388,161	268,894	92,795	41,582	50,795

[1] Reflects saving in income tax of approximately $42,000, arising from losses sustained on sale of water properties.

29. Unless and until preferred stock dividends are in arrears for four quarterly periods, the entire voting control of Peoples is vested in the common stock, each share of which is entitled to one vote. Since there are no outstanding arrears on the preferred stock at the present time, the common stock has exclusive voting power.

It, therefore, tentatively appearing to the Commission, on the basis of the allegations hereinbefore set forth, that the holding company system of Federal Water and Gas Corporation is not confined in its operations to those of a single integrated public utility system, within the meaning of the Act, or to those of a single integrated public utility system together with such additional integrated public utility systems as meet the requirements of section 11 (b) (1) and such other businesses as can be retained under the standards of section 11 (b), and that proceedings should be instituted under section 11 (b) (1) with respect to the Federal Water and Gas Corporation holding company system; and

It further appearing to the Commission, on the basis of the allegations hereinbefore set forth, that proceedings should be instituted under sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act with respect to Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company and Peoples Water and Gas Company to determine whether and what steps should be required to be taken by each of such companies pursuant to the provisions of said sections;

Wherefore it is ordered, That Federal Water and Gas Corporation and each of its subsidiary companies hereinbefore named and included herein, all of which are hereby made Respondents in these proceedings, shall file with the Secretary of this Commission, on or before January 11, 1943, joint or several answers in the form prescribed by Rule U-25, admitting, denying, or otherwise explaining their respective positions as to each of the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 29 hereof.

VI

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the plan filed by Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies pursuant to section 11 (e),

It further appearing to the Commission that the proceedings instituted by it herein under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act, the proceedings in respect of the plan filed by Federal Water and Gas Corporation pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act and the proceedings heretofore instituted by the Commission directed to New York Water Service Corporation and Federal Water and Gas Corporation, pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Act (File No. 59-35) involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated.

It further is ordered, That such proceedings be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

VII

It is further ordered, That hearings on such matters, under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder, be held on the 18th day of January, 1943, at 10:00 a. m. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day, the hearing-room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Willis N. Monty, or any other officer or officers designated by the Commission to preside at such hearing, shall exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That:

1. At the outset of said hearings, evidence will be adduced for the purpose of determining:

(a) Whether the allegations set forth in paragraphs (1) to (29) hereof are true and accurate;

(b) Whether an order should be entered requiring the divestment by Federal of all interests held by it, directly or indirectly, in the businesses conducted and properties owned by Union Water Service Company, Ohio Water Service Company, West Virginia Water Service Company, Pennsylvania Water Service Company, Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company, and New York Water Service Corporation, and all subsidiaries of such companies: Provided, That in the case of Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company and New York Water Service Corporation such divestment shall not be effected through the sale of securities owned by Federal prior to the recapitalization of such companies in such manner as to provide for a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders thereof.

(c) Whether an order should be entered requiring the divestment by Federal of its interests in the water properties in Alabama owned by Alabama Water Service Company and the water properties in Oregon and the gas properties in Florida owned by Peoples Water and Gas Company; Provided, That in the case of the properties presently owned by Peoples Water and Gas Company such divestment shall not be effected through the sale of securities owned by Federal prior to the recapitalization of such company in such manner as to provide for a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders thereof.

(d) Whether the continued existence of Pennsylvania Water Service Company and the sixty-three inactive subsidiaries of Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company referred to in paragraph (5) hereof are not an unnecessary corporate complexity in the Federal holding company system and whether such companies should be eliminated;

(e) Whether an order should be entered requiring the recapitalization of Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company so as to provide a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders of such company;

(f) Whether an order should be entered requiring the recapitalization of Peoples Water and Gas Company so as to provide a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders of such company;

(g) Whether an order should be entered requiring recapitalization of New York Water Service Company so as to provide a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among security holders of such company, the common stock of such company to be accorded no recognition in such recapitalization;

(h) Whether the plan filed by Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiaries pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby.

2. At subsequent hearings, further evidence will be adduced for the purpose of determining:

(a) Whether the gas properties of Alabama Gas Company, Alabama Natural Gas Corporation, Huntsville Gas Company, Mississippi Public Service Company, Peoples Water and Gas Company, and Chattanooga Gas Company constitute more than a single integrated public utility system and systems additional thereto, control of which may be retained by Federal under section 11 (b) (1) of the Act;

(b) Whether the natural gas distribution properties located in Alabama and Mississippi constitute the principal or single integrated public utility system of Federal or such principal system and such additional integrated public utility systems as are retainable under section 11 (b) (1);

(c) Whether, under the terms of section 11 (b) (1) and especially clauses (A) and (C) thereof, Federal can retain any interest in the electric utility assets of Alabama Water Service Company located in Alabama;

(d) Whether, under section 11 (b) (1) and especially clauses (A) and (C) thereof, Federal can retain any interest in the gas utility property located in Chattanooga, Tenn.; and in its manufactured gas utility properties located in Alabama;

(e) Whether the businesses conducted by Southern Natural Gas Company and its non-utility subsidiaries are reasonably incidental or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of any of the gas utility systems operated by the companies named in paragraph 2 (a) above;

(f) Whether the continued existence of Federal is not an unnecessary corporate complexity in the Federal holding company system and whether such company should be eliminated;

(g) What further action may be required by Federal and its subsidiaries to effect complete compliance with section 11 (b) of the Act;

(h) Whether any of the acquisitions of securities or utility assets contemplated by the plan filed by Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies pursuant to the provisions of section 11 (e) of the Act will be detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of said Act and whether such acquisitions will serve the public interest by tending toward the economical and efficient development of an integrated public utility system.

It is further ordered, That all parties and persons permitted to participate in the proceeding directed toward New York Water Service Corporation and Federal Water and Gas Corporation under section 11 (b) (2) (File No. 59-35) shall be and hereby are given the same rights with respect to the present consolidated proceedings.

It is further ordered, That any other person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before the 14th day of January, 1943, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved to separate, either in whole or in part, for disposition in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economic disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order to Federal and its various subsidiaries, the Public Utility Commissions of the states of Alabama, Louisiana, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia, not less than 10 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of the hearing; and that notice of said hearing is hereby given to Federal and its subsidiaries, to their security holders, and to all consumers of Federal and its subsidiaries, to all state municipalities and political subdivisions of states within which is located any of the physical assets of said companies or under the laws of which any of said companies is incorporated, all State Commissions, State Securities Commissions, and all agencies, authorities and instrumentalities of one or more states, municipalities, or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over Federal or its subsidiaries or any of the businesses, affairs or operations of any of them; that such notice shall be given further by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than ten days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of hearing.

MACGILLIVRAY AND CO.

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS BROKER AND DEALER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of Duncan John MacGillivray, Jr., doing business as MacGillivray and Company, 308 Radio Central Building, Spokane, Washington.

1. Duncan John MacGillivray, Jr., doing business as MacGillivray and Company, a sole proprietorship, hereinafter referred to as registrant, is registered with this Commission as a broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

2. On October 20, 1942, we instituted proceedings under section 15 (b) of the Act to determine whether registrant's registration as a broker and dealer should be revoked. The order for proceedings stated that information had been reported to the Commission by its staff, which, if true, tended to show that registrant had willfully violated the provisions of section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule X-15-C-1-2 promulgated pursuant thereto. The order recited that information had been reported to the Commission to the effect that:

A. During the period from approximately January 1, 1941, to approximately April 1942, registrant sold stock of the Mohawk Mining Company to various persons. In making and inducing such sales, registrant represented to such persons that:

(1) Only a small amount of Mohawk Mining stock was available, when in fact, registrant had available at that time 50,000 shares of said stock and access to at least 35,000 additional shares;

(2) The price of Mohawk Mining Company stock would double within sixty to ninety days, when in fact, registrant had no reasonable basis for believing that the price of said stock would double within sixty to ninety days;

(3) Registrant had inside information concerning sensational news which, when released, would increase the price of said company's stock, when in fact, registrant had no such information.

B. During the period mentioned in paragraph A hereof, registrant, while engaged in the sale of Mohawk Mining Company stock, induced the purchasers thereof, by the representations which he made, to believe that the market price for such stock was advancing, but omitted to state to such persons that the advancing price was arbitrarily determined and fixed by said registrant and that there was no independent market for such stock.

C. During the period mentioned in paragraph A hereof, registrant, while engaged in the sale of Mohawk Mining Company stock represented to the purchasers thereof that the price at which he was offering said stock was the market price in Spokane, Washington, but omitted to state to such purchasers that said market price was made, created and controlled by him.

D. Registrant effected the transactions hereinabove mentioned in paragraphs A, B and C otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

E. Registrant used the mails and the instruments of interstate commerce in effecting the transactions and inducing the purchases and making the sales hereinabove described in paragraphs A, B and C.

3. A hearing was held before a trial examiner on November 10, 1942, at which time an "answer and consent" to revocation was submitted, in which registrant acknowledged receipt and service of adequate notice of these proceedings and waived his opportunity for hearing. In said "answer and consent" registrant further admitted and acknowledged, for the purpose of this proceeding only, the existence of the cause of action set forth above and consented to the entry of an order revoking his registration as a broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Act.

4. On the basis of the foregoing, we find that registrant has willfully violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule X-15C1-2 promulgated pursuant thereto; and that it is in the public interest to revoke registrant's registration as a broker and dealer. Accordingly,

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration as a broker and dealer of Duncan John MacGillivray, Jr., doing business as McGillivray and Company, be and it hereby is revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy, Burke, and O'Brien), Commissioner Pike being absent and not participating.

Chapter II—Office of Alien Property Custodian

[General Order 15]

PART 503—GENERAL ORDERS

ALIEN INVENTORS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned hereby issues the following regulation:

§ 503.15 General Order No. 15. (a) Any inventor (1) who claims full legal title to a patent or patent application vested by the Alien Property Custodian, (2) who resided in enemy territory at the date of execution of the application for patent or at any time since such date but before the date on which said patent or patent application was vested, (3) who has not resided in enemy territory at any time on or since the date on which said patent or patent application was vested, and (4) who is desirous of notifying the Alien Property Custodian of such claim, may file a notice of said claim on Form APC–16, which is hereby adopted and made a part of this regulation; Provided, however, That said inventor resides in the United States on the date on which said notice of claim is executed. Form APC–16 shall be executed under oath, shall be filed with the Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington, D. C., and shall contain complete information as provided in said Form.

(b) Any person (1) who claims full legal title to a patent or patent application vested by the Alien Property Custodian as a result of assignment to such person and (2) who is desirous of notifying the Alien Property Custodian of such claim, may file a notice of said claim on Form APC–17, which is hereby adopted and made a part of this Regulation; Provided, however, That on the date upon which said patent or patent application was vested, said person was a resident and citizen of the United States; And provided further, That no claim shall be filed on Form APC–17 unless before January 1, 1939, the patent or patent application stood of record in the United States Patent Office in the name of a resident and citizen of the United States. Form APC–17 shall be executed under oath, shall be filed with the Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington, D. C., and shall contain complete information as provided in said Form.

(c) The existence of an interest of a designated foreign national in the patent or patent application (such as a right to receive royalties) shall not constitute a bar to the filing of a notice of claim under Sections (a) or (b) hereof provided that the person filing said notice otherwise claims full legal title to such patent or patent application and provided such interest of a designated foreign national has been reported on Form APC–2.

(d) Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit any provision made for the assertion of a claim arising as a result of a vesting order, and the filing of a notice of claim on either Form APC–16 or Form APC–17 shall in no way prevent the filing of a notice of claim on Form APC–1 with respect to the same property.

(e) If, in the opinion of the Alien Property Custodian, upon consideration of any notice of claim filed under this regulation, a patent or patent application was vested by mistake, the vesting order by which such patent or patent application was vested may be declared null and void to the extent that the patent or patent application is involved therein.

(f) For the purpose of this regulation:

(1) "Enemy territory" shall mean the territory of any foreign country with which the United States is, or may in the future be, at war and any territory controlled or occupied by the military, naval or police forces or other authority of any such foreign country. PART 402—LOAN SERVICE DIVISION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amending Part 402, Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations: §§ 402.00–1 [6 F.R. 5636] and 402.16–5 [6 F.R. 5639] are revoked.

The third paragraph of § 402.00 (n) [6 F.R. 5632] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.00 General policy and home office. * * *

(n) Authority to pay expenses in connection with servicing. * * *

Any Regional Manager, with the advice or approval of the Regional Counsel where required, may exercise the authority herein granted, up to and not exceeding $50.

Section 402.03 (b) [6 F.R. 5633] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.03 Analysis and review section. * * *

(b) Cases to be reviewed. This section shall review all cases where contemplated advances will affect the future servicing of the account, excepting those which may be reviewed by the Control Supervisor.

The first paragraph of § 402.12 (a) [6 F.R. 5633] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.12 Foreclosure—(a) Foreclosure and deficiency judgments. After all efforts to collect the debt owing to the corporation have been made, as is provided by the rules and regulations, and all efforts to assist the home owner have been exhausted and it becomes necessary to protect the taxpayers, the General Manager may authorize foreclosure or the acceptance of a deed in lieu thereof. When deeds in lieu of foreclosure are accepted from owners of mortgaged properties in settlement of the indebtedness owing to the Corporation no sum shall be paid to the owner of the property, but as a part of the consideration for such deed an owner may be permitted to continue in possession of the premises for a limited time within the discretion of the Regional Manager under advice of the Regional Counsel. When foreclosure is authorized it shall be determined whether or not a deficiency claim shall be retained on the books of the Corporation if the value of the security is less than the amount of the debt.

Section 402.13 (a) [6 F.R. 5636] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.13 (a) Suspension and withdrawal of foreclosure. At any time prior to the acquisition of absolute title by the Corporation, the General Manager, with the advice of the General Counsel, may direct that foreclosure proceedings or negotiations for a deed in lieu of foreclosure be suspended or withdrawn and the loan or sales account reinstated on such terms and conditions as he may determine to be for the best interest of the Corporation. In connection with such withdrawal and reinstatement he may effect the cancelation of the old indebtedness and the taking of new loan or sales instruments. In connection therewith he may also direct the acquisition of title by the Corporation and the execution of instalment contracts or other like sales instruments or deeds to home owners or to third parties, accepting appropriate security instruments. No suspension, withdrawal or reinstatement in such cases shall be made which would involve a loss to the Corporation. The authority herein granted may be exercised in any case where a notice of withdrawal has been issued, but on account of the lack of time or for other cause, the reinstatement has not been accomplished prior to the acquisition of absolute title. All cases handled under such authority shall be classified as withdrawn foreclosures and not as sales. The authority herein vested in the General Manager may be exercised also by the Regional Manager, with the advice of the Regional Counsel.

Section 402.13–5 [6 F.R. 5638] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.13–5 Payments required. Before temporary or other suspension is directed, the home owner should ordinarily be required to remit a sum at least equivalent to the costs and expenses which have been incurred, but cases will arise in which such remittance cannot be made immediately by the home owner, and in such cases the Regional Manager should determine whether the required sum will be paid in full within a short time and whether temporary or other suspension without the immediate payment of such sum will be in the best interests of the Corporation.

Section 402.15 (a) [6 F.R. 5633] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.15 (a) Caretaker for abandoned property. In any case in which it is found necessary to appoint a caretaker for property upon which the Corporation holds a loan and which has been abandoned, the Regional Manager with the advice of the Regional Counsel, may appoint such a caretaker, appropriately instruct him as to the performance of his work and determine the compensation therefor. The expense thereof shall be paid from the Regional Working Fund.

Section 402.16 (a) [6 F.R. 5633] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.16 (a) Advances for reconditioning. The General Manager may authorize advances for the account of borrowers, vendees and transferees, to accomplish reconditioning of any nature whatsoever, provided such reconditioning is determined to be in the best interest of the Corporation in order to protect its security, to facilitate the collection of the indebtedness owing to the Corporation or to promote the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Corporation; and may incur and approve the amount and payment of fees and expenses in connection with such advances, except legal fees and expenses which shall be incurred, approved and paid as provided in Part 406 of this chapter.

The authority herein granted may be exercised, also, by the Regional Manager in those cases where he determines that an advance for reconditioning is in the best interest of the Corporation in order to protect its security or to facilitate the collection of the indebtedness owing to the Corporation, provided the amount to be authorized (exclusive of legal and inspection fees) does not exceed $1000, and subject to the advice of the Regional Counsel and to the provisions of Part 405 of this chapter.

Section 402.17–4 [6 F.R. 5639] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.17–4 Property purchase by Corporation employee. When an officer or employee of the Corporation desires to enter into a contract with a home owner to purchase any property on which the Corporation holds a loan or sales instrument, such officer or employee shall submit a statement or the proposed sale contract, with a statement by the home owner or other satisfactory evidence that said home owner has been informed of the purchaser's relationship to the Corporation and that the proposed sale agreement is voluntarily entered into. All statements and other information relating to the transaction shall be forwarded through the Control Supervisor to the Regional Manager. If the Regional Manager recommends approval of the transaction, he shall forward all information with respect to the proposed sale, together with the loan docket and his recommendations to the Property Committee in the Home Office.

The third paragraph of § 402.18 (a) (3) [6 F.R. 5633] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.18 Deceased borrowers—(a) Filing of claims. * * *

(3) * * *

The authority herein vested in the General Manager may be exercised also by Regional Managers.

The second paragraph of § 402.19–1 [6 F.R. 5639] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.19–1 Policy. * * *

Payment for errors by employees. Where the Corporation is requested to release a portion of the property covered by its lien description, because of error in including more property than was owned by the home owner, the Regional Manager shall ascertain the party responsible for such error and require such party or parties, if still in the employ of the Corporation, to pay the expenses incident to the release. If the party responsible for the error is not in the employ of the Corporation, such steps as the Regional Manager deems advisable shall be taken to obtain from such party reimbursement for the expenses incident to the correction. However, the collection of the expenses as provided herein shall not be considered as a condition precedent to the granting of the release. If, in the opinion of the Regional Counsel, the Corporation has acquired any substantial interest in the property by virtue of advances made or otherwise, for which it has a right of recovery either in law or equity, the release shall not be executed unless, in the opinion of the Regional Manager and Regional Counsel, the release would be for the best interests of the Corporation.

The first paragraph of § 402.19–26 [6 F.R. 5640] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.19–26 Instruments used and terms of repayment. The Regional Manager with the advice of the Regional Counsel shall decide whether the present mortgage shall be released in full and two or more new mortgages taken in lieu thereof or whether the present mortgage shall be released in part and a new mortgage taken for the part released. Whether released in whole or in part, any new mortgage must be executed by the present home owner and the new mortgage on the property purchased must be assumed by the purchaser in the conveyance or otherwise. When the foregoing procedure pertaining to instruments to be taken cannot be followed under the laws and practices in any particular state, such procedure may be followed as shall be in conformity with such laws and practices. The total indebtedness secured by said mortgages shall equal the balance due the Corporation less any credits to the loan arising from the transaction. The Regional Manager, with the advice of the Regional Counsel, shall fix the amortization rate on any new mortgages and the terms of any supplemental agreement with the home owner providing for revised amortization of the indebtedness not assumed by the purchaser, in conformity with § 402.10 (a). No instrument shall be executed the effect of which will be to release or modify the rights of the Corporation against sureties or other parties secondarily liable without the express approval of the Regional Manager with the advice of Regional Counsel. When the transaction is consummated, the indebtedness to the Corporation shall be secured by liens valid in the opinion of the Regional Counsel, who shall make a certificate to that effect.

Section 402.24 (c) shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.24 Taxes. * * *

(c) Consents to moratoria or assessments. The Regional Manager, with the advice of the Regional Counsel, may grant consents to home owners to enable them to comply with the necessary requirements to obtain the benefit of moratoria established or declared by proper legislative authority or legal action, relating to taxes, assessments, or other governmental levies or charges.

The Regional Manager may execute consents to proposed improvements out of which assessments or levies will arise.

On properties owned by the Corporation, agreements or other instruments required to be executed to permit the payment of taxes or assessments in installments may, when approved by Regional Counsel, be executed by the Regional Manager.

Section 402.24–16 [6 F.R. 5643] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.24–16 Relating to moratoria. Consents relating to moratoria affecting taxes, assessments, or other governmental levies or charges shall not be executed unless in the opinion of the Regional Counsel such moratoria are valid and such consents will not affect the enforceability or priority of the Corporation's lien and will not render the Corporation liable for any taxes, assessments or other governmental levies or charges, or for any interest or penalties, and the home owner requesting such consent has executed an agreement for a tax and insurance account.

Section 402.24–17 [6 F.R. 5643] shall be amended to read as follows:

§ 402.24–17 Consents to proposed improvements. The Regional Manager, with the advice of the Regional Counsel, may execute on behalf of the Corporation consents to proposed improvements out of which assessments or levies will arise, when in the opinion of the Regional Manager, such action is in the best interests of the Corporation. Petitions and requests for local or neighborhood improvements which affect properties under the jurisdiction of the Property Management Division and out of which assessments or levies will not arise are governed by the provisions of Part 403 of this chapter.

Effective December 15, 1942.

[Limitation Order L-180 as Amended Jan. 5, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of antimony, lead, tin, rubber, and other materials entering into the production of automotive replacement storage batteries used in the operation of passenger automobiles and light trucks, medium and heavy trucks, truck tractors, truck trailers, passenger carriers and off-the-highway motor vehicles, for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3034.1 Limitation Order L-180—(a) Certain orders hereby superseded. This order, Limitation Order L-180, supersedes Supplementary Limitation Order L-4-b, issued April 25, 1942, and Limitation Order L-35, issued January 22, 1942, as amended.

(b) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of applicable priorities regulations, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(1) Protection of production schedules. Producers under the terms of this order may, notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), schedule production of automotive replacement storage batteries without regard to purchase orders or contracts placed with them for other materials on ratings lower than A-2.

(c) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

* * * * *

* * * * *

(2) An allowance for transportation calculated on the basis of the average combined freight rate per hundredweight paid by the dealer for shipment from factory to dealer of complete farm equipment of the same general type: Provided, That where shipments are customarily made via branch or transfer point, this allowance shall not exceed carload freight from factory to branch or transfer point, less any freight allowance or rebate received by the dealer plus actual less-than-carload freight from branch or transfer point to dealer, the branch or transfer point selected being that from which the dealer has received the greatest dollar value of less than carload shipments of complete equipment of the same make during the preceding six months.

(3) The manufacturer's or wholesale distributor's handling charge paid by the dealer if not included in the manufacturer's or wholesale distributor's charge for freight.

(b) New parts with suggested retail prices. The maximum price applicable to the sale by any retail dealer of any new farm equipment part for which the manufacturer has issued a suggested retail price shall be the suggested retail price plus actual freight cost from factory to dealer less any freight allowance or rebate received by the dealer, plus the manufacturer's or wholesale distributor's handling charge paid by the dealer if not included in the manufacturer's or wholesale distributor's charge for freight, plus any extra expense in connection with the sale, such as long distance telephone calls, incurred at the request of the purchaser.

(c) New complete equipment and parts without suggested retail prices—(1) In general. The maximum price applicable to the sale by any retail dealer of any new complete farm equipment or part for which the manufacturer has not issued a suggested retail price shall be the net price at which such item was sold or offered for sale on April 1, 1942 (including all extra charges, but not including any sales, use or gross receipts tax). If such item was not sold or offered for sale on April 1, 1942, the maximum price shall be the net cost of the item to the dealer plus either (i) a percentage markup equal to the percentage markup over net invoiced cost on the last previous sale of the same item, or (ii) if the item was never before sold or offered for sale, a percentage markup equal to the percentage markup over net invoiced cost on the last sale in the fifteen months preceding April 1, 1942, of the most nearly comparable equipment or part sold by the dealer during that period; or (iii) if no comparable equipment or part was sold during the fifteen months preceding April 1, 1942, a percentage markup equal to the average percentage markup over net invoiced cost on all farm equipment sold by the dealer between March 1 and April 1, 1942, inclusive.

(2) Adjustment where price to dealer was changed prior to April 1, 1942. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1), if for any new complete farm equipment or part for which the manufacturer has not issued a suggested retail price a retail dealer had a price in effect on April 1, 1942 which was established at a time when the manufacturer's or wholesaler's price to him was lower than that in effect on April 1, 1942, the maximum price applicable to the sale of the item by such dealer shall be the dealer's net price in effect on April 1, 1942, plus a percentage increase equal to the percentage increase in the manufacturer's or wholesaler's price to him made prior to April 1, 1942.

(3) Adjustment where price to dealer changed pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 246. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1), if for any new complete equipment or part for which the manufacturer has not issued a suggested retail price the manufacturer's or wholesaler's price to any retail dealer has been increased since April 1, 1942 in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 246 or of any other maximum price regulation, the maximum price applicable to the sale of the item by the dealer shall be the dealer's price in effect on April 1, 1942, plus a percentage increase equal to the percentage increase in the manufacturer's or wholesaler's price to him made since April 1, 1942 in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 246 or such other regulation.

(d) Sales by manufacturers. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 133, for any item of farm equipment which the manufacturer thereof sells exclusively at retail, his maximum price shall be determined pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 246—Manufacturers' and Wholesale Prices for Farm Equipment; for any item of farm equipment which the manufacturer sells both to distributors and dealers and at retail but for which he has not issued a suggested retail price, his maximum price for all sales of the item shall be determined pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 246; for any item which the manufacturer sells both to distributors and dealers and at retail, and for which he has issued a suggested retail price, his maximum price for sales at retail shall be determined pursuant to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 133.

Farm tractors (except crawler tractors)
Combines
Corn pickers
Corn binders
Hay balers (motor or tractor operated)

The "base price" is the first of the following which is available:

(1) The manufacturer's suggested retail price for the same item of equipment f. o. b. factory which is currently in effect or if there is no such price currently in effect, the manufacturer's suggested retail price last issued; or

(2) If the item of equipment has no manufacturer's current suggested retail price and never had any, the maximum price for which the same or nearest equivalent item might be sold new by any dealer in the locality, minus carload freight from the plant of the manufacturer thereof.

(b) Maximum prices—sales by farmers, auctioneers, etc. The maximum price applicable to the sale by any person other than a retail dealer of any item of used farm equipment listed in paragraph (a) of this section shall be 85% of the "base price" if the item is sold within one year after sale new, and in any other case shall be 70% of the "base price". This paragraph does not apply to items of used farm equipment not listed in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Maximum prices—sales by dealers—in general. (1) In general, the maximum price applicable to the sale by any retail dealer of any item of used farm equipment including items listed in paragraph (a) of this section shall be the sum of

(i) The trade-in allowance granted or purchase price paid by the dealer, or, in the case of a repossessed item, the balance due to the dealer, distributor, manufacturer, or finance company;

(ii) $15 or 5% of (i), whichever is the greater;

(iii) The maximum prices herein specified for such parts as are needed and used in repairing the equipment;

(iv) A charge for other materials and for labor needed and used in repairing the equipment, not to exceed maximum prices determined in accordance with the applicable maximum price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.

In no event, however, shall the price so calculated for any item of used farm equipment listed in paragraph (a) of this section exceed 85% of the "base price" if the item is sold within one year of its sale new, or 70% of the "base price" in any other case.

(2) In the case of a sale by a dealer of any item which has been transported more than 100 miles from the place of its purchase, there may be added to the price as calculated in subparagraph (1) above, the actual cost of transportation from the place of purchase to the dealer's place of business.

(d) Maximum prices—sales by service dealers—reconditioned and guaranteed. (1) For any item of used farm equipment including items listed in paragraph (a) of this section which has been reconditioned by a service dealer and which has been guaranteed by such dealer in accordance with this paragraph (d), the maximum price applicable to the sale of such item by the dealer to a user shall be the sum of:

(i) The trade-in allowance granted or purchase price paid by the dealer, or, in the case of a repossessed item, the balance due to the dealer, distributor, manufacturer, or finance company;

(ii) $15 or 25% of (i), whichever is the greater;

(iii) The maximum prices herein specified for such parts as are needed and used in reconditioning the equipment;

(iv) A charge for other materials and for labor needed and used in reconditioning, not to exceed maximum prices determined in accordance with the applicable maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

In no event, however, shall the price so calculated for any item of used farm equipment listed in paragraph (a) of this section exceed 95% of the "base price".

(2) In the case of a sale by a service dealer of any item which has been transported more than 100 miles from the place of its purchase and has been reconditioned and guaranteed, there may be added to the price as calculated in subparagraph (1) above the actual cost of transportation from the place of purchase to the dealer's place of business.

(3) No item of farm equipment shall be sold at a price determined in accordance with this paragraph (d), unless all parts which should be replaced, repaired, adjusted, or aligned for satisfactory operation have been replaced, repaired, adjusted, or aligned and unless the dealer shall furnish the purchaser with a signed guarantee in the form set forth in Appendix A, § 1361.11, containing the information called for in such form.

§ 1361.4 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 133, shall not be evaded directly or indirectly by way of any commission; by way of excessive charges for services; by way of any change in discounts applicable to sales of items of farm equipment for which the manufacturer has issued no suggested retail price; by any change in credit terms or conditions of sale; by reducing the services provided during warranty period in accordance with factory policy; by reducing "free" services customarily provided; by removing any standard auxiliary equipment or in any other way lowering the quality of any equipment sold; by requiring the buyer to purchase any optional equipment, or to pay for any services not desired, or to agree to trade in used equipment in part payment of the purchase price; by refusing to sell equipment for cash; by making arrangements with other dealers for the exchange of used equipment so as to increase the profits obtainable from the resale of used equipment; by undervaluing goods other than farm equipment received in trade; or by any other hidden or indirect price increases.

§ 1361.5 Itemized invoices — new equipment. (a) In connection with every sale for $15 or more of any item

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[2] Where shipments of complete farm equipment of the same general type have been received by rail or by truck from the same factory in the 3-month period immediately preceding the month in which the sale occurs, the "average combined freight rate per hundredweight" shall be the average rate for the preceding 3-month period, after deduction of any freight allowances or rebates received by the dealer. When there have been no shipments of equipment of the same general type in the preceding 3-month period, the "average combined freight rate per hundredweight" shall be the average rate for the current month, up to the date of the sale in question. For the purposes of this paragraph, all farm equipment which is classified in any one l. c. l. freight class may be considered as of the same general type.

(b) Upon request from a purchaser, every retail dealer, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date of sale, the name and address of the seller, the name of each commodity sold and the price received for it.

§ 1361.6 Records and reports. * * *

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, any retail dealer may, instead of keeping for inspection by the Office of Price Administration records of each sale of any item of farm equipment selling for less than $15, keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect the price lists or other data used by the dealer in establishing his maximum prices for such items.

§ 1361.9 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 133, the term:

Important. The apportioned classified Civil Service includes central offices physically located in Washington, D. C., or elsewhere. Positions in local post offices, customs districts and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his state of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from states which are in arrears. The apportionment is observed in certifications except to low salaried positions; but as persons who receive appointments in the Departmental Service under the War Service Regulations do not thereby acquire a permanent classified civil service status, their appointments are not charged to the apportionment.

NORTHERN STATES POWER COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 31st day of December, A. D., 1942.

In the matter of Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota).

Northern States Power Company (Delaware), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), also a registered holding company, having filed a joint declaration pursuant to section 12 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder, regarding a proposal that all payments on the principal of the open account indebtedness (which is now in the amount of $7,530,852.08) owing by Northern States Power Company (Delaware) to Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) now due or to become due up to June 30, 1943 be postponed until the latter date because a plan filed by Northern States Power Company (Delaware) pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act for its liquidation and dissolution, the proceedings on which are still pending, provides for the disposition of said indebtedness primarily by the surrender to Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) of 481,111 shares of the common stock of the last mentioned company (all of which is owned by Northern States Power Company (Delaware)) and for a distribution of the remaining shares of the common stock of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), among the stockholders of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), and because a reduction in the indebtedness would necessitate an alteration in the allocations proposed by the plan and serve no useful purpose; Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) agrees that, if said joint declaration is permitted to become effective, it will pending the consummation of the plan and until June 30, 1943, or the date of such consummation (whichever shall be earlier) segregate on its books $345,650.18 (the balance of the payment on such indebtedness due for the year 1942) of its earned surplus as not being available for the declaration of dividends on its common stock; declarants further request that Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) be permitted to waive all interest due on said indebtedness for the period from December 31, 1942, to June 30, 1943;

Said joint declaration having been filed on December 21, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U-23 under said Act and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified within such notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commisison finding that all applicable statutory requirements are met and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the agreement with respect to earned surplus set forth in said joint declaration, that the said declaration be and the same is hereby permitted to become effective forthwith: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as constituting a determination by us of the propriety of the disposition of the open account indebtedness as proposed in the aforementioned plan.

By the Commission.

PETROLEUM INFORMATION SERVICE, INC.

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS AN INVESTMENT ADVISER

In the matter of Petroleum Information Service, Inc., 11 East 44th Street, New York, New York.

1. Petroleum Information Service, Inc., a New York Corporation, hereinafter called registrant, is registered with this Commission as an investment adviser under section 203 (c) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Since December 15, 1940, William E. Housel has been president, a director, and controlling person of registrant. On March 26, 1942, the Commission revoked the registration of Housel as a broker and dealer, having found that he had willfully violated the provisions of section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-15C1-2 thereunder.

2. On August 24, 1942 we instituted proceedings under sections 203 (d) [1] and 203 (g),[2] respectively, of the Act to determine whether registrant's registration as an investment adviser should be suspended, revoked, or cancelled. The order for proceedings stated that information had been reported to the Commission by members of its staff which, if true, tended to show that:

(a) Housel is permanently enjoined by an order of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, in and for the County of New York, entered on February 19, 1942, from engaging in certain conduct and practices in connection with the purchase and sale of securities; and

(b) Registrant has been dissolved in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and is no longer engaged in business as an investment adviser.

3. After appropriate notice, a hearing was held before the trial examiner on September 2, 1942. The registrant did not appear in person or by counsel.

The record shows, and we find that an injunction was entered against William E. Housel, president of the registrant, at Special Term, Part 2, of the Supreme Court of the State of New York held in the County of New York on February 17, 1942. By judgment of said court Housel was "permanently enjoined and restrained from the issuance of, offering for sale, sale, promotion, negotiation, advertisement and distribution, within and from the State of New York, of any stocks, bonds, notes, evidences of interest or indebtedness, including oil and mineral deeds or leases or any interest therein sold or transferred in whole or in part to the purchaser, where the same do not effect a transfer of the title in fee to the land or other securities, issued, and which may hereafter be issued, of any person, partnership, corporation, company, trust or association, and from any act in aid or furtherance of the same;"

It further appears and we find that registrant has been dissolved and is no longer engaged in business as an investment adviser. It does not appear from the record whether or not the dissolution may be set aside under state law and the registrant thereby regain its corporate status.

4. Because of the nature of the injunction issued against registrant's chief officer and controlling person and in the absence of any proffer of mitigating circumstances, we find that revocation of registrant's registration as an investment adviser is in the public interest. Accordingly,

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 203 (d) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, that the registration of Petroleum Information Service, Inc., as an investment adviser, be and it hereby is revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy, Burke, and O'Brien), Commissioner Pike being absent and not participating.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

[1] Section 203 (d) provides that "the Commission after hearing may by order * * * revoke or suspend the registration of an applicant under this section, if the Commission finds that such * * * revocation, or suspension is in the public interest and that such investment adviser or any partner, officer, director, person performing similar function, or controlling person thereof—

(1) within ten years of the issuance of such order, has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor involving the purchase or sale of any security or arising out of any conduct or practice of such investment adviser or affiliated person as an investment adviser, underwriter, broker, or dealer, or as an affiliated person or employee of any investment company, bank, or insurance company;

(2) at the time of the issuance of such order, is permanently or temporarily enjoined by order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction from acting as an investment adviser, underwriter, broker, or dealer, or as an affiliated person or employee of any investment company, bank, or insurance company, or from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with any such activity or in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(3) has violated the provisions of section 207 of this title."

[2] Section 203 (g) provides with reference to cancellation proceedings that "If the Commission finds that any person registered under this section, or who has pending an application for registration filed under this section, is no longer in business or is not engaged in business as an investment adviser, the Commission shall by order cancel the registration of such person."

THE UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND CONSOLIDATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 2nd day of January, 1943.

In the matters of The United Gas Improvement Company, applicant, The United Gas Improvement Company and subsidiary companies, respondents and Philadelphia Electric Company and The United Gas Improvement Company, applicants and declarants.

Notice is hereby given that a joint declaration or application (or both), pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, has been filed by The United Gas Improvement Company, a registered holding company, and Philadelphia Electric Company, a subsidiary of The United Gas Improvement Company.

All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a full statement of the action proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Philadelphia Electric Company proposes to change its 15,000,000 authorized shares of common stock into 2,369,076 shares of $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock and 12,630,924 shares of Common Stock, both without nominal or par value, and to change its outstanding 10,529,230 shares of Common Stock into shares of said $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock and new Common Stock on the basis of 1 share of its outstanding Common Stock for 9 40th of a share of the new $1 Dividend Stock and 31 40th of a share of the new Common Stock (non-voting Scrip in bearer form to be issued for fractional shares). The United Gas Improvement Company owns approximately 97% of the outstanding common stock of Philadelphia Electric; The United Gas Improvement Company will dispose of substantially all of the shares of $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock and of the new Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric to be acquired in exchange for its present holding of common stock as follows: The $1 Dividend Preference Common Shares, plus cash, will be exchanged for the outstanding preferred stock of The United Gas Improvement Company and the new Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric will be distributed to the common stockholders of The United Gas Improvement Company as a partial distribution of capital.

The shares of the new $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric Company are to have preference over its new Common Stock as to and be limited to dividends of $1 per annum payable in quarterly installments, and no dividends shall be payable on the Common Stock unless and until all dividends on the $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock have been paid for all past quarterly dividend periods. Each share of the $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock will be convertible at the option of the holder into 1 share of the new Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric Company during the first 3 years following the effective date of the recapitalization plan of Philadelphia Electric, $\frac{7}{8}$th of a share thereof during the succeeding 3 years, $\frac{3}{4}$th of a share thereof during the succeeding 3 years, and $\frac{2}{3}$rd of a share thereof during the succeeding 3 years. Thus, a maximum of 2,369,076 shares of new Common Stock may be issued, in conversion of outstanding shares of $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock. After the 12-year period the conversion privilege will terminate. The $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock is to have no preemptive rights to subscribe to additional shares of any class of Philadelphia Electric capital stock but in all other respects shall have the same voting and other rights, excepting as aforesaid, as the new Philadelphia Electric Common Stock; Provided, however, That Philadelphia Electric Company may not be voluntarily liquidated and its business wound up (not including a merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all its property) without the consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric Company. The present stated value of $137,816,005 now applicable to the outstanding Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric Company will remain unchanged so that the same aggregate amount will be applicable to the $1 Dividend Preference Common Stock and new Common Stock of Philadelphia Electric Company.

The applicants and declarants consider that sections 6 (a), 7, 9 (a) (1), 10, 12 (c), 12 (d) of the Act and Rules U-23, U-24, U-43, U-44 promulgated thereunder are applicable to the proposed transactions and request a finding under paragraph (a) (5) of Rule U-50 exempting the proposed issue and sale by Philadelphia Electric Company of the new stocks from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interests of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said declarations and applications and that said declarations shall not become effective or said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the proceedings consolidated by the Commission's order of December 24, 1942 in respect of the above-mentioned plan filed by The United Gas Improvement Company pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act (File No. 54-65) and in respect of the pending proceedings under section 11 (b) (1) of the Act (File No. 59-6); and the matters concerned in the declarations or applications referred to above are related and involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated for hearing and for consideration and disposition by the Commission;

It is hereby ordered, That said consolidated proceedings and said declarations or applications be, and the same hereby are, consolidated for hearing and for consideration and disposition by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That a hearing on such matters, under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules promulgated thereunder, be held on the 19th day of January 1943 at 10 a. m. in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated at such time by the hearing-room clerk in Room 318.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

REVOCATION OF PREFERENCE RATING

Name and address of builder: U. S. Department of Interior, Bureau of Reclamation, Denver, Colorado. Name and location of project: Central Valley Project, California, Keswick Dam.

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of metals, lumber and other materials used in construction, for defense, for private account and for export, and of construction machinery and other facilities used in construction; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate to the public interest and to promote the national defense: It is therefore ordered:

1. Revocation of ratings. Preference Rating Order P-19-a, Serial No. 983-A, is heretofore issued and assigned under date of August 29, 1942 to deliveries to the above-named builder and to deliveries to his suppliers, is hereby revoked except for such deliveries of materials necessary for permitted further construction as hereinafter defined in paragraph (3). All preference rating certificates of any character heretofore issued to the builder or to any of his suppliers are hereby revoked, insofar as they apply to purchase orders or contracts for materials to be incorporated in or used upon the above project described (hereinafter referred to as "the project"), except for such deliveries of materials necessary for permitted further construction as hereinafter defined in paragraph (3).

2. Effect of revocation. This revocation shall apply to ratings heretofore applied and extended as well as to ratings which have not yet been applied or extended, except with respect to rated orders and contracts which have been completely filled, shall have the status of unrated orders or contracts.

3. Prohibition of contruction. The builder shall neither perform nor permit the performance of any further construction or installation on the project described above except for permitted further construction being:

(a) The completion of the spillway bridge and the fishtrap structure;

(b) The placing of approximately 3,500 cubic yards of concrete to raise the low blocks in the spillway structure about seven feet;

(c) The placing of approximately 23,000 cubic yards of concrete in the three blocks of the dam containing the power penstocks, to raise them to elevation 555;

(d) The construction of timber bulkheads for the protection of the power house;

(e) Other construction solely for purposes of safety or health or to avoid undue damage to or deterioration of materials: Provided, That temporary measures shall be utilized to the fullest extent practicable.

4. Prohibition of deliveries of material. Neither the builder nor any supplier, shall deliver or accept delivery of any further materials to be used in connection with the construction of or any installation on the project except material necessary for permitted further construction hereinbefore defined. This paragraph shall not, however, prohibit the delivery to their immediate destination of any materials which are now in transit, or the acceptance of any such delivery.

5. Reports. The builder shall file with the War Production Board Materials Redistribution Branch, such reports as may be required by the Director General for Operations.

6. Notice to suppliers. The builder shall promptly advise its suppliers of the terms of this order, and each supplier shall in turn notify his suppliers.

7. Application for exception. The builder or any supplier who considers that compliance with this order would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may apply to the Director General for Operations for an exception, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to the relief requested. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, including the restoration or temporary restoration of any rating herein revoked. Applications for exception under this paragraph shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Ref. P-19, Washington, D. C.

8. Effect on prior orders. This order supersedes all previous orders and directives of the War Production Board relative to the project.

9. Communications. Communications concerning this revocation shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Ref. P-19, Washington, D. C.

1. Revocation of ratings. Preference Rating Order P-19-a, Serial No. 984-A, heretofore issued and assigned under date of August 27, 1942 to deliveries to the above-named builder and to deliveries to his suppliers, is hereby revoked except for such deliveries of materials necessary for permitted further construction as hereinafter defined in paragraph (3). (b) Restrictions on producers or authorized receivers of butter. (1) Every person who has produced more than 12,000 pounds of butter in any calendar month of 1942 or in January 1943 shall set aside and hold for delivery to the Food Distribution Administration (including, but not being limited to, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation), Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or any other governmental agency designated by the Director, at least 30 percent of all butter produced by such person during February 1943 and each subsequent month, regardless of the quantity produced by him during and after February 1943; and every person who has not produced more than 12,000 pounds of butter in any calendar month of 1942 or in January 1943 but who produces more than 12,000 pounds of butter during February 1943 or any subsequent month shall thereafter each month set aside and hold for delivery to such agencies at least 30 percent of all butter produced by him regardless of the quantity produced by him.

(2) Notwithstanding the restrictions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, any person required by the provisions of said (b) (1) to set aside butter may, at his option, sell or deliver all or part of the butter, set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof, to any authorized receiver who agrees to set aside, out of the butter in his possession or control, a quantity of butter equal to the quantity of such set aside butter received by him, and such authorized receiver shall so set aside such quantity of butter. (Signature of Authorized Receiver)

The aforesaid certificate shall be signed in duplicate by the authorized receiver who shall return one copy to the producer who delivered or shipped the butter and shall retain the original for one year after the date of receipt thereof.

(3) All butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be stored under the same conditions of storage customarily observed to maintain the quality of such butter, and all such butter shall be salted unless the producer arranges with an authorized receiver to deliver unsalted butter to such receiver who will set aside an equivalent quantity of salted butter, or unless the producer or authorized receiver arranges with the agency or agencies, for whom the butter is set aside, to deliver unsalted butter to such agency or agencies.

(4) Any receiver who desires to become an authorized receiver shall file with the Director an application, upon a form approved by the Director, setting forth the information requested in said form of application. Thereupon, the Director shall consider such application and issue a letter of authority if, in the opinion of the Director, the issuance of such letter of authority will tend to effectuate the purposes of this order. Any letter of authority may be revoked at any time by the Director. No person shall represent himself to be an authorized receiver unless he holds a letter of authority duly issued by the Director pursuant to the provisions hereof. No person other than an authorized receiver shall receive or, after receipt, deal in butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(5) If no governmental unit or agency specified in the provisions in (b) (1) hereof has contracted for, or declared its intention or desire to contract for, any portion of set aside butter, within 30 days after the end of the month in which such set aside butter was required to be set aside by the manufacturer thereof, such portion of the butter thus set aside is released from the restrictions of the provisions in (b) (1) and (2) hereof. Quantities set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof may also be released by notice to that effect from the Director.

(6) The restrictions hereof shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts or payments made. This order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of butter which any person is required to offer or deliver, under existing contracts or contracts subsequently entered into with any governmental agency, to any governmental agency specified in or pursuant to the provisions in (b) (1) hereof.

(c) Records and reports. Each person producing more than 1,000 pounds of butter a month, each authorized receiver, and every other person to whom this order applies shall maintain such records for such periods of time, and shall execute and file such reports and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

The amounts deducted and withheld, pursuant to the amended Civil Service Retirement Act of May 29, 1930, 46 Stat. 468, 475, U.S.C. An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Sunnyside No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 206) of the Kaiser Company, Inc., in Subdistrict No. 1 of District No. 20, for all shipments except truck; and

PART 330—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 10

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order in the matter of the petition of Delta Coal Mining Company, a code member in District No. 10, for minimum f. o. b. mine prices for F. A. S. delivery from mines in District No. 10 to Minneapolis Street Railway Company, at Minneapolis, Minnesota, pursuant to section 3 (a), special river price instructions and exceptions, schedule of effective minimum prices for District No. 10 For All Shipments Except Truck.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on March 18, 1942, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by Delta Coal Mining Company, ("Delta") a code member in District 10, requesting an order permitting Minneapolis Street Railway Company of Minneapolis, Minnesota, to purchase coals shipped via river by producers in District No. 10 at minimum f. o. b. mine prices for free alongside delivery.

Petitions of intervention were filed by District Boards 2, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11. The Office of Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed a notice of appearance.

Pursuant to appropriate notice, a hearing was held before Examiner Charles O. Fowler. The Examiner filed his report recommending that the relief prayed for be granted, and on October 6, 1942, 7 F.R. 7960, a final order was entered granting the relief prayed for.

On October 12, 1942, interveners District Boards 2 and 7 filed a petition for reconsideration and rehearing, alleging that evidence relied on as to transportation and storage costs was inaccurate. There was no opposition to this petition. An order was issued on November 20, 1942, 7 F.R. 9744, reopening the hearing for the purpose of taking certain additional evidence.

On December 2, 1942, Delta filed a motion for reconsideration of the November 20 order reopening the hearing; it requested that, on reconsideration, the petition for reconsideration and reopening of the hearing filed by District Boards 2 and 7 should be dismissed.

Delta represents that neither its counsel nor itself was served with the petition for reconsideration filed by District Boards 2 and 7 in time to answer the petition, before it was acted on favorably by the Director; that no facts were alleged in that petition which could not have been adduced at the hearing; and that when counsel for District Boards 2 and 7 challenged the accuracy of the transportation costs submitted by petitioner, counsel for Delta suggested that District Board 7's expert be called as a witness, but counsel for the district boards refused. It argues that "this dereliction of duty on the part of counsel for Districts 2 and 7 in and of itself warrants the dismissal of his petition for reconsideration", and, further, that no fact is stated in the petition for reconsideration which even if proved true, would warrant a reversal or modification of the Director's Order of October 6, 1942.

In opposition to Delta's motion, interveners District Boards 2 and 7 state that the fault in service of the petition for reconsideration, owing to the error of an inexperienced employee, has been cured and argue that no "duty exists on the part of counsel in an adversary proceeding to correct mistakes made by witnesses for the opposition or to assume any part of the burden of proof with which such parties are charged, particularly in matters wherein the facts are equally available to all parties." They contend that the duty of counsel for the intervener district boards "was more than satisfied when the errors were called to the attention of the attorney for original petitioner." Accordingly, they urge that the hearing in this proceeding be reopened, as the Director ordered.

Certainly so far as the district boards are concerned, a proceeding instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act is hardly an "adversary proceeding." The Division is entrusted with the duty of establishing and preserving a minimum price structure in accordance with the standards of section 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act, and whenever revision is shown necessary to effectuate those standards, to make the revision. In performance of these functions, the district boards "operate as an aid to The Commission [Division] * * * subject to its pervasive surveillance and authority."[1]

Of course, the district boards are entitled and indeed obliged to protect vigorously the interests of the code members. But they must not be unmindful of the concurrent and equally important obligation, in any proceeding to which they are parties, to help build an accurate and adequate record. Certainly they would be totally unjustified in withholding available evidence, necessary to correct inaccuracies in the record. It is the function of counsel for the district boards to act in a manner consistent with these obligations.

Nevertheless, as I stated in my order of November 20, 1942, it is important that the record in this matter be accurate. Consequently, even though counsel for the parties may have been in a position at the time of the original hearing to correct alleged errors in the evidence and failed to do so, the hearing should now be reopened. The motion of Delta filed on December 2 will be denied and my order of November 20, 1942, 7 F.R. 9744, will stand.

Accordingly, it is so ordered.

Dated: January 4, 1943.

Director.

PART 1423—GUMS AND NATURAL RESINS

[MPR 297]

NATURAL RESINS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for the sale of natural resins.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 297 is hereby issued:

AUTHORITY: §§ 1423.1 to 1423.14, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E. O. No. 9250, 7 F. R. 7871.

§ 1423.1 Maximum prices for natural resins.—Prohibition against dealing in natural resins at prices above the maximum. On and after January 11, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver 25 pounds or more of any natural resin or processed natural resin, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive 25 pounds or more of any natural resin or processed natural resin at a price higher than the maximum price set forth in Appendix A (§ 1423.14); and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1423.2 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 297 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation[3] with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1423.3 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1423.14 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 297 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1423.4 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1423.5 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this maximum price regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, or agreement relating to natural resins, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or service or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or by decreasing or by discontinuing cash discounts or by making the discounts given or other terms of conditions of sale more onerous to the person to whom the sale is made than those in effect on January 11, 1943.

§ 1423.6 Federal and State taxes. There may be added to the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 297 the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise tax statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale if, but only if:

(a) Such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax, separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or,

(b) Such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be separately paid by the purchaser with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or,

(c) Such statute or ordinance was in effect during March, 1942, permitted the vendor to state such tax separately, and the vendor customarily stated and collected such tax separately from the purchase price during March, 1942; or,

(d) Such statute or ordnance became or becomes effective after March, 1942, permits the vendor to state such tax separately and such tax is in fact stated and collected by the vendor separately from the purchase price.

§ 1423.7 Records. (a) Every person making sales of natural resins and processed natural resins and every person making purchases of natural resins and processed natural resins in the course of trade or business after January 10, 1943, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale or purchase in aggregate lots of 25 pounds or more, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the seller or buyer, the price contracted for, received or paid, and the quantity of each type, weight and grade of natural resins sold or purchased.

(b) Every such seller shall keep such records in addition to or in lieu of the records required by this section as the Office of Price Administration may, from time to time, require or permit.

§ 1423.8 Licensing. (a) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 11, (§ 1305.15)[4] licensing distributors of chemicals and drugs, shall be applicable to any distributor of natural resins who is subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 297. When used in this section, the term "distributor" shall have the meaning given to it by Supplementary Order No. 11 (§ 1305.15).

(b) The regulation and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are hereby made applicable to every person selling natural resins at retail. When used in this section, the term "selling at retail" shall have the meaning given to it by § 1499.20 (o) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1423.9 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this maximum price regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 297 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, State or regional

(2) Maximum prices for sales in less than carload lots. (i) Maximum prices for natural resins in quantities of less than one original package but 25 pounds or more shall be the carload lot prices shown in Table I plus four cents per pound.

(ii) Maximum prices for natural resins in quantities of 1 to 9 (inclusive) original packages, shall be the carload lot prices shown in Table I plus ½ cent per pound.

(iii) Maximum prices for natural resins in quantities of 10 or more original packages but less than a carload shall be the carload lot prices shown in Table I plus ¼ cent per pound.

(iv) If in any delivery the weight of a grade or type of natural resin in the original package is different from that customary in the trade during March 1942, the price differentials stated in the foregoing three paragraphs are inapplicable, and instead the maximum prices listed in Table I shall be adjusted as follows:

(a) Multiply the number of pounds of this grade and type of natural resin customarily packed in an original package in March 1942, by ten. The figure thus obtained shall be hereinafter referred to as the "product."

If the number of pounds of natural resin in a single current delivery is less than the product, maximum prices are those listed in Table I plus ½ cent per pound.

If the number of pounds of natural resin in a single current delivery is the same as, or more than, the product, but less than 30,000 pounds, maximum prices are those listed in Table I plus ¼ cent per pound.

(b) Maximum prices for natural resins in quantities of less than one original package but 25 pounds or more, shall be the carload lot prices shown in Table I plus four cents per pound.

(3) Other grades than those listed above. The maximum prices for a grade of natural resin not specifically listed in Table I shall be the maximum price listed in such table for the next lower grade of the same class (i. e., Singapore Damar, Congo, etc.): Provided, however, That if no lower grade is listed the maximum price for the next higher grade shall apply. Classification of resins into grades shall be made in accordance with the usual trade practices in effect during March, 1942.

(4) Extra charges. (i) Charges for war risk insurance and ocean freight, actually incurred which are in excess of charges based upon the rates prevailing on December 5, 1941 may be added to the maximum prices established by this Appendix A: Provided, That on all imports for which the ocean bill of lading or equivalent shipping document is dated September 1, 1942, or later, these excess charges for war risk insurance may not be greater than the differences between the rates existing on December 5, 1941, and the applicable rates established by the War Shipping Administration as of the date of such document; And further provided, That such charges are actually incurred and are itemized separately on the invoice.

(ii) Charges for containers may not be added.

(iii) Charges for warehousing may not be added.

(5) Transportation charges. The maximum prices set forth in Table I apply for natural resins sold from any of the following points:

(i) Ex-dock, port of entry.

(ii) Ex-warehouse, port of entry.

(iii) F. o. b. seller's shipping point, other than (i) or (ii) above. Provided, That, in (i) or (ii) above, the charges for loading from the dock or warehouse platform onto the conveyance for shipment to the buyer may be added to the maximum prices established by this Appendix A; and provided that in (iii) above all transportation charges actually incurred in the shipment of the natural resin from the port of entry to the seller's shipping point may be added to the maximum prices set forth in Table I. All loading and transportation charges must be shown separately on the invoice.

(6) Billing extra charges and transportation charges. The seller of any natural resin for which maximum prices are provided in this paragraph (a) shall furnish each person to whom he sells natural resins an invoice with the shipment stating (i) the total price charged, (ii) an itemization thereof, showing the sums added, if any, as "extra charges" or "transportation charges", pursuant to subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph (a).

(b) Processed natural resins. (1) Maximum prices in drums containing 400–500 pounds each.

(2) Grades. Any grade of processed natural resin not specifically listed in Table II shall have the maximum price shown in Table II for the grade most nearly comparable with it. For purposes of determining what grade shown in Table II is most nearly comparable with a grade not listed there, account shall be taken of the physical properties, color, melting point, acid number, percentage of glycerine or modifier, if any, and other desirable characteristics of the resins concerned, in accordance with the customary practices of the trade in effect during March, 1942.

(3) Containers. (i) If smaller or larger containers than those specified above are used, "less than 10 drums" shall mean less than 4000 pounds, and "10 drums to carload lots" shall mean amounts from 4000 pounds to carload lots.

Transportation costs with respect to the return of empty containers to seller shall be borne by seller.

Net cost for a retailer as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender delivered to his customary receiving point in a customary quantity of this type of item by customary mode of transportation and from a customary source of supply, less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. No charge or cost for unloading or local trucking shall ever be included.

(d) No seller, except a seller at retail, shall change his customary discounts, allowances and price differentials applying to comparable speciality items in making sales of "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender unless such change in these customary discounts, allowances and price differentials results in lower selling prices.

(e) On and after January 6, 1943, Thomson and Taylor Division, the Warfield Company, shall supply a written notification to each wholesaler at the time of first delivery of "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender to such wholesaler, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each shipping unit of "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender, a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed within a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." The written notifications, for each type of purchaser, shall include the following appropriate statements:

Notification from Thomson and Taylor Division, the Warfield Company, to wholesalers

The OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers $1.53 per dozen of 20 ounce packages of "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender subject to all customary allowances and discounts and delivered to purchasers' stations. Wholesalers are authorized to establish a ceiling price by adding to the net cost of this item 20% of such net cost, provided that the ceiling price so determined shall not exceed $1.84 per dozen. Net cost is the invoice cost at the customary receiving point, less all discounts, other than for prompt payment, and excluding charges for local hauling. Retailers shall establish a ceiling price by adding to their net cost 33⅓% of such net cost. Each individual ceiling price determined by any seller shall be figured to the nearest even cent (raise one-half cent fractions to the next even cent). A copy of a notification to retailers is included in every shipping unit of this item. If the initial sale of this item to any retailer is a split case sale, wholesalers are required to provide such retailer with a copy of the retail notification so enclosed. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

Notification from Thomson and Taylor Division, the Warfield Company, to retailers

The OPA authorizes retailers to establish ceiling prices for "Pro-Ten" Meat Extender packed 12 twenty ounce packages to a shipping case, by adding to the net cost of this item 33⅓% of such net cost, provided that the ceiling price so determined shall not exceed 20¢ per twenty ounce package. Net Cost is the invoice cost at the customary receiving point, less all discounts, other than for prompt payment, and excluding charges for local hauling. Such ceiling prices shall be figured to the nearest even cent (raise one-half cent fractions to the next even cent). OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

NOTE 1: Meaning of terms. "Plant scrap" means scrap which is generated in the course of fabrication or manufacture and includes new material or parts rejected or discarded because defective, damaged in processing, or otherwise unfit for use. The terms "solids" and "solid plant scrap" mean plant scrap generated by shearing, clipping, cutting, blanking, or similar process, also defective or rejected wrought aluminum parts, defective or rejected castings, and gates, sprues, risers or similar foundry scrap. Scrap shall not be deemed "segregated" whether in the form of solids or in the form of borings, turnings or other machinings, unless it consists of one alloy only and is so identified and handled as to be accepted for reprocessing into aluminum of the original alloy specifications without the necessity for other than routine examination by the processor.

NOTE 2: Low-grade or contaminated scrap. If borings, turnings, and similar machinings or other grades of aluminum scrap contain oil, water or other forms of contamination, maximum prices may be paid only on the basis of the actual weight of aluminum or aluminum alloy contained.

NOTE 3: Quantity differentials. The requisite quantities for which premiums are provided in Columns II and III, above, may consist of various grades of aluminum scrap, but other metals may not be included for the purpose of making up such quantities. In computing the weight necessary to obtain a quantity differential the actual weight of the material at the point of shipment, as determined by the public carrier, or as certified to and accepted by the public carrier, or as certified by a public weigher, is to be used. If the weight of the material at the point of shipment is not determined by any of the methods herein specified the actual weight of the material at the buyer's receiving point shall be used.

NOTE 4: Aluminum foil. Aluminum foil and light gauge aluminum sheet which does not exceed 0.006 of an inch in thickness is not considered within this Price Schedule, but the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to such scrap.

NOTE 5: Premiums for special preparation. Upon the sale of segregated solid aluminum plant scrap of any of the wrought aluminum or S-type alloys, except 2S and 3S, to any person designated as a "producer" by the Director of Priorities, War Production Board, the following premiums may be charged, demanded, paid or offered:

	Cent per pound
If such scrap is baled or packaged, suitable for briquetting	½
If such scrap is briquetted, or in large pieces too heavy to briquette	1

Except as provided herein, the maximum prices established for aluminum scrap by this Revised Price Schedule No. 2, as amended, shall not be increased by any charge or payment for special preparation.

(b) Delivery charges. (1) If aluminum scrap is delivered to the buyer's receiving point by a public (common or contract) carrier, the maximum delivery charge which may be added to the established maximum price f. o. b. point of shipment shall be the actual transportation charge made by such carrier: Provided, That if the quantity differentials set forth in Column III are paid, and if the quantity shipped, as determined in accordance with Note 3 in § 1302.14 (a), is less than the minimum quantity, as set forth in the tariffs of the railroad, upon which the lowest carload rate from the point of shipment to the buyer's receiving point is based, the maximum delivery charge which may be added to such maximum price shall be an amount calculated at the lowest carload rate on the basis of the actual weight of material so determined.

(2) If aluminum scrap is delivered to the buyer's receiving point by vehicle owned or controlled by the seller or by private carrier not owned or controlled by the buyer, the maximum delivery charge which may be added to the established maximum price f. o. b. point of shipment shall be an amount not in excess of the following:

[1] An amount not in excess of the charge computed at the lowest railroad carload rate applicable to shipments of aluminum scrap from the railroad siding nearest the point of shipment to the railroad siding nearest the point of delivery.

(i) For distances of 300 miles or less, all bridge, tunnel and ferry tolls actually incurred may be added to the amount set forth in the table above.

(ii) The distance in miles shall be computed on the basis of the shortest public highway route available for the transportation of the shipment in question from the point of shipment to the buyer's receiving point.

(3) The seller shall furnish to the buyer on the invoice or on a separate statement the point or points of shipment, the mileage upon which the delivery charge is based, and the total delivery charge.

(4) If aluminum scrap is shipped from more than one point of shipment by any of the following means of transportation, the maximum delivery charge which may be added to the established maximum price f. o. b. point of shipment shall be an amount not in excess of the applicable one of the following limitations:

(i) Entirely by railroad: the rate from that one of the several points of shipment which has the lowest rate to the buyer's receiving point.

(ii) Entirely by public carrier truck: the established rate from that one of the several points of shipment which has the lowest rate to the buyer's receiving point.

(iii) Entirely by vehicle owned or controlled by the seller or private carrier not owned or controlled by the buyer: the rate set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (b) from that one of the several points of shipment which has the lowest rate to the buyer's receiving point.

(iv) Partly by railroad, partly by public carrier truck, partly by vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, or a private carrier not owned or controlled by the buyer or any combination of the foregoing—the lowest of the rates set forth in the preceding subdivisions of this subparagraph (4): Provided, That the rate governing any method of shipment not actually employed may be disregarded.

§ 1302.15 Appendix B: Maximum prices for secondary aluminum ingot—(a) General provisions—(1) Maximum base price. The maximum base price for secondary aluminum ingot shall be 15 cents per pound. This maximum price applies to all alloys or grades of secondary aluminum ingot except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this section.

(2) Delivery charges. The maximum base price and all other maximum prices for secondary aluminum ingot established by or pursuant to this section shall include transportation costs to any destination within the continental United States, not exceeding the lowest carload rate of rail freight, but in no event to exceed 75 cents per hundredweight. Actual transportation costs in excess of those so included may be charged to, and paid by, the buyer.

(3) Quantity differentials. The maximum base price and all other maximum prices for secondary aluminum ingot established by or pursuant to this section shall be applicable if the quantity sold or delivered is 30,000 pounds or more. The following premiums may be charged, in addition to the maximum price, for the quantities specified:

Quantity:	Premium (cents per pound)
10,000 to 30,000 pounds	¼
1,000 to 10,000 pounds	½
Less than 1,000 pounds	1

In determining whether the quantity differentials herein provided are applicable, the quantity sold or the quantity delivered to one buyer at one time, whichever is larger, shall be used in all cases, and regardless of the fact that such sale or shipment may be composed of different alloys: Provided, That if the quantity sold exceeds the amount which the buyer is authorized by the War Production Board to receive in any allocation period, the amount which the buyer is so authorized to receive may be used instead of the quantity sold.

(b) Alloys to which certain costly ingredients are added. (1) If the chemical specifications for an alloy of secondary aluminum ingot require a substantial content of chronium, magnesium, manganese, nickel, tin, titanium or vanadium, and if the scrap from which such ingot is produced does not contain these elements in sufficient quantity to meet the specifications upon remelting, so that it is necessary to introduce them by other means, the seller may apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to charge more than the maximum base price.

(2) Application for permission to charge more than the maximum base price for alloys which are subject to this paragraph (b) shall be filed within 5 days from the date on which delivery is completed, and shall show:

(i) The name and address of the buyer;

(ii) The chemical specifications for the ingot;

(iii) The analysis of the scrap from which the ingot is produced;

(iv) The increase in cost due to the necessity of adding any of the elements listed in subparagraph (1), above; and

(v) The price charged.

(3) Upon receipt of an application filed in accordance with subparagraph (2), above, the Administrator may by letter, authorize an increase in the maximum price to the extent of the actual increase in cost due to the necessity of adding any of the elements listed in subparagraph (1), above.

(4) An application filed in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall be deemed to be approved unless it is disapproved within 15 days from the date on which it is received by the Office of Price Administration, or, if additional information is requested within such 15-day period, then within 15 days from the date on which all such information is received.

(5) Any person may sell or deliver, and any person may buy or receive, secondary aluminum ingot which is subject to this paragraph (b) at a price higher than the maximum base price, and any person may offer to do any of the foregoing, if an application for permission to charge the higher price is filed in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; if, however, the Administrator disapproves the price charged, the contract price shall be revised downward to the maximum price which the Administrator shall approve, and the seller shall refund any payment in excess of the price so approved.

(6) Whenever any secondary aluminum ingot subject to this paragraph is sold at a price higher than the maximum base price, the maximum base price and the additional charge made on account of the addition of one or more of the elements listed in subparagraph (1) shall be shown separately on the invoice, and the invoice shall contain the following statement:

Application has been made to the Office of Price Administration for permission to make the extra charge shown on this invoice to cover the cost of adding _____. If the increase in price authorized by the Office of Price Administration is less than the additional amount charged on this invoice, the price will be revised downward accordingly and any amount paid in excess of the authorized charge will be refunded.

(7) If an application is not filed in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, or if the requirements of subparagraph (6) are not substantially complied with, the maximum base price shall apply to secondary aluminum ingot subject to this paragraph regardless of the addition of any of the elements listed in subparagraph (1).

(8) The provisions of this paragraph (b) are not applicable to any secondary aluminum ingot subject to paragraphs (c), (d) or (e) of this section.

(c) Maximum prices for low-grade ingot.

	Maximum price (cents per pound)
(1) Low-grade piston alloy (No. 122 type)	14½
(2) No. 12 foundry alloy (No. 2 grade)	14½
(3) Chemical Warfare Service ingot (92½% plus)	14½
(4) Steel deoxidizing aluminum, notch-bar, granulated or shot, including any aluminum ingot (exclusive of hardeners) containing more than 2.0% iron:[1]
Grade 1 (95%-97½% aluminum)	14¾
Grade 2 (92%-95% aluminum)	14½
Grade 3 (90%-92% aluminum)	14
Grade 4 (85%-90% aluminum)	13½
Grade 5 (less than 85% aluminum)	12½

[1] Plus 2 cents extra for special shapes.

(d) Maximum prices for hardeners. (1) A hardener is an intermediate alloy which is not suitable for direct use without combination with other materials and which is designed to facilitate the introduction of one or more of the constituent metals into other alloys.

(2) The maximum price for any hardener subject to this Revised Price Schedule No. 2, as amended, shall be a price approved by the Administrator. Pending such approval by the Administrator, any person may sell or deliver, and any person may buy or receive, any such ingot at the price submitted for approval; and any person may offer to do any of the foregoing. If, however, the Administrator disapproves the price submitted, the contract price shall be revised downward to the maximum price which the Administrator shall approve, and if any payment has been made at a price higher than that so approved the seller shall refund the excess: Provided, however, That the price submitted by the seller for approval shall be deemed to be approved unless the Administrator disapproves such price and establishes an approved maximum price within 15 days from the date on which the report required in paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section is received by the Office of Price Administration, or, if further information is requested from the seller within such 15-day period, then within 15 days from the date on which all such information is received by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) On and after January 11, 1943 the seller of any hardener subject to this Revised Price Schedule No. 2, as amended, shall:

(i) report every such sale to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within five days from the date thereof, stating:

(a) The name and address of the buyer;

(b) The quantity sold;

(c) The proposed price;

(d) The alloy content of the hardener sold, including specific mention of any impurity limitations;

(e) The cost breakdown, including the type of metals used and the cost thereof, the smelting cost, and the allowance for overhead; and

(ii) Provide such other information concerning the manufacture and sale of the hardener in question as may be required by the Administrator in order to determine the proper maximum price.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (d) shall not apply to sales of any hardener at a price previously reported to and approved by the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. Whenever the price proposed by any person for a particular hardener has been so reported, the price approved by the Administrator shall be the maximum price at which such person may thereafter sell such ingot. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to prevent the Administrator from adjusting any price so approved when in his judgment adjustment is warranted.

(iii) If the maximum price for such ingot cannot be determined under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (e), a price approved by the Administrator. On and after January 11, 1943, the seller of any such ingot shall report every such sale to the Office of Price Administration and obtain approval of a maximum price as prescribed in paragraph (d) of this section, relating to hardeners. The provisions of paragraph (d) shall apply in all respects to sales of such ingot.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section:

(i) In determining the highest price charged or quoted by him during March 1942, the seller shall, if such price was not charged or quoted f. o. b. point of shipment, adjust it so that it shall reflect the actual price charged by him f. o. b. point of shipment; and if such price was charged or quoted for quantities of less than 30,000 pounds the seller shall adjust it for quantities of 30,000 pounds or more, using the quantity differentials provided in subdivision (a) (3) of this section. The price so adjusted shall be his maximum price, subject to the quantity differentials referred to above, and shall include transportation costs to the extent specified in subparagraph (a) (2) of this section.

(ii) Secondary aluminum ingot shall be deemed to have been "delivered" during March 1942, if during such month it was received by the purchaser or by any carrier, including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

The title, preamble and §§ 1347.101 to 1347.112, inclusive, of Revised Price Schedule No. 47—Old Rags—are amended, renumbered and reissued as Maximum Price Regulation No. 47—Waste Rags, Waste Ropes and Waste Strings.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings by a maximum price regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation, which apply to the sale of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings, are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

So far as practicable the Price Administrator has given due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability, and has consulted with representatives of the trade and industry.

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1347.101 to 1347.114, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1347.101 Prohibitions. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A (§ 1347.114) of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47.

(b) No person shall buy or receive any waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings in the course of trade or business at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A (§ 1347.114) of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1347.102 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1347.103 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1347.104 Imports. The maximum prices established herein shall apply to imports of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings from a foreign country, f. o. b. the port or city of entry in the United States.

The maximum prices at which a person may make a domestic sale of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings which is to be exported shall not exceed the maximum prices herein provided for domestic sales. However, if a person specially packages waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings in order that they may be exported, and if he sells them to a purchaser who states in writing that the waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings which have been specially packed will be sold in export, the seller may add to the maximum price an amount not in excess of the highest premium actually charged for the same or similar packing by such person during the period of January 1 through September 30, 1941. If a person made no such charge for such packing in said period, the amount of his charge for such packing shall not exceed the amount charged in said period by his nearest and most closely competitive seller in said period.

§ 1347.107 Licensing. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 5[3]—Licensing, are applicable to every dealer or broker subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47, selling, offering to sell, delivering or transferring at a price waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings to a consumer.

§ 1347.108 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings, alone or in conjunction with or relating to any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege or tying-agreement, or other trade understanding or otherwise.

§ 1347.109 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Every person making purchases or sales aggregating ten tons or more of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings in October 1942, or any one month thereafter shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, complete and accurate records of each purchase or sale of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings made during such month and each month thereafter, showing the following:

No differentials or service charges other than those specifically provided for in this Section 1347.114 shall be added.

(d) Transportation allowances. The maximum prices which this Regulation establishes for waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings are to be applied f. o. b. point of shipment, which means that they are established at the point where the goods are first loaded on freight cars, trucks or barges for transportation to the buyer. This provision shall not apply, however, to imports of wastepaper from foreign countries into the U. S. In such cases, the maximum prices established shall be applied f. o. b. port or city of entry in the U. S.

(1) Delivery charges. The fact that the maximum prices established by this Regulation are established f. o. b. point of shipment does not mean that goods have to be sold on that basis. Sales can be made on a delivered basis, or any other basis, provided that if the price in such a sale is computed to an f. o. b. point of shipment basis, as that point has been described above, it does not exceed the appropriate maximum price established by this Regulation.

When the seller incurs the expense of shipping the goods to the buyer, he may add to the maximum f. o. b. point of shipment price such of the following amounts as are applicable, as set out in subparagraphs (1) and (2), as follows:

(i) When transportation to the buyer is by public (common or contract) carrier, the lowest established transportation rate for such shipment;

(ii) When transportation to the buyer is by a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, other than a common or contract carrier:

(a) An amount not in excess of $1.00 per short ton, plus actual toll charges, when the point of shipment and the buyer's premises are located in the same city, town or municipality, or at a distance of ten miles or less from each other by the shortest available public highway route.

(b) An amount per short ton not in excess of the lowest published rail rate for full carload shipments of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings, when the point of shipment and the buyer's premises are not located in the same city, town or municipality and are at a distance of more than ten miles from each other by the shortest available public highway route.

(2) Loading charge. If there is no rail siding or barge dock at the point of shipment, and the waste rags, waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings are transported to and loaded on a freight car or barge at a public track or public barge dock for transportation to the buyer at the expense of the seller, the seller may add to the shipping point price an amount not in excess of $1.00 per short ton for such transportation and loading.

No allowance may be added under any circumstances, if either the point of shipment or the public track or barge dock at which the waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings are loaded is within the limits of the railway switching district of Chicago, Illinois.

(e) Invoice requirements. All sales of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings to a consumer shall be invoiced. The invoice shall state as separate items the following data:

(1) The grade name. This shall be: The applicable grade name set forth in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this § 1347.114.

(2) The origin of the shipment. This shall include the name of the city or town where the point of shipment is located, except that where the point of shipment and the buyer's premises are located in the same city, town or municipality, or at a distance of ten miles or less from each other by the shortest available public highway route, the shortest address and city where such point of shipment is located shall be shown.

(3) The destination of the shipment. This shall include the name, street address and city of the consumer.

(4) Any amount charged by the seller for transportation of the waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings, and if delivery is made in a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, the mileage for which such delivery charge is made.

(f) Brokerage. (1) In the event that a consumer shall purchase waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings through a broker, as defined in § 1347.111 (a) (7) hereof, such consumer may pay such broker not more than the maximum price herein and an allowance to the broker not to exceed the brokerage allowances established in subparagraph (3) below. In no event shall a person receive brokerage or the proceeds of brokerage on waste rags, waste rope, or waste string packed by him. In no event shall a person receive brokerage on the pack of another person pursuant to any contract, agreement or understanding of any sort whatsoever between the two, whereby each is to sell, and charge brokerage on, the pack of the other.

(2) The maximum prices established herein can in no case be augmented by more than one brokerage allowance for each ton. In addition to the price paid by the consumer, a broker may receive a broker's allowance only from a consumer, provided the transaction in question fulfills all of the following requirements:

(i) The broker records the name or names of his vendor or vendors in each transaction, the quantity and grade of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings purchased, the price f. o. b. point of shipment paid by such broker, the name of his consuming purchaser, the method of shipment to such consuming purchaser, the price paid by such consuming purchaser, and the broker's allowance.

(ii) The sale is made to the consumer by the broker.

(iii) The waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings sold by the broker to the consumer have been commercially sorted and baled by a person other than the broker: Provided, That in the event a transaction complying with all other requirements of Revised Price Schedule No. 47 involves waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings sorted and baled both by the broker and by another person, the broker may charge an allowance only with respect to the tonnage of waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings, sorted and baled by such other person.

(iv) The broker guarantees the merchantable quality of the waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings.

(v) The broker's allowance in such transaction is shown as a separate item in the billing or invoice. This billing or invoice shall contain a statement that the waste rags, waste ropes or waste strings covered have not been packed by the broker and that the charges are not in excess of those established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 47.

(vi) The broker's allowance is not split or divided with any other person.

(vii) All pertinent provisions in Maximum Price Regulation No. 47 are strictly complied with.

(3) Price for grade of waste rags, waste ropes and waste strings.

§ 1351.955a Maximum prices for new container sizes and new formulae of canned boned chicken and canned boned turkey for sales to the United States or any agency thereof. (a) The maximum price per dozen or other unit of canned boned chicken and canned boned turkey for sales to the United States or any agency thereof in any new container size of the same or of a different formula of product from that sold to this class of purchasers during March 1942 shall be calculated as follows. The producer shall:

(1) Select the base container size of the formula to be priced. The producer shall first select the nearest container size of the same formula, or, if he did not sell the same formula, then of a different formula of canned boned chicken or canned boned turkey sold by him to the United States or any agency thereof during March 1942. He shall then calculate new maximum prices for that nearest container size of the same or different formula (as the case may be) of canned boned chicken or canned boned turkey under the provisions of § 1351.955 (even though he may no longer sell or intend to sell that size).

For purposes of this section only, canned boned chicken may be considered a commodity comparable to canned boned turkey.

As used in this paragraph "formula" means that proportion of chicken or turkey meat, skin, broth and salt specified by the agency of the United States making the purchase.

(2) Deduct the container cost. Taking the maximum price per dozen or other unit which he has already calculated for the selected base container size, the producer shall then subtract container costs per dozen or other unit of that container.

(3) Adjust for the difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted by dividing it by the number of ounces in that sized container and multiplying the result by the number of ounces in the new sized container being priced.

(4) Add the new container cost. Finally, the packer shall add to this adjusted figure container costs for the size and formula per dozen or other unit of the sized container being priced.

As used in this paragraph "container costs" means the invoice price delivered at the producer's factory of the container, label, cap (if any), shipping case, dividers (if any), metal strapping (if any) and all other materials specified by the purchaser as required packing material. "Container costs" shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1351.955.

(b) If a producer did not sell canned boned chicken or canned boned turkey during March 1942 to the United States or any agency thereof, he shall take as his maximum price for sales to purchasers of that class the maximum price of his most closely competitive producer of the same class for sales of canned boned chicken or canned boned turkey to the United States or any agency thereof as determined under this Regulation.

§ 1351.958a Exempt sales. This regulation shall not apply to the following:

(a) Retail sales or deliveries of commodities made or produced by the seller at his home solely for his own account, without the assistance of hired employees, if the total of such sales or deliveries does not exceed $75.00 in any one calendar month.

(b) Sales or deliveries of canned chili con carne to the United States or any agency thereof.

§ 1351.965 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 262 the term:

(1) "Producer" means a person, firm or corporation operating an establishment producing, manufacturing or processing a commodity listed in Appendix A or B hereof.

(15) "Fountain fruits" means processed fruits in syrup, either whole, cut or crushed and packed in container sizes customarily bought by drug stores, soda fountains, ice cream manufacturers, taverns, etc. including, but not limited to:

No ration for preferred mileage may be issued under the provisions of this paragraph in the gasoline shortage area until the Office of Price Administration finds that the available gasoline supply in such area justifies extension of the provisions of this paragraph to such area.

(1) Eligible commodities shall for the purpose of this paragraph be:

(i) Necessary equipment or necessary materials for the operation of establishments or facilities of the categories listed in paragraph (o) of this section only, including: naval, military or hospital establishments or facilties, establishments or facilities of public utilities, common carriers or other essential carriers, or industrial, extractive or agricultural establishments essential to the war effort; or

(2) Application for a ration to be issued pursuant to this paragraph shall be made on Form OPA R-535 or Form OPA R-551, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by a statement, certified by the applicant, showing:

(i) The types of commoditien which are sold by the applicant and the approximate percentage of time employed in selling each;

(ii) The kinds of establishments or facilities which use the equipment or materials sold, and the types of persons to whom the foods, building materials, clothing, fuels or medical supplies are sold by the applicant; and

(iii) The types of commodities sold by the applicant during the calendar year 1942, the number of months the applicant was engaged in selling each type, and the average monthly mileage driven in selling eligible commodities in 1942 or the part of that year during which he was engaged in selling such commodities: Provided, That whenever the applicant has taken the place or assumed the duties of a person principally engaged in selling eligible commodities for all or part of the three-month period prior to the date of application, or for a period prior thereto, the applicant shall show as his average monthly mileage the average monthly mileage driven in the selling of eligible commodities by himself and his predecessor, but shall not include any mileage driven by either prior to 1942.

(3) If a Board finds the facts stated on the application to be true, it shall determine the monthly average of the mileage driven by the applicant (or the person whose duties he has assumed for the purpose of selling eligible commodities of the types specified in this paragraph, during the period from January 8 to December 31, 1942. If such average exceeds 723 miles per month, the Board, upon surrender of the current suplemental or fleet ration (if any) held by the applicant, may, in addition to any other preferred mileage which may be allowed, issue a ration providing allowed occupational mileage of sixty-five (65) percent of such monthly average but in no event more than an average of 717 miles per month.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

PART 204—DANGER ZONE REGULATIONS

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., GUNNERY AND BOMBING TARGET AREA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1), the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the use and navigation of the waters of the Atlantic Ocean, north of St. Marys Entrance, comprising a gunnery and bombing target area of the United States Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida.

§ 204.81a Waters of the Atlantic Ocean: U. S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, gunnery and bombing target area, north of St. Marys Entrance — (a) The danger zone. The gunnery and bombing target area is located about 4.9 nautical miles offshore from Cumberland Island, Georgia, and 5.1 nautical miles north of the entrance to Fernandina Harbor, Florida, in a circle having a radius of one nautical mile, with its center at north latitude 30°48' and west longitude 81°21'30". The military operations which will be carried on in this area consist of firing at a target raft cluster from weapons mounted in airplanes flying at varying altitudes, and the dropping of practice aerial bombs from airplanes on points within the area. The target cluster will be located at the center of the danger area and there will be no additional marking of the area.

(b) The regulations. (1) No vessel or other craft shall enter or remain within the area designated during its use for target practice except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(2) Bombing and target practice will take place in the area at frequent and irregular intervals throughout the year, regardless of season, and advance notice will be given of the date on which the first of such activities will begin. At intervals of not more than three months thereafter, notice will be given that practice is continuing. Such notices will appear in the local newspapers and in "Notice to Mariners".

(3) Prior to conduct of each practice, the danger area will be patrolled by naval aircraft which will warn navigation to leave the area, by "zooming" a safe distance to the side. Upon receiving this signal any watercraft within the danger zone shall immediately leave it and no craft shall enter the area until practice has ceased.

(4) These regulations shall not deny access to or egress from harbors contiguous to this danger area by regular cargo-carrying vessels, nor shall they deny traverse of portions of the danger area by regular cargo-carrying vessels proceeding on established steamer lanes. In case of the presence of any such vessel in the danger area, the officer in charge of gunnery and bombing operations shall cause the cessation or postponement of fire until the vessel has cleared the area. The vessel shall proceed on its normal course and not delay its progress.

(5) These regulations will be enforced by the Commandant, United States Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, and such other agencies as he may designate. (Sec. 7, 40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1) [Regs. December 24, 1942 (CE 800.2121 (Atlantic Ocean, Fla.)—SPEON)]

OCTOBER 1, 1942.

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the Act of July 14, 1941, (Public Law 173, 77th Congress) and the Executive Order of August 26, 1941, and transferred to the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration by the Executive Order of February 7, 1942, as amended by the Executive Order of September 16, 1942, these rules and regulations pertaining to ship warrants are hereby promulgated. (Sec. 341.1 to 341.73, incl.)

SUBPART A—DEFINITIONS

(a) "Vessel" shall mean watercraft or other artificial contrivance, of whatsoever description, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water: Provided, however, That a new hull while under construction shall not be deemed to be a vessel;

(b) "Citizen of the United States" shall include natural persons who are citizens of the United States, and corporations, partnerships, and associations existing, authorized, or organized under the laws of the United States or any State, District, Territory, or possession thereof;

(c) "Administration" shall mean the War Shipping Administration;

(f) "Certificate of Warrant" shall mean the original copy of a warrant issued by the Administration to a Class A vessel (defined in § 341.32);

(g) "Warrant holding vessel" shall mean any vessel deemed under § 341.31 to hold a warrant issued pursuant to the Act;

(h) "Non-warrant holding vessel" shall mean any Class A vessel (defined in § 341.32) which does not hold a certificate of warrant issued by the Administration;

(i) "Charter hire or equivalent" shall mean compensation under any (1) charter party, or (2) bill of lading or other contract of affreightment;

(j) "Repair" shall include any reconstruction, alteration, reconditioning, outfitting, or equipping of vessels; and

SUBPART B—PRIORITIES

§ 341.11 Priority of warrant holding vessels. Every facility within the United States, its territories or possessions, including the Philippine Islands and the Canal Zone, shall (notwithstanding any contract, agreement, obligations, or understanding to the contrary) grant priority in its use to warrant holding vessels (including vessels entitled to priority under § 341.33 hereof) over merchant vessels not holding warrants issued pursuant to the Act.

§ 341.12 Priority for warrant holding vessels regardless of date of application for service. A warrant holding vessel shall be entitled to priority over a non-warrant holding vessel even though the application for service of the non-warrant holding vessel preceded that of the warrant holding vessel.

§ 341.13 Priority as between warrant holding vessels. In the absence of special orders issued by the Administration under § 341.14, priority among warrant holding vessels shall be governed by custom and the usual order of business.

§ 341.14 Order of priority as between vessels. Whenever the public interest shall be served thereby, the Administration may issue special orders specifying the ports, places, and facilities at which warrant holding vessels (generally or particularly) shall be accorded priority over other vessels, and the order in which such warrant holding vessels shall have priority among themselves at such ports, places and facilities.

§ 341.15 Suspension of servicing non-warrant holding vessels. In case a facility shall have begun servicing a non-warrant holding vessel and a warrant holding vessel presents itself or applies for service at such facility, the servicing of the warrant holding vessel shall not be postponed or delayed, because of the servicing of the non-warrant holding vessel, and the servicing of the non-warrant holding vessel shall be suspended or deferred to the extent necessary: Provided, That if the servicing of the non-warrant holding vessel has proceeded to such a point that it would be unsafe to remove it, or if the time required to remove it and to prepare the facility for servicing the warrant holding vessel would exceed the time required to complete the servicing, such servicing may be continued and completed.

SUBPART C—CLASSES OF VESSELS

§ 341.31 Vessels entitled to priorities. A vessel shall be deemed to hold a warrant issued pursuant to the Act, and to be entitled to all the priority privileges of a warrant holding vessel, if (a) it is a Class A vessel, as defined in § 341.32 and holds a certificate of warrant issued by the Administration, or (b) it is a Class B vessel, as defined in § 341.33. Class B vessels shall, for purposes of these regulations, be deemed the equivalent of Class A warrant holding vessels.

§ 341.32 Vessels entitled to priority only if holding certificates of warrant. Class A vessels shall be entitled to priority only if they hold certificates of warrant issued by the Administration. Unless included in § 341.33 as a Class B vessel, a vessel in any of the following categories shall be a Class A vessel:

(a) Vessels registered under the laws of the United States of 50 gross tons and over;

(b) Foreign-flag vessels of 50 gross tons and over;

(c) Vessels enrolled under the laws of the United States which are engaged in commerce between continental United States and territories or possessions (including Alaska) of the United States;

(d) Enrolled self-propelled tankers of 1,000 gross tons and over;

(e) Other vessels not within Class B and not otherwise provided for by these regulations.

§ 341.33 Vessels entitled to priority without holding certificates of warrant. Class B vessels, which shall be entitled to priority without holding certificates of warrant issued by the Administration, shall consist of the following:

(a) Vessels registered under the laws of the United States of less than 50 gross tons;

(b) Vessels owned by the United States, the War Shipping Administration, or any other agency or department of the United States Government, including Coast Guard Reserve vessels.

SUBPART D—NON-WARRANT HOLDING VESSELS

§ 341.41 Use of facilities by a non-warrant holding vessel. A non-warrant holding vessel shall not be entitled to use a facility without presenting a special priority authorization from the Administration.

§ 341.42 Special priority authorization. A special priority authorization may be obtained by a non-warrant holding vessel upon application to the Administration. In passing upon such applications, the Administration may consider whether, in view of the availability of fuel, repair parts and materials, etc., and of the state of business at the port, the use of the facility by the applicant would impair the ability of the facility to serve and accord priority to warrant holding vessels or would otherwise be contrary to the national interest. The Administration may consult with such other agencies of government as may be interested in the matter.

Agricultural Marketing Administration.

GREATER BOSTON, MASS., MARKETING AREA

HANDLING OF MILK; NOTICE OF REPORT, ETC.

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed marketing agreement, as amended, and an amendment to Order No. 4, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a), General Regulations, as Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and to an amendment to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the hearing clerk, Room 1329, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the fifth day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

This report is a supplement to a report filed in connection with the proceedings initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration and published December 31, 1942, in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The above-mentioned report which proposed an amended order containing several changes from the present terms of Order No. 4, as amended, based on evidence received at a public hearing held September 24, 25, 28, and 29, also indicated that action on several points had been deferred until a complete analysis of the evidence concerning such points had been made. This report proposes a change concerning one of the points deferred in the previous report. It is now concluded that the Class I price should be increased 23 cents per hundredweight. Recommendations concerning the other two points remain deferred.

The following proposed amendment prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, as Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, is recommended as the detailed means by which this conclusion may be carried out. The proposed amended marketing agreement is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the proposed amendment to the order.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the hearing held at Burlington, Vermont, September 24 and 25, and at Boston, Massachusetts, September 28 and 29, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of said act, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e, are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this amendment to said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of its terms and conditions, tends to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Provisions

In the table in § 904.4 (a) (1) delete the second price bracket which reads as follows:

40 or over	$3.86

and substitute therefor the following:

40 or over, but under 45	$3.87
45 or over	4.10

(d) All occupations involved in the plate loading of cartridges and in the operation of automatic loading machines.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-435]

HOPE NATURAL GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 6, 1943.

On December 16, 1942, the Hope Natural Gas Company applied to the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

The Hope Company seeks authorization to construct and operate a 10-mile natural gas pipe line extending from its Bridgeport Compressor Station to a point on its existing 16-inch pipe line in Harrison County, West Virginia. The application states that the purpose of the proposed pipe line is to increase the total gas available to the Hope system from the Bridgeport storage area by increasing the present deliverability of its pipe line system.

It is asserted in the application that the proposed pipe line is to meet the demands of Hope's customers in the States of West Virginia, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, and that neither new or additional service nor service to any new markets is contemplated. The estimated cost of the proposed pipe line is $180,500.

The application states that the increased demands for gas on the Hope system are related to the war effort and that Hope has received a high preference rating for the proposed project from the War Production Board.

Any protests to the granting of this application should be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., on or before January 16, 1943.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 4883]

BOOTH FISHERIES CORPORATION

COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the party respondent named in the caption hereof, and hereinafter more particularly designated and described, since June 19, 1936, has violated and is now violating the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2 of the Clayton Act (U.S.C. Title 15, Sec. 13), as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, approved June 19, 1936, hereby issues its complaint against the said respondent, stating its charges as follows:

PARAGRAPH ONE: Respondent Booth Fisheries Corporation is a corporation organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal office and place of business located at 309 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois.

PAR. TWO: Respondent is engaged in the sale and distribution of a variety of fish products including fresh, frozen, salt, smoked, ocean, lake and river fish, oysters and sea food. Respondent maintains packing plants in various sections of the United States where the different kinds of fish are available including salt water fish plants located at Boston, Massachusetts and Portland, Oregon. Respondent maintains more than fifteen distributing or sales branches throughout the United States and Canada. Respondent sells its fish products through its various distributing branches to wholesalers, jobbers, chain stores and independent retailers. That, while respondent sells many varieties of fish and sea food, the major volume of respondent's business is the sale of frozen fish products and the market prices of frozen fish products are relatively stable in comparison with fresh fish market prices. Said fish products are sold and distributed by respondent for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States, and in the same states and places as and in competition with various other sellers of fish products.

PAR. THREE: In the course and conduct of its said business, respondent sells and distributes its fish products, in commerce, to purchasers thereof located in the various states of the United States, and causes said fish products to be shipped and transported across state lines from its various packing plants to the purchasers thereof who are located in the various states of the United States other than the states of origin of shipments. There is, and has been, at all times mentioned herein, a constant current of trade and commerce in said products, between respondent's plants of origin of said products and its customers located in the various other states of the United States.

PAR. FOUR: In the course and conduct of its business as hereinabove described, since June 19, 1936, respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers of its fish products of like grade and quality by selling such products to some of its customers at lower prices than it sells to others of its customers, many of whom are competitively engaged, one with another, in the resale of such products within the United States.

Specifically, among such discriminations, the respondent has sold, through its Sioux Falls, Iowa branch, its frozen fish products to the Dakota Distributing Company which operates twenty-eight retail outlets known as K&K Stores to Tolliver & Warfield Company, which operates 105 retail outlets known as Council Bluff Stores and to other of its special volume customers at a price per pound substantially lower than it has granted and allowed to other purchasers of such products, of like grade and quality, some of such other purchasers being engaged competitively with said favored customers in the resale of such products.

Illustrations of the foregoing discriminations in price are as follows:

(1) That respondent during the months of July and August, 1938, sold to one Frederick Donaldson Corporation, an independent retailer, located at 300 East Third Street, Yankton, South Dakota, frozen bulk haddock at 18¢ per pound, frozen halibut at 18¢ per pound, and frozen black cod at 15¢ per pound, and during the same period sold such frozen fish of like grade and quality to the Dakota Distributing Company operating a K&K store in Yankton, South Dakota, and in the same trading area at lower prices, which lower prices permitted the latter store to advertise and sell said frozen fish purchased of respondent at less than the cost of said frozen fish of like grade and quality purchased of respondent by said Frederick Donaldson corporation;

(2) The respondent, during the month of December, 1937 sold to one Peder Larsen, an independent retailer of Centerville, South Dakota, frozen black cod at 15¢ per pound and during the same period sold frozen black cod of like grade and quality to Tolliver & Warfield Company operating a Council Bluff store in Centerville, South Dakota, and in the same trading area at a lower price which lower price permitted the latter store to resell said frozen fish purchased of respondent at 14¢ per pound, or at less than the cost price of frozen black cod of like grade and quality purchased of respondent by said Peder Larsen;

(3) That respondent, during the month of June, 1938, sold to the Piggly Wiggly Store at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, one ten-pound box of frozen perch at 12¢ per pound, being one of two items sold to said Piggly Wiggly Store by respondent during the entire month, and on August 1, 1938, respondent sold to Jessie S. Lewis, an independent grocer whose store is located in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, directly across the street from said Piggly Wiggly Store, one ten pound box of frozen perch of like grade and quality at 16¢ per pound;

(4) That respondent, during the years 1938 and 1939 sold to Retail Grocery Company, an independent retailer located at 201 North Main Street, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, frozen bulk haddock at 18¢ per pound and during the same period sold such frozen bulk haddock of like grade and quality to Economy Center Markets, Inc., a special volume retailer operating a retail store in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in the same trading area, at 12¼¢ per pound, which lower price permitted the latter store to advertise and sell said frozen bulk haddock purchased of respondent at less than the cost of said frozen fish of like grade and quality purchased of respondent by said Retail Grocery Company;

Respondent has no consistent price structure or policy and discriminations of a similar character to those above described have frequently occurred since June 19, 1936, in connection with respondent's sales to many other of respondent's customers.

PAR. FIVE: The effect of the aforesaid discriminations in price among respondent's customers may be, has been, and is substantially to lessen competition and tend to create a monopoly in said line of commerce and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between respondent and its competitors and among the customers of respondent.

PAR. SIX: The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent, as set forth herein, constitute violations of the provisions of Section 2 (a) of the Clayton Act as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act approved June 19, 1936 (U.S.C. Title 15, Sec. 13).

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 31st day of December, A. D. 1942, issues its complaint against said respondent.

Notice is hereby given you, Booth Fisheries Corporation, a corporation, respondent herein, that the 5th day of February, A. D. 1943, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule IX) provide as follows:

> In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.
> Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.
> If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true.
> Contemporaneously with the filing of such answer the respondent may give notice in writing that he desires to be heard on the question as to whether the admitted facts constitute the violation of law charged in the complaint. Pursuant to such notice, the respondent may file a brief, directed solely to that question, in accordance with Rule XXIII.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of December, A. D. 1942.

By the Commission.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

CLIFFSIDE DYEING CORP.

Cliffside Dyeing Corporation, Paterson, New Jersey, is engaged in the business of dyeing fabrics. During the months of April through September, 1942, the Company accepted delivery of approximately 3,931 pounds of anthraquinone dyes in excess of the amounts which it was permitted to receive under the terms of Conservation Order M-103. The Company was fully aware of the restrictions contained in Conservation Order M-103 and its violations thereof were wilful.

On or about August 24, 1942, the Company accepted delivery of a textile machine in violation of Limitation Order L-83, which places certain restrictions on the delivery and acceptance of industrial machinery. The Company had obtained delivery of this machine by certifying that the machine was for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, and that a rating of A-10 under Preference Rating Order P-100 was applicable to the purchase order. This certification was false and made in violation of Preference Rating Order P-100 inasmuch as the machine constituted capital equipment.

These violations of Conservation Order M-103, Limitation Order L-83 and Preference Rating Order P-100 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting anthraquinone dyes and critical industrial machinery to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.208 Suspension Order No. S-208. (a) Cliffside Dyeing Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not order or accept delivery of anthraquinone dyes, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) Deliveries of material to Cliffside Dyeing Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be applied or assigned to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, and any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) No allocation shall be made to Cliffside Dyeing Corporation, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Cliffside Dyeing Corporation from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on January 7, 1943, and shall expire on April 7, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

(i) The producer or distributor does not install such part in the consumer's vehicle; and

(ii) The consumer signs and delivers to the producer or distributor concurrently with each purchase order (or on the written confirmation thereof if such order is placed by telephone or telegram) a certificate in the following form:

CONSUMER'S CERTIFICATE

I hereby certify that: (a) The replacement parts specified on this order are essential for repair of vehicle(s) I now own or operate; (b) these parts will be used only for replacement of parts that, to the best of my knowledge, cannot be reconditioned by use of available facilities; and (c) I will, within thirty days after receiving the new part(s), dispose of through scrap channels a used part(s) (excepting in the case of cab assemblies and parts consumed in use, lost or stolen) of similar kind and size for each new replacement part delivered to me.

(4) No distributor may keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or condemned replacement parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(5) Replacement parts consigned to a distributor are not to be considered as part of the distributor's inventory.

(k) Emergency orders for replacement parts. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (j) above, a distributor may order and accept delivery of any replacement part which he does not have in stock when required for repair of a designated vehicle which cannot be operated without such part. In such emergency, to secure a replacement part under this paragraph (k), a distributor must file with his order to the producer for said part a certificate in the following form:

PART 3067—TEXTILE SHIPPING BAGS

[Conservation Order M-221 as Amended Dec 31, 1942 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of textile bags for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3067.1 Conservation Order M-221—(a) Definitions.

(1) "Textile bag" means any shipping container made of cotton, burlap, or any jute fabric. The term includes wool pouches, but does not include other bale covers or textile wrappings.

(2) "New textile bag" means any textile bag which has not been used and "used textile bag" means any textile bag which bag, or the fabric thereof, has been used one or more times for packing any product.

(3) "Dealer" means any person who is engaged in the business of buying and selling empty textile bags, whether or not he is also a user or a commercial emptier.

(4) "User" means any person who uses textile bags for packing any product.

(5) "Commercial emptier" means, as of any time, any person who has acquired more than 400 textile bags during any of the six calendar months prior to such time, by removing the contents of filled bags.

(b) Restrictions pertaining to new textile bags made of burlap. (1) No person manufacturing textile bags made of burlap, and no dealer shall, during any calendar year, sell or deliver to any person more than 50 percent of the number of new textile bags made of burlap which he delivered to such person during the calendar year 1941; provided, however, that new textile bags made of burlap may be sold and delivered to any person pursuant to express authorization by the Director General for Operations, the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director of Priorities, under any appeal granted prior to November 2, 1942, under Conservation Order M-47.

(2) No new textile bag which is made of burlap, and which is acquired by any user after November 2, 1942, shall be used for any purpose except for packing the following products:

Barley, beans and peas, chemicals (other than fertilizer), dairy products, mohair, potatoes, rice, salt (rock), seeds, feeds and meals for animal consumption, fruits (dried), nuts, sponges, starch, sugar (raw), wheat, wool and wool products.

(c) Restrictions pertaining to new and used textile bags. (1) No person shall manufacture, sell, or deliver any textile bag which he knows or has reason to believe will be delivered or used in violation of any provision of this order.

(2) No person shall sample the contents of any new or used textile bag except by opening the seam or the closure, or by inserting a probe or trier without damage to the fabric. No commercial emptier shall remove the contents of any textile bag except by opening the seam or closure, unless the contents have become caked or solidified to the extent that salvage of the bag is not practicable.

(3) No person shall use any new or used textile bag for packing mohair unless the word "Mohair" appears in legible type on both sides of the bag.

(4) No person shall purchase or accept delivery of any new or used textile bag to be used for defense against air raids or any other act of the enemy.

(d) Restrictions pertaining to used textile bags. (1) No dealer or commercial emptier shall deliver to a user any used textile bag of sound material unless such bag shall have been repaired and all holes, including trier or probe holes, properly mended or patched; provided that nothing in this paragraph (d) (1) shall prevent the return of an unrepaired leased bag to the owner, or the delivery of any bag to a person for the purpose of repair.

(2) Within 60 days from the date textile bags are acquired by a commercial emptier by emptying the contents of filled bags, an equal number of textile bags shall be withdrawn from his inventory of empty bags, and shall be used by the emptier or sold or transferred to a dealer or to another user; provided that, if such commercial emptier is also a dealer, he may hold such bags as a dealer.

(3) No dealer or commercial emptier shall sell or deliver any textile bag which has been used for packing raw sugar, and which is capable of carrying raw sugar, to any user except for packing raw sugar.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph (d) (4):

"Wool bag" means any textile bag which is made of burlap, and which is between 6 and 7½ feet in length.

"#1 wool bag" means any wool bag which is capable of being repacked to its intended capacity, with grease wools.

"#2 wool bag" means any wool bag which is capable of carrying grease wools, but which, because of its condition, is not capable of being repacked to its intended capacity.

Unless acquired before November 2, 1942, no new wool bag or no #1 wool bag shall be used for any purpose except by a grower for packing grease wools known to the trade as Territory, California, or Texas wools, or by a person performing a grading operation, for packing such grease wools.

Unless acquired before November 2, 1942, no #2 wool bag shall be used for any purpose except by a grower for packing grease wools known to the trade as fleece wools, or by a person performing a grading operation, for packing such grease wools.

When no longer capable of carrying grease wools, such wool bags shall be used only for packing scoured wools, noils, or wool wastes; provided that when such wool bags are no longer capable of carrying scoured wools, noils, or wool wastes, there shall be no restriction upon the disposition or use of such wool bags.

PART 971—ETHYL ALCOHOL AND RELATED COMPOUNDS

[General Preference Order M-30 as Amended Jan. 7, 1943]

Whereas the national defense requirements have created shortages of ethyl alcohol and related compounds for defense, for private account, and for export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof: Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 971.1 General Preference Order M-30—(a) Definitions. (1) "Ethyl alcohol" means ethyl alcohol of 160 proof or more, denatured or undenatured, and from whatever source derived, but shall not include ethyl alcohol produced for beverage purposes.

(1) No person shall, during any calendar quarter commencing January 1, 1942, accept delivery of ethyl alcohol for any purpose not specified in paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3), (c) (4) and (c) (8) hereof in excess of 100% of the quantity of ethyl alcohol which he used (distributed in the case of a distributor) for such purpose during the corresponding calendar quarter in the twelve months period ended June 30, 1941.

(2) No person shall during any calendar quarter commencing January 1, 1943, accept delivery of ethyl alcohol for a purpose set forth below in excess of 50% of the quantity of alcohol which was used (distributed in the case of a distributor) for such purpose during the corresponding calendar quarter in the 12-months period ended June 30, 1941; and no person shall during the month of December, 1942 accept delivery of ethyl alcohol for a purpose set forth below in excess of 50% of the quantity of ethyl alcohol which he used (distributed in the case of a distributor) for such purpose during December, 1940; provided further, however, that the quantity of ethyl alcohol used (or distributed) by such person for such purpose in the fourth quarter of 1942 shall not exceed 70% of the quantity used by him for such purpose in the corresponding quarter of 1940:

PART 1084—CANNED FOODS

[Conservation Order M-237, as Amended January 7, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the available supply of canned fruits and vegetables for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1084.15 Conservation Order M-237—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Canner" shall mean any person engaged in the business of canning foods in hermetically sealed metal or glass containers and sterilizing the same by the use of heat.

(2) "Civilian pack" shall mean the total amount by weight of all grades of all restricted canned foods in any one of the three groups listed in Exhibit A canned by any canner during the season specified, excluding any food which the canner is required to set aside by Conservation Order M-86 and orders amendatory and supplementary thereto, and which is not released from the operation of such orders by the Director General for Operations, and also excluding any canned foods actually purchased by or contracted for, or packed pursuant to duly authorized letter of intent issued by, any non-quota purchaser. This definition shall not be deemed to affect or change the meaning of the term "pack" as used in Conservation Order M-81, wherein such term refers to area of tinplate or terneplate, nor to affect or change the meaning of the term in Conservation Order M-86.

(3) "Restricted canned foods" shall mean any of the fruits and vegetables listed in Exhibit A attached hereto, packed in hermetically sealed metal or glass containers and sterilized by the use of heat, during the packing seasons indicated in said exhibit, excluding, however, liquid, strained, mashed or chopped canned foods, when packed as infant food or for invalid feeding, and excluding jams, jellies, preserves, marmalades, pickles, relishes, and soups.

(4) "Non-quota purchaser" shall mean:

(i) The Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Defense Supplies Corporation, War Shipping Administration or any agency of the United States Government for supplies to be delivered to, or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, ent tled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(ii) Any person operating an oceangoing vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in the foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade, for necessary supplies for such vessels.

(iii) Any person who furnishes eating facilities for members of the armed forces pursuant to contract therefor with the United States, for necessary supplies for such purpose, if such person furnishes copies of his contract to the canner, or other adequate evidence that such restricted canned foods are required for such use.

(iv) Any person who purchases restricted canned foods for delivery in any territory or possession of the United States, if such person furnishes to the canner copies of purchase orders or other adequate proof that the restricted canned foods actually were purchased for delivery in any such territory or possession: Provided, That proof shall not be required of a government agency.

(v) Any person who purchases restricted canned foods for use in the commercial manufacture of food products, to the extent of his current requirements (grape juice, tomato pulp in 5 gallon cans, tomato paste in #10 cans, and peppers, only).

(vi) Any person who purchases restricted canned foods from a canner for resale to a non-quota purchaser, or to replace in his inventory material delivered to a non-quota purchaser, to the extent of his purchases for such purposes, if he furnishes to the canner copies of purchase orders or other adequate proof that such resales or deliveries were to non-quota purchasers

(5) "Wholesale receiver" means any person other than a non-quota purchaser (regardless of whether or not he is also a canner) who since June 30, 1942, bought in excess of 4,000 cases of any group of restricted canned foods for any purpose.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) No canner shall deliver any restricted canned foods to any wholesale receiver who he knows or has reason to believe under the terms of this order is not entitled to receive the same.

(2) Except as permitted in paragraph (3), any wholesale receiver who between August 1, 1942, and April 1, 1943, has accepted or shall have accepted delivery of restricted canned foods of any group equaling or exceeding the following percentage of his base figure

	Percent
for group I	70
for group II	80
for group III	80

shall not sell, deliver or use such excess of such group, and shall not accept delivery of any further restricted canned foods of such group. The base figure for each wholesale receiver for each group shall be, at his option, either the total of his acceptances of delivery, or of his sales, between January 1, 1942, and August 31, 1942, of all canned foods listed in such group, whenever packed. Canned foods for resale to non-quota purchasers or to replace in the wholesale receiver's inventory material so sold are subject to the limitations of this subparagraph unless evidence is furnished to the canner as prescribed in paragraph (a) (4) (vi).

(3) Notwithstanding the restrictions of subparagraph (2), any wholesale receiver who on January 7, 1943, or at any time thereafter, has in his possession or under his control less than the following percentages of his base figure

	Percent
for group I	25
for group II	25

may accept delivery of a quantity of restricted canned foods of each group sufficient when added to the quantity in his possession or under his control, to equal the percentages hereinabove stated.

(4) No wholesale receiver may deliver during the month of November, 1942, and during each of the following months, more restricted canned foods of any group than monthly quotas constituting the following percentages of his base figure

for group I	9
for group II	10
for group III	10

The base figure shall be calculated as prescribed in paragraph (b) (2). If during November, 1942, any wholesale receiver has delivered restricted canned foods of any group in excess of his permitted monthly quota for that group, he shall charge such excess against his quotas for December and January. Not less than 50% of such excess must be charged against the December quota. Deliveries to non-quota purchasers are not required to be charged against the monthly quota percentage prescribed by this paragraph (b) (4), if in calculating his quotas the wholesale receiver deducts deliveries to non-quota purchasers during the base period from the base figure. The restrictions of this paragraph (b) (4) shall expire on April 1, 1943, unless extended by further order of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Reports. Canners to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board may from time to time request.

(d) Records. Every person to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal in writing to the Director General for Operations setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Food Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-237.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

PART 1134—TEA

[Conservation Order M-111 as Amended Jan. 7, 1943]

The uncertainty of shipments of tea from abroad and the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States have created a shortage in the supply of tea for defense, for private account, and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1134.1 Conservation Order M-111—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Tea" means packaged or bulk tea in any form.

(3) "Packer" means any person who packs tea owned by him or who has tea owned by him packed for his account by some other person.

(4) "Wholesale receiver" means any person (regardless of whether or not he is also a packer) who buys tea for:

(i) Resale exclusively or predominantly at wholesale.

(ii) Resale through four or more centrally-owned, affiliated, or independent stores owned or, for purchasing purposes, represented by him.

(iii) Resale at retail or for any other purpose not specified above, if his monthly purchases of tea during 1941 averaged 200 pounds or more per month.

NOTE: Paragraph (b) (5) was deleted and (b) (6) redesignated (b) (5) January 7, 1943.

(5) "Net deliveries" means the total deliveries of tea made by a packer or accepted by a wholesale receiver during a corresponding quarter of 1941 minus the total of any deliveries of tea made by him during that period to persons specified in paragraph (d) (4).

(c) General restrictions. (1) No packer shall accept delivery of tea or deliver tea packed by him or in bulk, except as permitted by this order.

(2) No wholesale receiver shall accept delivery of tea from any person, nor resell tea, except as permitted by this order.

(3) No person shall accept delivery of tea from any packer, and no person shall deliver tea to any packer or wholesale receiver, with knowledge or reason to believe that such packer is not entitled to deliver, or that such packer or wholesale receiver is not entitled to accept delivery of, such tea pursuant to this order.

(4) Every packer and every wholesale receiver shall sell tea equitably to purchasers and shall not favor purchasers who buy other products from them nor discriminate against purchasers who do not buy other products from them.

(d) Quota restrictions and exceptions thereto. (1) No packer shall accept delivery of more tea during any quota period than his total acceptance quota for that period as determined by the Director General for Operations from time to time. Acceptances against such quota shall be subject to the further restriction of paragraph (e-1) (1).

(2) No packer shall deliver more tea during any quota period than his delivery quota for that period as determined by the Director General for Operations from time to time.

(3) No wholesale receiver shall accept delivery of more tea during any quota period than his total acceptance quota for that period as determined by the Director General for Operations from time to time.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, any packer may, without charge to his quota, accept delivery of and deliver tea to or for any of the following persons, and any wholesale receiver may, without charge to his quota, accept delivery of tea for redelivery to or for any of the following persons:

(i) The Army, the Navy, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or any agency of the United States Government for supplies to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(ii) The American Red Cross or the United Service Organizations.

(iii) Any person operating an oceangoing vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in the foreign, coastwise or intercoastal trade, for necessary supplies for such vessel.

(iv) Any person, for retail sale through concession restaurants at army or navy camps or through outlets not operated for private profit and established primarily for the use of army or navy enlisted personnel within army or navy establishments or on army or navy vessels, including post exchanges, sales commissaries, officers' messes, servicemen's clubs, and stores.

(v) Any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison, or other similar institution, which is operated by any United States federal, state, or local governmental agency, and which received tea during 1941 under contracts awarded upon the basis of competitive bids: Provided, That no such institution may, during any month, accept delivery of more tea than a percentage of its average monthly use of tea during the corresponding quarter of 1941, such percentage to be the same as the percentage determined for wholesale receivers under paragraph (d) (2) by the Director General for Operations from time to time.

(5) All quotas hereunder shall be calculated quantitatively in terms of pounds.

(6) Any packer who delivers a substantial portion of his quota of tea directly to consumers and/or to retailers may, by letter, submit to the War Production Board a plan to transfer the distribution of all or a part of that portion to wholesale receivers of the class described in paragraph (b) (4) of this order. Such a plan must contemplate a substantial conservation of automotive and related equipment and material, and, further, contain provision for equitable distribution of the transferred volume among such wholesale receivers and an equitable redistribution of that volume within the areas previously served directly by the packer. If such a plan is authorized by the Director General for Operations, the packer may deliver to wholesale receivers of the class described in paragraph (b) (4), and such wholesale receivers may accept without charge to their quotas, the volume of tea authorized for transfer, provided delivery of such tea is accompanied by a dated certification by the packer reading substantially as follows:

Pursuant to authorization issued to the undersigned by the War Production Board, you may accept the tea delivered hereunder without charge to your quota as a wholesale receiver.

Name of packer company----------

By ---------- Title ----------

(e) Restrictions relating to wholesale receivers' inventories. Except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, no wholesale receiver shall accept any deliveries of tea which will increase his inventory thereof to an amount in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory in view of the restrictions herein.

(e–1) Restrictions relating to packers' inventories. (1) Except as permitted by paragraph (e–1) (2) below or as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, or for the purpose of filling orders under paragraph (d) (4) above, no packer shall accept any delivery of tea which will increase his inventory to above the amount of his then current acceptance quota under paragraph (d) (1).

(2) If a shipment of tea imported by or specifically for a packer arrives in the United States and, by virtue of paragraph (e–1) (1), such packer is not entitled to accept delivery of any or all of such tea but is unable to make an immediate bona fide sale to some unaffiliated person, who is entitled to accept delivery, of the excess portion of such shipment or an equivalent amount of tea from his existing inventory, such packer may take possession of such excess, pending the actions provided for below:

(i) Within 72 hours after the arrival of such tea in the United States, such packer shall offer, through established tea dealers and or brokers, such excess, or an equivalent quantity of tea from his existing inventory, for bona fide sale to any unaffiliated person who is entitled to accept delivery;

(ii) At the same time, he shall forward a report, by letter or telegram, of such actions to the War Production Board, stating the steamer, the port of arrival, the excess quantity (by chests and chest weights), whether he intends to sell such tea or an equivalent amount from his existing inventory, a description (type, grade), the location of the tea offered for sale, and the brokers and/or dealers through whom the offer is being made.

(iii) In the event of sale, he shall forward a report, by letter or telegram, on such sale, within 24 hours thereafter, to the War Production Board, stating the name of the purchaser and the date of sale.

(iv) If, before any such offer for sale is accepted, the packer becomes entitled under paragraph (e–1) (1) above to accept delivery of a quantity of tea, the restrictions of paragraph (e–1) (2) may be considered removed as to the quantity he is so entitled to accept, provided he forwards notice thereof, by letter or telegram, to the War Production Board within 24 hours after he becomes entitled to accept delivery.

(f) Advance deliveries. Advance deliveries for any quota period may be made or accepted within ten days prior to the beginning of such period.

(g) Existing contracts. The fulfillment of existing contracts for the sale of tea is permissible only to the extent that such fulfillment does not violate the quota or inventory restrictions imposed by this order.

(h) Limitation on size of packages. (1) No packer shall pack tea for sale at retail in a package or container containing more than one-fourth of one pound of tea.

(2) On and after January 14, 1943, no packer shall pack tea bags or balls except in sizes counting either 200 or 250 to the pound, net tea weight: Provided, however, That, until April 1, 1943, any packer may continue to pack such other sizes as may be necessary to utilize any containers, in his inventory on January 7, 1943, which were specially printed for such other sizes.

(i) Reports. Every packer and every wholesale receiver and every bulk user participating in any transaction to which this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as such Board may from time to time request.

Within 10 days after the close of each quarterly period, every packer shall report, by letter, to the War Production Board the total quantity of any quota-exempt deliveries of tea made during that quarterly period by him in connection with each class of persons under paragraph (d) (4), as amended. The first such report shall be forwarded by October 10, 1942 for the quarterly period ending September 30, 1942.

(j) Records. Every packer and every wholesale receiver participating in any transaction to which this order applies shall keep and preserve, for a period of not less than two years, records which upon examination, will disclose his total monthly inventories of tea and the monthly deliveries made by him (if he is a packer) or accepted by him (if he is a wholesale receiver). If the sales slips, invoices, bills or other instruments or records customarily employed by him are sufficient to furnish the information herein required, no additional record system need be installed to meet the requirements of this provision.

(k) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(l) Applicability of order. (1) The provisions of this order shall not apply outside the continental United States (which, for purposes of this order, means the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia).

(2) In the case of any person who is both a packer and a wholesale receiver, the provisions hereof applicable to packers shall apply to his operations as a packer, and the provisions hereof applicable to wholesale receivers shall apply to his operations as a wholesale receiver.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(n) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(o) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–111.

(p) Every importer, every packer, and every wholesale receiver shall immediately set aside, for the requirements of government agencies, his entire inventory of green tea which is not packed in containers of one-fourth of one pound or less or in tea bags or tea balls. Without regard to existing contracts, all tea set aside shall, unless and until released, be held for allocation to any government agency by the Director General for Operations. On or before September 25, 1942, every person required to set aside green tea shall report to the War Production Board, by letter, the types, quantities (by chests and chest weights), and locations of the tea required to be set aside. Unless otherwise ordered, any portion of tea set aside may be deemed released if, on or before January 7, 1943, no government agency designated by the Director General for Operations has contracted for, or given written notice of its intention or desire to contract for, such portion.

[Supplementary Order M–111–e]

§ 1134.6 Supplementary Order M–111–e. Pursuant to paragraph (d) of Order M–111, as amended, which this order supplements, the Director General for Operations hereby determines that, for the 3-month period commencing January 1, 1943:

(a) Tea quotas shall be as follows, subject to any increase pursuant to paragraph (b) below:

(1) The acceptance quota for any packer shall be one and one-third times the amount of his delivery quota under subparagraph (a) (2) below.

(2) The delivery quota for any packer shall be 50% of his "net deliveries" (as defined in said Order M–111) of tea during the corresponding 3-month period of either 1941 or 1942, whichever is greater.

(3) The acceptance quota for any wholesale receiver shall be 50% of his "net deliveries" (as defined in said Order M–111) of tea during the corresponding 3-month period of either 1941 or 1942, whichever is greater.

(b) Any person who (1) computes a quota under paragraph (a) above on the basis of the specified 1941 base period and not the 1942 base period and (2) directly or indirectly serves any county or other area designated in Schedule D (§ 1407.244) of Ration Order 3 of the Office of Price Administration, as amended, is hereby assigned a supplementary quota for each such area. Such supplementary quota, which shall be available only for ultimate distribution in the particular increased-population area referred to in said Schedule D, shall be computed by (i) determining the amount of his quota under paragraph (a) above, (ii) determining the portion of that amount allocable to deliveries to or for each such area, and (iii) applying to that portion the percentage of population increase designated, in said Schedule D of Ration Order 3, for that area for periods commencing on or after January 1, 1943. All existing similar supplementary quotas previously authorized for increased-population areas by the Director General for Operations or by the Director of Industry Operations (through orders supplementary to said Order M–111, through the granting of appeals under said Order M–111, or otherwise) shall cease to be effective after December 31, 1942, irrespective of whether or not such areas are designated in said Schedule D of Ration Order 3.

PART 1053—FATS AND OILS

[General Preference Order M–71, as Amended Jan. 7, 1943]

§ 1053.1 General Preference Order M–71—(a) Definitions. (1) "Fats and oils" means all the raw, crude, refined and pressed fats and oils, whether vegetable, animal, fish or other marine animal, their by-products and derivatives, including grease (lard) oil, sulfonated and similarly processed fats and oils, fatty acids, and lard and rendered pork fat, but not including cocoa butter, butter, wool greases, essential oils, tall oil, mineral oils, and vitamin-bearing oils derived from fish or other marine animal livers or viscera.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who uses any fats or oils in the manufacture of any finished product, and shall include all other persons directly controlling or controlled by such person and all persons under direct or indirect common control with such person. The term shall not include any crusher, renderer, refiner or other processor except as and to the extent that his operations result in the production of a finished product, and shall also not include any person who uses fats, and oils in the home in the preparation of food for household consumption.

Blending alone shall not constitute a person a manufacturer.

(3) The "inventory" of a manufacturer at any time shall include all fats and oils held or controlled by him and all fats and oils purchased by him for future delivery.

(4) "Finished product" means any product of a manufacturer produced for sale as his finished product and carried on his books as his finished product. Except for the purposes of paragraph (d) hereof, "finished product" shall not include: (i) grease (lard) oil; (ii) sulphonated or similarly processed fat or oil; (iii) fatty acids; (iv) lard or rendered pork fat; (v) any fat or oil product intended for sale to another manufacturer for further processing in the manufacture of, or for inclusion in, any product (excepting a product falling within paragraph (a) (4) (vi) hereof); (vi) any edible product of which a fat or oil is not the principal ingredient; (vii) any edible product produced by any hotel or restaurant for consumption on the premises; (viii) any medicinal preparation other than medicated soap.

(5) "Crusher" means any person who presses, expels, or extracts oils from any seed, bean, nut or corn or other oil-bearing materials.

(6) "Implements of war" means combat end-products, complete for tactical operations (including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armaments, weapons, merchant and naval ships, tanks and vehicles) and any parts, assemblies, and material to be incorporated in any of the foregoing items. This term does not include facilities or equipment used to manufacture the foregoing items.

(7) "Soap" means the product commonly known by that term excluding, however, soap used for non-detergent purposes (including the processing of textiles).

(b) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) [Revoked Nov. 24, 1942.]

(2) No manufacturer, except as provided in paragraph (b) (6) hereof, shall in any calendar quarter beginning with the last quarter of 1942, use or consume any fat or oil in any class of use listed in Schedule A annexed hereto in a quantity in excess of the percentage specified in such Schedule A of his average quarterly use or consumption of fats and oils in such class of use during the corresponding quarters of the two years, 1940 and 1941.

(3) If any manufacturer shall not in any quarter use or consume the quantity of fat or oil permitted by paragraph (b) (2) hereof, the unused part of his quota for such quarter shall for the purposes of such paragraph (b) (2) be carried forward and added to his permitted quota for the succeeding quarters: Provided, however, That any unused part of his permitted quota for any prior quarter shall not be carried forward beyond June 30, 1943 and beyond the 30th day of June of each year thereafter.

(4) For the purpose of determining the quantity of raw "foots" which may be used or consumed, use or consumption shall be calculated on the basis of total fatty acid content.

(5) The restrictions on fats and oils hereby imposed are imposed with respect to fats and oils in the aggregate, and such restrictions are not to be construed to limit a manufacturer to the same fat or oil used or consumed by him in the base period.

(6) Nothing in paragraph (b) (2) hereof shall restrict:

(i) The use of fats and oils in any period or quarter by any manufacturer whose aggregate use or consumption of fats and oils in such period is less than 6,000 lbs.;

(ii) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of any edible product delivered or to be delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, or delivered or to be delivered pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or the processing of fats and oils for delivery to another manufacturer for use in the manufacture of any such edible product: Provided, however, That this paragraph shall not exempt the use of fats and oils by any person other than the person having the prime contract with the Army or Navy or with the administrator of such Lend-Lease Act, unless the Quartermaster General of the Army or the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts of the Navy, or the administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration (as the procurement agency for the administrator of such Lend-Lease Act), or the duly authorized representative of any of them, shall have issued to the manufacturer (whether prime contractor or subcontractor) who uses the fat or oil in the manufacture of the edible product contracted for, a certificate setting forth that such product is for direct Army or Navy issue or for delivery pursuant to such Lend-Lease Act and that the manufacture of such product will require a stated quantity of fats or oils, and designating the supplier or suppliers of such fats or oils to be exempted under the terms of this paragraph of this order.

(iii) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of soap, including soap made from foots derived from domestic vegetable oils or their fatty acids, where such soap is delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States by the manufacturer or is delivered by such manufacturer, as a prime contractor, pursuant to such Lend-Lease Act.

(iv) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture, preparation or finishing of implements of war.

(v) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of products to be exported by the manufacturer (a) to the Dominion of Canada where such Dominion has granted a license for the import of such products, or (b) to any other country pursuant to any export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare.

(7) For the purposes of determining a manufacturer's permissible use or consumption under paragraph (b) (2) hereof, there shall be excluded from the quarter during which use or consumption is hereby limited, any fat or oil used in the manufacture of the products referred to in subdivisions (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), of paragraph (b) (6) hereof, and there shall be excluded from the base period any fat or oil used by such manufacturer in such base period in the manufacture of any edible product or soap delivered by him to the Army or Navy of the United States or delivered by him, as a prime contractor, pursuant to such Lend-Lease Act, or exported to the Dominion of Canada or to any other country, and there also shall be excluded from such base period any fat or oil used in the manufacture, preparation or finishing of implements of war.

(8) A person who acquires all the manufacturing facilities of another person in a particular class of use shall thereby become entitled to the quota of such other person in such class of use, whether or not he continues to operate such facilities in whole or in part: Provided, however, That he shall within 30 days following such acquisition inform the Director General for Operations of the facilities acquired, their location, whether or not operation will be continued in the same or another location, and the amount of quota which he claims to have acquired in each class of use.

(9) Fats and oils processed by a person pursuant to toll agreement shall be chargeable not to the quota of the processor but to the quota of the owner of such fats and oils: Provided, That title to the product shall remain in the hands of the owner of the fats and oils and that such owner shall market, invoice and collect for such product through his own organization.

(10) Each manufacturer of soap may in any quarter substitute in whole or in part for the fats and oils (other than foots made from domestic vegetable oils or their fatty acids) which he would be entitled to use under Schedule A in such manufacture, foots made from domestic vegetable oils or their fatty acids, the quantity of such foots or their fatty acids which may be used or consumed to be 150% of the base period use of fats and oils.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries of linseed oil. (1) No person engaged in the business of selling linseed oil at wholesale (whether crushed or processed by him or purchased for resale) shall deliver in the aggregate to persons other than manufacturers during any calendar quarter, beginning with the fourth quarter of 1942, more linseed oil (whether raw or processed) than 70% of the average quarterly amount of linseed oil so delivered by him during the corresponding quarters of the two years, 1940 and 1941.

(2) In reducing deliveries pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) hereof, no person shall make discriminatory cuts as between customers, whether new or old.

(3) This order shall not restrict the delivery by any person of linseed oil to the Army or Navy of the United States or pursuant to such Lend-Lease Act, and any amount so delivered by him shall be excluded both from the base period on which his quota is based and from the period or quarter during which future deliveries are hereby limited.

(d) Restrictions on processing and inventories. (1) No manufacturer shall hereafter change the condition of any fat or oil in his raw materials inventory, or add any additional materials thereto except to the extent necessary to store any such fat or oil in his raw materials inventory in a form necessary to prevent deterioration thereof, or except to put such fats or oils into process for the manufacture of his finished products subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) (2). Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the amount of fats and oils which may be held by any manufacturer in his raw materials inventory.

(2) No manufacturer shall hereafter increase the rate at which fats and oils are put into process by him, except to the extent necessary to meet the required deliveries of his finished products within the limitations established by this order and to maintain only a practicable minimum working inventory of such finished products. The term "practicable minimum working inventory" is to be strictly construed. The mere fact that the turn-over has increased, or that materials are difficult to obtain, does not justify maintaining inventories above the minimum at which his operations can be continued.

(e) Prohibited uses of fats and oils. (1) No person shall use or consume any butter or any of the following fats and oils in any class of use listed in Schedule A other than the manufacture of margarine or the manufacture of other edible finished products:

Lard.	Sesame.
Rendered pork fat.	Raisin seed.
Oleo oil.	Tomato seed.
Oleo stearin.	Cottonseed.
Oleo stock.	Corn.
Edible tallow.	Soybean.
Edible olive.	Whale oil (except sperm).
Peanut.	Seal oil.
Sunflower.

(2) No person shall use or consume in the manufacture of soap any sardine oil, pilchard oil, herring oil or mustard seed oil.

(3) Nothing in paragraphs (e) (1) or (e) (2) hereof shall restrict the use of any fat or oil in any inedible product or soap where and to the extent that:

(i) The quantity of any such fat or oil owned by such person on December 31, 1942 is less than 60,000 lbs.;

(ii) Any such fat or oil is used in the manufacture, preparation or finishing of any implement of war or in the manufacture of USP 12 soap;

(iii) Any such fat or oil is a by-product or residue of the permitted processing of any fat or oil; or consists of tank bottoms of any fat or oil; or

(iv) Such fat or oil consists of soybean oil and is used either in the manufacture of synthetic resins or as a plasticizer in the manufacture of lacquers and coated fabrics, exclusive of linoleum and oilcloth.

(v) The use by any person of any such fat or oil in any class of use has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, on such person's establishing to the satisfaction of the Director General for Operations by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-71, that such fat or oil was owned by him on December 31, 1942, and was on such date unfit for edible use.

(f) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer, who in any quarter commencing with the last quarter of the year 1942, uses or consumes more than 6,000 lbs. of fats and oils in the aggregate, shall file with the Bureau of Census, Washington, D. C., each of the following reports in the following manner:

(i) He shall file on or before the 15th day of each month of the succeeding quarter, Form BM 1 showing the consumption of fats and oils during the preceding month.

(ii) He shall file on or before the 15th day of the first month of the succeeding quarter, Form BM 2 showing the consumption of fats and oils during the preceding quarter.

(2) Every manufacturer and every other person affected by this order shall file such other reports at such times upon such form or forms as the Director General for Operations may from time to time prescribe.

(g) Effect of other orders. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, heretofore or hereafter issued, limits or curtails to a greater extent than herein provided the use, acquisition or disposition of any fat or oil, the limitations of such other order shall control.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board priorities regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, whether because of the absence of use during the two-year base period, or otherwise, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of fats or oils conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the Director General for Operations by addressing a letter to this War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-71, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(3) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this order or who in connection with this order willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-71.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg 2]

INVENTORIES

§ 3175.2 CMP Regulation 2.—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Item of controlled material" means any item in any class of controlled material listed in the attached Schedule A which is different from all other items in that class by reason of one or more of its specifications, such as length, width, thickness, temper, alloy, finish, method of manufacture, etc.

(2) "User of controlled material" means any person, including government operated consuming establishments, who uses any item of controlled material for production, construction, operating supplies, or maintenance or repair.

(b) General maximum inventory limitation. (1) No user of controlled material shall, after April 1, 1943, accept delivery of any item of controlled material if his inventory of such item is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, greater than the quantity of such item he will be required by his current practices to put into use during the succeeding 60-day period for production, construction, operating supplies, or maintenance or repair, in order to carry out his authorized operations.

(2) The Director General for Operations may, by specific inventory direction, fix longer or shorter periods or otherwise vary the inventory limits under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (b), for any specified person or class of persons. Any such action will be governed by the principle that inventories of materials are to be kept at the minimum consistent with sound production practice.

(3) Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to permit any person to accept delivery of any item of controlled material if his inventory of such item is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory thereof.

(c) Exceptions to paragraph (b). Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), any person may accept delivery of material in excess of the prescribed limits under the following circumstances.

(1) If any producer of controlled material exercises his privilege under CMP Regulation No. 1 of making delivery prior to the delivery date specified by the user of controlled material, such delivery may be accepted and the prescribed limits exceeded to the extent that such excess results from such prior delivery.

(2) If a user of controlled material has promptly instructed a producer or other supplier to reduce, postpone, or cancel a delivery, and the material has been shipped or loaded for shipment before receipt of such instruction, delivery of such material may be accepted and the prescribed limits exceeded to the extent that such excess results from such delivery, Provided, The producer or supplier promptly advises such user why the delivery has been made despite the receipt of reduction, postponement, or cancellation instructions.

(3) If a user of controlled material would be authorized under paragraph (b) to accept delivery of a quantity of an item of controlled material less than the minimum shown opposite the appropriate class of controlled material on the attached Schedule A, he may accept delivery of the full minimum shown on Schedule A.

(4) If a user of controlled material has promptly instructed a producer to reduce or postpone a delivery of a special item which cannot be readily disposed of in the course of the producer's business, and the producer advises such user that he has already started production thereof, specifying the minimum quantity which he will have to complete in the light of the production he has started, such user may accept delivery of such minimum quantity and exceed the prescribed limits to the extent that such excess results from such delivery. This exception applies only to the acceptance of delivery of such special items before they are needed and not to acceptance of such special items which will not be needed at all.

(d) Scheduling of deliveries. Every user of controlled material must apply for allotments, schedule deliveries, and place orders in such manner that deliveries may be made without violating the provisions of this regulation. If by reason of change in authorized operations, slowing or stoppage of production, delayed delivery by a producer or other supplier, or other cause, a person who has ordered material for future delivery would, if he accepted delivery on the dates specified, exceed the limits prescribed by this regulation, he shall promptly revise and adjust his applications, outstanding orders and scheduled deliveries and, if necessary, postpone or cancel the same, directly or through his claimant agencies, so that deliveries will conform to this regulation.

(e) Separate inventories. (1) In determining his inventory, a person shall include all controlled material in his possession and all material held for his account by another person, but not material held by him for the account of another person.

(2) A person who has more than one operating unit may divide his operations and apply this regulation to each division independently, but he may not thereafter change such divisions without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations. Any person who has been operating under the Production Requirements Plan shall continue to divide his operations in the same manner as under that plan to the extent that such division is consistent with this paragraph.

(f) Geographical application. This regulation shall not apply to persons outside the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia except pursuant to specific direction of the Director General for Operations.

(g) Prohibited deliveries. No person shall deliver any item of controlled material if he knows or has reason to believe that acceptance of such delivery would be in violation of this regulation.

(h) Redistribution of excess inventories. Excess inventories of controlled materials, including inventories of materials which are not in such form as to be usable by the holder, shall be subject to redistribution to other persons by voluntary action, pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 13, or if necessary, through requisitioning by the War Production Board.

(i) Reports. Users of controlled materials, including government operated consuming establishments, shall file such reports on Form CMP–7 or other designated forms, as may be required from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(j) Appeals. Any person affected by this regulation who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board. Redistribution Division, Reference: CMP Regulation No. 2, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief.

(k) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of other orders and regulations. All persons affected by this regulation shall remain subject to all applicable provisions of other War Production Board regulations and orders as amended from time to time.

(2) Communications. All communications concerning this regulation shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Redistribution Division, Washington, D. C., Reference: CMP Regulation No. 2.

Issued this 7th day of January 1943.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

In the first sentence of paragraph (d) in § 1315.1501 the words "subparagraphs (1) to (4)" are substituted for the words "subparagraphs (1) to (3)"; two new subdivisions (iii) and (iv) are added to paragraph (d) (1) of § 1315.1501; three new subdivisions (iii), (iv) and (v) are added to paragraph (d) (2) of § 1315.1501; subparagraph (4) of paragraph (d) of § 1315.1501 is redesignated subparagraph (5) and a new subparagraph (4) is added, as set forth below:

§ 1315.1501 Maximum wholesale prices for new rubber tires and tubes. * * *

(d) Passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires. * * *

(1) Sales on the basis of consumer price lists. * * *

(iii) If such seller did not deliver or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to any purchaser, any tires of the brand listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on the reclaimed rubber war tires, the maximum wholesale price for such reclaimed rubber war tires shall be the maximum wholesale price to a purchaser of the same class for the most comparable seller, calculated in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (i) or (ii).

(iv) For any sale or delivery by a manufacturer where the maximum wholesale price determined under subdivisions (i), (ii) or (iii) is less than 45% of the maximum retail price of such reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63, the manufacturer may calculate his maximum price in accordance with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, as though it were a sale or delivery of private brand tires to the private brand distributor. When a manufacturer follows the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) in calculating his maximum price to any purchaser who is not the private brand distributor of the tires involved, any reference in subparagraph (3) to the private brand distributor shall be deemed to be a reference to the particular purchaser involved, and any reference in subparagraph (3) to the brand of tire listed for the distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 shall be deemed to be a reference to whichever brand of passenger-car tire delivered or offered for delivery during November, 1941, by the manufacturer to the particular purchaser, has a maximum retail price on the 6.00–16 size closest to $17.11. All provisions of subparagraph (3), including the reporting provision, must be followed. In addition the manufacturer must report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., what his maximum price would have been under subdivisions (i), (ii), or (iii) of this subparagraph (1), on the first sale or delivery of the tires to the purchaser.

(2) Sales on the basis of wholesale price lists. * * *

(iii) If such seller did not deliver or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to any purchaser, any 6.00–16 size tires of the brand listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on the reclaimed rubber war tires, the maximum wholesale price for such reclaimed rubber war tires shall be the maximum wholesale price to a purchaser of the same class for the most comparable seller, calculated in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (i) or (ii).

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (i), (ii) or (iii), the maximum wholesale price for any new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires on which the name General Tire and Rubber Co. appears, shall be the price applicable to a purchaser of the same class calculated in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions (i), (ii) or (iii), increased by 7 percent.

(v) For any sale or delivery by a manufacturer where the maximum wholesale price determined under subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) is less than 45% of the maximum retail price of such reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63, the manufacturer may calculate his maximum price in accordance with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, as though it were a sale or delivery of private brand tires to the private brand distributor. When a manufacturer follows the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) in calculating his maximum price to any purchaser who is not the private brand distributor of the tires involved, any reference in subparagraph (3) to the private brand distributor shall be deemed to be a reference to the particular purchaser involved, and any reference in subparagraph (3) to the brand of tire listed for the distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 shall be deemed to be a reference to whichever brand of passenger-car tire delivered or offered for delivery during November, 1941, by the manufacturer to the particular purchaser, has a maximum retail price on the 6.00–16 size closest to $17.11. All provisions of subparagraph (3), including the reporting provision, must be followed. In addition the manufacturer must report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., what his maximum price would have been under subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of this subparagraph (2), on the first sale or delivery of the tires to the purchaser.

(4) Other sales under cost-plus contracts—(i) Manufacturers. For any sale or delivery of new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires by a manufacturer to a purchaser to whom the manufacturer was selling tires pursuant to a cost-plus contract during March, 1942, the maximum wholesale price shall be a price calculated in accordance with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, as though it were a sale or delivery of private brand tires by a manufacturer to the private brand distributor. This inferior subdivision (i) does not apply to a sale or delivery of private brand tires to the private brand distributor, which is priced under subparagraph (3). When a manufacturer follows the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) in calculating his maximum price to any purchaser who is not the private brand distributor of the tires involved, any reference in subparagraph (3) to the private brand distributor shall be deemed to be a reference to the particular purchaser involved, and any reference in subparagraph (3) to the brand of tire listed for the distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 shall be deemed to be a reference to whichever brand of passenger-car tire delivered or offered for delivery during November, 1941, by the manufacturer to the particular purchaser, has a maximum retail price on the 6.00–16 size closest to $17.11. All provisions of subparagraph (3), including the reporting provision, must be followed.

(ii) Other sellers. For any sale or delivery of new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires by any seller other than a manufacturer to a purchaser to whom the seller was selling tires pursuant to a cost-plus contract during March, 1942, the maximum wholesale price shall be the price determined upon the seller's first sale or delivery of such tires to the particular purchaser, by applying to the seller's net buying price of the particular size of reclaimed rubber war tire, the percentage mark-up applicable to the purchaser. The percentage mark-up to be applied to the seller's net buying price of any size of reclaimed rubber war tire in determining its maximum price to any particular purchaser shall be the difference between the seller's net buying price in November, 1941, of the 6.00–16 size tire of the brand designated in the next sentence, and the highest net price at which such tire was delivered, or if it was not delivered, at which it was offered for delivery, by the seller during November, 1941, to that purchaser, expressed as a percentage of the seller's November, 1941, net buying price. The brand of tire to be used in calculating the percentage mark-up shall be whichever brand of passenger-car tire delivered or offered for delivery during November, 1941, by the seller to the particular purchaser, has a maximum retail price on the 6.00–16 size closest to $17.11 if the seller is pricing a manufacturers' brand under this subdivision or closest to $15.37 if the seller is pricing a private brand under this subdivision. The maximum wholesale price so established shall be the maximum wholesale price for all future deliveries of such reclaimed rubber war tires by the seller to the same purchaser. The seller shall report his maximum prices in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (iv) of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, except that he need not use Form 243:1 in making his report and he shall show on his report his own net buying prices which he used in making his calculations instead of the factory costs referred to in that subdivision (iv).

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 268,[1] Amendment 1]

SALES OF CERTAIN PERISHABLE FOOD COMMODITIES AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment No. 1 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 268 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of § 1351.1103 (a) (2) are amended; new § 1351.1103a is added; the head-note and paragraph (a) of § 1351.1110 are amended; § 1351.1113 is amended; new § 1351.1115a is added; the table in paragraph (a) of § 1351.1116 is amended; subparagraph (3) of § 1351.1116 (c) is amended and new subparagraphs (4) (5) (6) and (7) are added; all to read as set forth below:

§ 1351.1103 How a retailer calculates his maximum prices for the food commodities listed in Appendix A. (a) • • •

(2) The retailer will then find his net cost of the item he is pricing.

• • • • •

(ii) Where the item being priced is purchased by the retailer from other than an intermediate seller such as, but not limited to, a grower, primary seller, country shipper, processor, packer or the like, "net cost" in this regulation, except as otherwise provided in § 1351.1103a, means the amount paid by the retailer for the unit of purchase of his "largest single purchase" delivered at his customary receiving point, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment; however, no charge or cost for local trucking or local unloading shall be included.

(iii) Where the item being priced is purchased by the retailer from an intermediate seller such as, but not limited to, wholesalers, carlot receivers, branch warehouses or jobbers, but not another retailer, "net cost" in this regulation, except as otherwise provided in § 1351.1103a, means the amount paid by the retailer for the unit of purchase of his "largest single purchase" as shown on the intermediate seller's invoice (sales ticket, cash receipt, or other written evidence of sale), less all discounts allowed to the retailer except the discount for prompt payment. When transportation charges, other than local trucking, are paid by the retailer and are not shown on the intermediate seller's invoice, they may be added to the invoice in calculating "net cost".

§ 1351.1103a How certain retailers calculate "net cost" in special cases.—(a) Fresh bananas purchased from importer at port of entry or at auction. (1) If a retailer purchases fresh bananas from an importer f. o. b. port of entry, his "net cost" shall be calculated by adding $1.00 to the importer's maximum price per hundredweight f. o. b. port of entry (as established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 285[2]) plus the actual cost of transportation at lowest available common carrier rates to his customary receiving point, which transportation charges shall include freight, icing, heating and messenger service; however, no charge or cost for local trucking or local unloading shall be included. The sum of this computation shall be the retailer's "net cost" and shall be multiplied by the applicable figure in Appendix A. The product of this multiplication shall then be divided by 100. The resulting figure shall be the retailer's maximum price per pound, which is the unit of sale designated in Appendix A.

(2) If a retailer purchases fresh bananas at the auction markets at New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore, his "net cost" shall be calculated by adding $1.00 to the importer's maximum price per hundredweight f. o. b. port of entry (as established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 285) plus the actual cost of transportation at lowest available common carrier rates of the fresh bananas from the port of entry to the auction market, which transportation charges shall include freight, icing, heating and messenger service; however, no charge or cost for local trucking, local unloading or ferry service shall be included. The sum of this computation shall be the retailer's "net cost" and shall be multiplied by the applicable figure in Appendix A. The product of this multiplication shall then be divided by 100. The resulting figure shall be the retailer's maximum price per pound, which is the unit of sale designated in Appendix A.

(b) Cheese—Limitation on transportation costs. When a retailer determines "net cost" for cheddar cheese or processed cheddar cheese purchased f. o. b. seller's shipping point, transportation charges shall not exceed the lowest published railroad carlot freight rate per pound of gross weight from Plymouth, Wisconsin, to the retailer's customary receiving point multiplied by 1.15.

§ 1351.1110 Relationship between this Maximum Price Regulation No. 268 and the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] (a) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 268 supersedes the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 (Maximum Prices for Specific Food Products), and of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this § 1351.1110, insofar as sales by retailers of food commodities covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 268 are concerned.

§ 1351.1113 Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in § 1351.1014 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 271[4] (potatoes and onions), §§ 1429.17, 1429.19 and 1429.21 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269[5] (poultry), § 1351.1264 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 285[6] (imported fresh bananas) and § 1351.1519 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 289[7] (dairy products), shall apply to terms used herein wherever applicable.

§ 1351.1115a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§§ 1351.1103 (a) (2) (ii), 1351.1103 (a) (2) (iii), 1351.1103a, 1351.1110 (a), 1351.1113, 1351.1115a, 1351.1116 (a), 1351.1116 (c) (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 268 shall become effective on January 14, 1943.

PART 1389—APPAREL

[Correction to MPR 287[1]]

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES FOR WOMEN'S, GIRLS' AND CHILDREN'S OUTERWEAR GARMENTS

In § 1389.352 (a) in the second paragraph thereof, the word "seven" which appears in the last sentence of that paragraph is corrected to read "six".

In § 1389.353 the heading is corrected to read Pricing of garments by manufacturers, except "manufacturing-retailers", "dressmakers" and "custom tailors". Section 1389.369a is added.

In Rule 3 in § 1389.353 (c) the example is corrected to read as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[2] 7 F.R. 10481, 10688.

[1] 7 F.R. 10144, 10337, 10475, 10585, 10786, 10995.

[5] 7 F.R. 10481, 10688.

[7] 7 F.R. 10460.

For example, if the manufacturer whose report is illustrated in Appendix B (§ 1389.371) delivered only garments in Category No. 22, shown in that Pricing Chart during March 1942, his maximum allowable margin for garments in a new category number shall be 28.8%. This is calculated by adding 22%, 27%, 20%, and 46% and then dividing the sum, 115% by 4, thus giving him the maximum allowable margins for the garments of new category numbers of 28.8%.

If he desires to make women's coats, Category No. 1, the Table in Appendix E indicates that he would use Group I, and could sell women's coats in a $16.75 selling price line. Thus, his minimum allowable cost in that selling price line would be $11.93. This is calculated by taking a maximum allowable margin of 28.8% on the $16.75 selling price line.

In the second paragraph of Rule 5 in § 1389.353, the date "January 10, 1943" is corrected to read "January 11, 1943".

In the first sentence of paragraph (a) of § 1389.372 and in the first sentence of paragraph (b) of § 1389.372 the phrase "§ 1389.353 (b) (4)" is corrected to read "§ 1389.353 (b) (3)".

In the third sentence of subdivision (ii) of § 1389.373 (a) (8) the word "or" is corrected to read "on".

In the second sentence of the first paragraph of § 1389.356, the word "appropriate" is substituted for "nearest".

BOMBING TARGET AREAS IN VICINITY OF AMELIA ISLAND AND PALM VALLEY, FLA.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1), the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the use and navigation of the waters of the Atlantic Ocean, in two areas, one about 12 nautical miles off the south end of Amelia Island and the other about 8 nautical miles offshore opposite Palm Valley, Florida, comprising strafing range and bombing target areas for Navy aircraft.

§ 204.81b Waters of the Atlantic Ocean; U. S. Navy, strafing and anti-submarine bombing target areas in vicinity of Amelia Island and Palm Valley, Florida [1]—(a) The danger zones. Each area is circular with a radius of one nautical mile. The first, to be used as a strafing and anti-submarine bombing target area, will be located with its center at north latitude 30°34′ and west longitude 81°12′; the second, to be used as a bombing target area, will be located with its center at north latitude 30°13′ and west longitude 81°13′. Target raft clusters will be located at the centers of the danger areas and no further marking of the areas is proposed.

(b) The regulations. (1) The danger areas are open to navigation except when target practice is being conducted, when no vessel or other craft shall enter or remain within these areas except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(2) Since aerial target practice will take place in these areas at frequent and irregular intervals throughout the year, regardless of season, advance notice shall be given of the date on which the first of such activities will begin. At intervals of not more than three months thereafter, notice will be sent out that target practice is continuing. Such notices will appear in the local newspapers and in the "Notice to Mariners".

(3) Prior to conduct of each target practice the area will be patrolled by naval aircraft which will warn navigation to leave the area by "zooming" a safe distance to the side. Upon receiving this signal any watercraft within the danger zone shall leave it and no craft shall enter this area until practice has ceased.

(4) These regulations shall not deny access to or egress from harbors contiguous to these danger zones by regular cargo-carrying vessels, nor shall they deny traverse of portions of the danger areas by regular cargo-carrying vessels proceeding on established steamer lanes. In case of the presence of any such vessel in the danger areas, the officer in charge of practice operations shall cause the cessation or postponement of fire until the vessel has cleared the area. The vessel shall proceed on its normal course and shall not delay its progress.

(5) No marking of these areas is proposed. It is considered that the targets erected as described for each area will constitute sufficient marking for identification of the danger zone.

(6) These regulations shall be enforced by the Commandant, United States Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, and such agencies as he may designate. (Sec. 7, 40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1) [Regs. December 29, 1942 (CE 800.2121 (Atlantic Ocean, Fla.)—SPEON)]

It is further ordered, That an investigation be, and the same is hereby, instituted into the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, regulations, practices and services of The Western Union Telegraph Company for and in connection with telegraph communication service between the United States and New Hebrides;

It is further ordered, That in the event a decision as to the lawfulness of the charges herein suspended has not been made during the suspension period, and said charges shall go into effect, The Western Union Telegraph Company and all other carriers subject to the Commission's jurisdiction participating in the service provided under the tariff provisions herein suspended, shall, until further order of the Commission, each keep accurate account of all amounts charged, collected, or received by reason of any increase in charges effected thereby; that each such carrier shall specify in such accounts by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid; and The Western Union Telegraph Company and each such participating carrier shall file with this Commission a report, under oath, on or before the 10th day of each calendar month, commencing May 10, 1943, showing the amounts accounted for as aforesaid during the previous calendar month;

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

PART 35—PAYMENT OF BILLS AND ACCOUNTS

PAYMENTS FOR TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH AND TELETYPEWRITER SERVICE

Sections 35.18 to 35.21 are rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

Sec
35.18 Telephone service.
35.19 Telegraph service, rates.
35.20 Bills paid monthly.
35.21 Teletypewriter service.

AUTHORITY: Sections 35.18 to 35.21, inclusive, issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

SOURCE: These regulations are also contained in Army Regulations No. 35-6100, July 23, 1942, as amended by C 1 December 22, 1942, the particular paragraphs being shown in brackets at end of sections.

Payments for Telephone, Telegraph and Teletypewriter Service

§ 35.18 Telephone service—(a) Rates, general. Where a contract for the furnishing of telephone service to the Government provides for payment at legally established rates, payment for services currently rendered is authorized at the increased rates established by city ordinance after court determination of insufficiency of prior rates. (15 Comp. Gen. 896)

(b) Flash calls made by ground observers. Flash calls made by ground observers in connections with Aircraft Warning Service may be billed as a group from a given point to a filter center, if such calls do not consume more than the minimum talking period. Where such calls consume more than the minimum talking period, they will be listed separately. (See MS. Comp. Gen., B 25280, April 28, 1942)

(c) Private residences. Payment is unauthorized from public funds for the installation or rent of a telephone installed in a private residence irrespective of its use for official business, but long-distance tolls for messages received or transmitted over such telephone, strictly for the public business, may be so paid. (See also 15 Comp. Gen. 885) [Pars. 2c and 3f and g]

§ 35.19 Telegraph service, rates—(a) Official messages. The rates for communications by telegraph between the several departments of the Government and agents in their transmission over the lines of any telegraph company to which has been given the right-of-way, timber, or station lands from the public domain are fixed annually by the Federal Communications Commission pursuant to the provisions of section 5266, Revised Statutes, as amended (Par. 1d)."

(b) Personal messages. Administrative offices may increase amounts claimed for telegraph services by the difference between the Government rate billed and the commercial rate for messages of a personal nature where collection at the commercial rate, plus tax, has been made from the individual for whose benefit the services were rendered, and deposited in special deposit funds, provided the voucher shows the full cost of the telegrams at commercial rates is being charged to the special deposit funds. (See 17 Comp. Gen. 873) [Par. 4a and k]

§ 35.20 Bills paid monthly—(a) General. In general, all official telegrams will be charged to and paid for at the sending office on monthly bills, which will be submitted by the local telegraph office directly to the local commanding officer.

(b) Supporting evidence. (1) Telegraph bills will be supported by proofs of service which, except "Government collect" messages or telegrams of a confidential nature, will be original telegrams bearing the operator's original pencil notations or indorsement of transmission showing actual performance. (See 14 Comp. Gen. 825, 16 id. 217.) As to what constitutes an original within this rule, the basic reason for the requirement that the original be filed is to insure that the charges for transmission were correctly computed for the services actually rendered and to prevent duplicating payment of such charges. This is best accomplished by accompanying the voucher with the copies of the telegrams used for transmission, showing thereon the company notations with respect to the time filed, the number of words paid for, etc., such copies being commonly referred to as transmission or wire copy. It is immaterial for audit purposes whether the transmission or wire copies be written in long hand or consist of carbon copies; on the other hand, a ribbon copy not showing the transmission data would be of little, if any, use in auditing the charges. (See 21 Comp. Gen. 364)

(2) If charges are included in monthly bills for messages received "Government collect," carbon copies will be accepted in support of the charges. (See MS. Comp. Gen. A-13067, December 18, 1935)

(3) Vouchers for telegraph services furnished by a foreign government in transmitting alleged confidential messages in code may not be passed by the General Accounting Office upon a blanket certification that they were confidential, but copies of the telegrams in code and untranslated will be submitted in support of the account. (See 4 Comp. Gen. 860)

(4) While the general rule is that claims for telegraphic services not of a confidential nature must be supported by the originals of the outgoing messages when presented for payment (subparagraph (1) above), where the messages originate in a foreign country in which the transmitting company is not permitted by its regulations to surrender the originals, copies of the originals will be accepted in support of vouchers, provided appropriate steps are taken by the administrative office to prevent a duplicate payment for the same services. (See 21 Comp. Gen. 94)

(5) (i) Bills for multiple-address telegram transmission services will be supported by evidence that the official message required to be sent was the message actually transmitted, that the message was in fact transmitted, and that the class of service rendered and charged for was that requested by the sender. Therefore a self-serving statement by a telegraph company official that the services were performed as requested cannot be accepted in lieu of the required data.

(ii) Where transmission of a multiple-address telegram is from the originally filed copy of the message, the voucher covering payment for the transmission services will be supported by such original and the list of addresses with appropriate data placed thereon at the time of transmission, but where transmission is from copies of such original, the copies containing the necessary data for a proper audit are required to be filed with the voucher. (See MS. Comp. Gen., B 28733, October 24, 1942)

(c) Bills to be paid within 5 days. Disbursing officers to whom bills are submitted for payment will settle such accounts within 5 days after receipt, making payment to the local telegraph office rendering the account. This will not be construed as authorizing payment when papers necessary to support the voucher are not in the possession of the disbursing officer.

(d) Payment to initial company. In settling accounts for telegrams which pass over the lines of more than one company (bond-aided excepted), payment may be made on the original telegram to the initial company for the entire service. [Par. 4e, f, g, h, and i]

§ 35.21 Teletypewriter service—(a) Certificate. The general certificate prescribed in § 35.1 (b) is required.

(b) Copies of teletypewriter messages not required. Accounts for teletypewriter service need not be supported by the originals or copies of messages prescribed in § 35.20 (b) for official telegrams. [Par. 6]

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8; for a change in the shipping point, railroad and freight origin group for the coals of Mine Index No. 5720, and for a change in the seam designation for the coals of Mine Index No. 407, in District No. 8; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; commencing forthwith, the shipping point, railroad and freight origin group appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R for the coals of Mine Index No. 5720 shall be as therein shown instead of the shipping point, railroad and freight origin group heretofore applicable for this mine; and commencing forthwith, the seam designation appearing in Supplement R and Supplement T for the coals of Mine Index No. 407 shall be as therein shown instead of the seam designation heretofore applicable to this mine.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The minimum prices requested by District Board No. 8 in the original petition filed herein for the coals of the Betsey No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 5768, of Shank & Shank, have not been established for the reason that the prices requested are the same as those requested in Docket No. A–1557 for all the mines in Putnam County for truck shipments and upon which request a hearing was held. This matter is now pending before the Director. In lieu thereof, the minimum prices for truck shipments set forth in Supplement T, which are the prices presently established for coals in Putnam County, West Virginia, have temporarily been established for the coals of this mine.

Dated: December 21, 1942.

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act:

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 333.6 (General Prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, § 333.7 (Special prices—(a) Prices for shipment to all railroads and for exclusive use of railroads) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, § 333.7 (Special prices—(c) Prices for shipment by railroad, applicable to all coal sold for steamship vessel fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–III, § 333.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–IV, § 333.25 (Special prices—(b) Prices for shipment to all railroads for locomotive fuel, station heating, power plants and other uses) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–V, § 333.27 (Prices for shipment by river (free alongside) for all uses (except for railway locomotive fuel) for delivery via the Tennessee River to f. a. s. consumers in the States of Tennessee and Alabama) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–VI, § 333.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–I, § 333.43 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

No price classifications or minimum prices have been established for the Millie and Moss Hollow Mine of R. C. Gillespie as proposed in the original petition because records of the Division indicate that this producer is not a member of the Bituminous Coal Code.

The petition also proposed a minimum price in the amount of $3.10 for Size Group 23 (raw screenings) for the New Riceton #5 Mine for truck shipments. In view of the fact that a minimum price of $2.60 is proposed for the coals of this mine in Size Group 18 (raw screenings) and because of the fact that a minimum price of $2.10 is proposed for comparable coals in Size Group 23 produced at other mines operating in the same county and seam, it appears that the proposed minimum price of $3.10 for the coals in Size Group 23 of the New Riceton #5 Mine is a typographical error and that the minimum price intended to be proposed for this coal is $2.10. A minimum price for Size Group 23 of the New Riceton #5 Mine for truck shipments is accordingly established at $2.10.

Dated: December 19, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1759]

PART 334—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 14

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of the Kistler Coal Company, code member in District No. 14, for revision of certain price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced from the Rock Island Mine.

An original petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party requesting revision of the price classifications and minimum prices for the coals in Size Gorups Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 18, produced from the Rock Island Mine, Mine Index No. 203, of the Kistler Coal Company, located in Subdistrict No. 6 of District No. 14, for shipments by both rail and truck.

Petitioner alleges that the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established and currently in effect for the coals of its Rock Island Mine in Size Groups Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 18, do not reflect the relative market values of such coals for the reason that at the time the coals in question were originally classified and priced in Dockets Nos. A–928 and A–928 Part II, petitioner's mine was in the process of development and approximated but 300 feet in depth, with the result that the coal produced therefrom was inferior in quality to the so-called A Grade coals produced in the Excelsior field in District No. 14. Petitioner further alleges that the depth of its Rock Island Mine now approximates 1100 feet and that the coals currently being produced therefrom are comparable both physically and analytically with the A Grade coals produced from competing mines in the Excelsior field.

In support of its allegation to the effect that the coals of its Rock Island Mine are presently comparable to the coals produced from other A Grade mines in the Excelsior field, petitioner, for the purpose of comparison, submits an analysis of the lump coals produced from its Rock Island Mine and a composite analysis of the lump coals produced from Mine Index Nos. 13, 33, 89 and 144, which mines are classified as A Grade mines and are located in the Excelsior field in District No. 14.

In support of its allegation that the coals produced from its Rock Island Mine are comparable in hardness and in physical characteristics to the coals produced from A Grade mines in the Excelsior field, petitioner submits reports of drop shatter tests conducted upon 8" x 3" egg coal produced from its Rock Island Mine, and upon similar size coals produced from Mine Index Nos. 13, 33, 89 and 144, the A Grade mines referred to above.

No petitions of intervention have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter.

From the facts alleged in the original petition in this matter it appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief and that, pending final disposition of this proceeding, interested persons will not be prejudiced by the granting of such temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief be, and it hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas) in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 14 For All Shipments Except Truck and For Truck Shipments are supplemented to include, for the coals of the Rock Island Mine, Mine Index No. 203, of the Kistler Coal Company, in Size Groups Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 18, the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedules marked Supplement R and Supplement T annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established in Dockets Nos. A–928 and A–928 Part II, 6 F.R. 3944 and 6 F.R. 6183, respectively, for the coals of the Rock Island Mine, Mine Index No. 203, of the Kistler Coal Company, in Size Groups Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 18, for all shipments except truck, and for truck shipments, be, and they hereby are, withdrawn and terminated as of the date of this order.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order unless is shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 26, 1942.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

STAR COFFEE CO.

Peter Rubinelli, d/b/a Star Coffee Company, St. Louis, Missouri, is a roaster of coffee as defined in Conservation Order M–135. From April 28 to June 30, 1942, said Peter Rubinelli sold a substantial quantity of roasted coffee in excess of the quota permitted under the terms of Supplementary Conservation Order M–135–c. Furthermore, Peter Rubinelli accepted delivery of green coffee at a time when his inventory thereof exceeded a two months' supply in violation of Conservation Order M–135.

These violations of Conservation Order M–135 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.209 Suspension Order S–209. (a) During each of the calendar months from January 1943 through and including June 1943, deliveries of coffee by Peter Rubinelli, individually, or doing business as Star Coffee Company or otherwise, shall not exceed 16,560 pounds, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) The restrictions contained in paragraph (a) hereof shall not apply to deliveries by Peter Rubinelli, individually, or doing business as Star Coffee Company or otherwise, to any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison, or other similar institution which is operated by any United States federal, state, or local governmental agency and which received coffee during 1941 under contracts awarded upon the basis of competitive bids.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Peter Rubinelli, individually, or doing business as Star Coffee Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 7th day of January 1943.

Section 940.3 Supplementary Order M–15–b is amended by changing paragraph (c) (11) thereof to read as follows:

(11) Reports covering war orders. Reports covering the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber to fill war orders shall be filed monthly on Form PD-49, as revised, pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (c) (24) of this Supplementary Order No. M–15–b.

HAND FORKS, HAND HOOKS, HAND RAKES, HAND HOES, HAND EYE HOES AND HAND CULTIVATORS.

§ 1293.6 Schedule V to Limitation Order L–157—(a) Definitions: For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps, forges or otherwise fabricates hand forks, hand hooks, hand rakes, hand hoes, hand eye hoes, or hand cultivators.

(2) "Hand cultivator" means a tined hoe or rake designed for manual operation. Hand cultivator shall not include a hand wheel cultivator.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Order L–157, the kinds, grades, styles, sizes, weights, and finishes set forth in Appendix A and Tables 1 through 6 of this schedule are established for the manufacture, stamping, forging or fabricating of hand forks, hand hooks, hand rakes, hand hoes, hand eye hoes, and hand cultivators.

(c) Effective date of simplified practices. On and after the 8th day of April 1943, no producer shall put in process any steel for the purpose of manufacturing, stamping, forging or otherwise fabricating hand forks, hand hooks, hand rakes, hand hoes, hand eye hoes, or hand cultivators other than such forks, hooks, rakes, hoes, eye hoes or cultivators as conform to the kinds, grades, styles, sizes, weights and finishes as established by paragraph (b) and Appendix A, Table 1 through Table 6 of this schedule. On and after the 8th day of May 1943, no producer shall manufacture, stamp, forge, or fabricate a hand fork, hand hook, hand rake, hand hoe, hand eye hoe or hand cultivator not conforming to the kinds, grades, styles, sizes, weights and finishes established in paragraph (b), and Appendix A, Table 1 through Table 6 of this schedule, except with the express permission of the Director General for Operations.

(d) Records. Each producer of hand forks, hand rakes, hand hoes, hand eye hoes, or hand cultivators shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time require.

Issued this 8th day of January 1943.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

APPENDIX A—EXPLANATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(1) Grades. A, B, and C designate qualities of complete tools; A designating the best quality. Limitations applying to quality are given separately at the foot of each table. Handle grades A, B, and C are defined in Simplified Practice Recommendation R76–40, Ash Handles, issued by the National Bureau of Standards, United States Department of Commerce. Handle grade requirements shall not be construed as prohibiting the substitution for ash of other suitable species of wood having characteristics as nearly comparable as possible to the respective grades of ash for which they are substituted, provided all handles other than ash be marked with the name of the species of wood of which they were made.

(2) Finishes. Except where otherwise stated, blades and tines shall be natural finish, i. e., dipped in their natural state (except that they may be wire brushed to remove scale or rust) in paint, enamel, lacquer, or other protective coating. Wood handles shall be finished so that the grain of the wood is plainly visible.

(3) Material. No alloy steels shall be used in the construction of any tool listed in Table 1 through Table 6.

(4) Tolerances. Dimensions and weights given herein are subject to commercial tolerances.

PART 3096—PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Conservation Order M-241 as Amended Jan. 8, 1943]

Section 3096.1 General Conservation Order M-241, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account and for export, of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3096.1 General Conservation Order M-241—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Produce" includes all operations connected with the production of paper and paperboard, including operations in the finishing room and packaging, but does not include processes or operations applied to paper and paperboard after the primary papermaking, such as printing, waxing, gumming, coating, bag manufacture, cup manufacture and envelope manufacture, box and container manufacture, and the fabrication of paper into paper articles.

(3) "Mill" means a congregation of pulp preparation and roll and sheet finishing equipment, paper machines and subsidiary facilities located and operated together as a single producing unit for the production of paper and paperboard.

(4) "Base Period" means the six month period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942.

(5) "Paper merchant" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and reselling paper and or paperboard.

(c) Restrictions on production of paper and paperboard. (1) Unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph (c), no person or persons shall produce paper or paperboard in any mill which has not produced paper or paperboard since August 1, 1942.

(2) Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall for each mill operated by him determine quarterly a production quota, calculated as follows:

(i) Determine, separately for each class of paper and paperboard on List A, the quantity thereof produced at such mill during the period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942;

(ii) Subtract from the result for each class the quantity produced at such mill during such period of each of the grades of paper or paperboard on List B falling within such class:

(iii) Multiply the remainder for each class by percentage figure set opposite the particular class on List A;

(iv) Add together the several tonnages obtained by (iii), and divide by two.

The quantities shall be measured, to the nearest ton, in tonnage delivered from the paper machine. The method and basis for determining such tonnage shall be that method and basis followed at the particular mill in the past, or any other practicable method and basis, provided the same method and basis are used to determine both current production and production during the base period. If any machine unit of any mill was shut down during the base period for as much as 72 consecutive hours, excluding vacations and holidays, there may be added to (i) for such mill for the class of paper or paperboard principally produced on such machine unit, whatever quantity thereof could have been produced on such machine unit during the down time at the average rate of operation during the preceding month.

The Director General may from time to time by amendment change the classification and or percentages on List A or change List B, specifying a particular date for the change to take effect. Quotas for production after any such date shall be calculated according to Lists A and B as amended, until further amended. If the effective date of any such amendment is other than the first day of a calendar quarter, the quota for the quarter within which such date falls shall be recalculated by adding together (i) the proportion of the old quota which equals the proportion of the quarter preceding such date and (ii) the proportion of the new quota which equals the proportion of the quarter following such date, including such date.

(3) No person or persons shall during the first calendar quarter of 1943 or any calendar quarter thereafter produce at any mill any quantity of paper and or paperboard in excess of the quota for such mill for such quarter determined according to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c), except:

(i) To the extent and upon the conditions stated in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph (c); or

(ii) To the extent specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to paragraph (5) (c) of this order, subject to any conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in such authorization: and Provided, That,

(i) Within such quota there may be produced at any mill any quantities of any one or several kinds of paper and or paperboard, provided that the aggregate during any quarter does not exceed such mill's quota for that quarter; and

(ii) Regardless of and over and beyond any such quota, any person may produce at any mill, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), any quantity of any kind of paper on List B.

(4) If one person owns only one mill, and such mill is equipped with only one machine unit for the manufacture of paper and/or paperboard, such person may, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), produce at such mill during any calendar week any quantity of paper and/or paperboard required to occupy such machine 120 hours during such week: Provided, That such person shall in no other week during the same calendar quarter operate such mill in excess of 120 hours.

(5) If any person owns more than one mill, and can show that by combining or exchanging the several quotas of such mills, or parts thereof, significant quantities of critical materials will be saved, transportation reduced, labor released in areas where needed, or other materials or facilities required in the national defense conserved, he may submit to the Director General for Operations, in writing, a plan for such combination or exchange, stating the quantity and kinds of paper and/or paperboard produced at each mill involved during each month of the year from October 1, 1941 through September 30, 1942, the quantity and kinds of paper expected to be produced at each such mill during each quarter under such plan, how long he proposes to operate under such plan, his reasons for desiring to adopt such plan, and the respects wherein he conceives that such plan will accomplish the purposes mentioned

The Director General for Operations may thereupon approve, modify, or disapprove such plan or may impose upon the execution of any such plan whatever conditions he may deem appropriate to this order. Upon receipt from the Director General for Operations of approval in writing of such a plan the proponent may produce at the mills designated in such plan the quantities and kinds of paper and/or paperboard provided for in such plan, subject to any modifications or conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in his approval. No person shall undertake or attempt to carry into effect any such plan unless and until he receives such approval.

(d) Reserve production. Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall reserve in the production schedule of each of his mills for the month of January, 1943, and for each calendar month thereafter, time and supplies sufficient to produce and deliver within such month, at the order of the Director General for Operations, 2% of such mill's quota for the current calendar quarter. In general this should amount to approximately 6% of each month's production. The Director General for Operations may on or before the 15th of any month, by telegram or letter, direct any manufacturer to employ such reserve to produce any kind of paper and/or paperboard usually produced at such mill, and any quantity thereof, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one month 2% of such mill's quota for the current quarter, and sell and deliver the same within the month to any person named by the Director General for Operations. The manufacturer may refuse so to produce and deliver only for the reasons specified for the refusal of rated orders in § 944.2 (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer does not on or before the 15th of any month receive from the Director General for Operations directions as to the disposition of such reserve (or has received directions as to the disposition of a part but not of the remainder) he may employ the same or such remainder) as he may desire, consistent with the other provisions of this order.

(e) Restrictions on inventory. Unless specifically authorized by the Director General, by telegram or letter, or excepted by paragraph (e) (5):

(1) No person shall knowingly deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of any quantity of newsprint, if the inventory of newsprint in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than seventy five days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming newsprint for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming newsprint as projected for the then current quarter;

(2) No person except a paper merchant shall knowingly deliver, and no person except a paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(3) No person shall knowingly deliver to a paper merchant, and no paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of such paper merchant is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than ninety days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(4) No person shall produce at any mill any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if his inventory of such grade at such mill is, or will by virtue of such production become, in excess of (i) two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill for the preceding quarter or the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill as projected for the then current quarter.

(5) The term "grade of paper or paperboard" refers to the classification on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, each caption (except those which are further broken down by following captions) representing a separate grade. If a person's gross inventory of a grade is in excess of two carloads or sixty days' supply, as above, but his inventory of a particular item within that grade is less than thirty days' supply (or, in the case of a paper merchant, less than sixty days' supply), he may accept delivery of or produce, and others may deliver to him, any quantity of such item as may be required to provide him with thirty days' supply (or in the case of a paper merchant sixty days' supply). The restrictions of this paragraph (e) apply equally to paper and paperboard of foreign and domestic origin, and apply to intra company deliveries as defined in § 944.12 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. They do not, however, apply to those papers commonly reported on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, under the captions "Photographic and other sensitized" (07611) and "Cigarette" (08512), or to any paper or paperboard after it is printed or converted beyond waxing or coating, or to inventories held by or for any agency or government referred to in § 944.1 (b) (1) and (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 1, or by or for the United States Government Printing Office.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(2) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(6) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to, War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-241.

In the calculation of a mill's quota there should first be determined the whole quantity of each class produced at the mill during the base period, then subtracted from the result for each class the quantity produced at the mill during the base period of any kind of paper or paperboard on List B falling within such class, then the remainder multiplied by the percentage in column 2, and the several results added and the total divided by two. LIST B

Column 1 lists the grades of paper and paperboard which may in general be manufactured without restriction. (See (c) (3) of Order M-241, as amended). The general class within which each falls, according to the classification on List A, is indicated in Column 2. In the calculation of a mill's quota, the amount produced during the base period of each kind of paper and paperboard listed in column 1 is to be subtracted from the total quantity of the corresponding class in column 2 produced during the base period. (See (c) (2) (ii) of Order M-241, as amended). The kinds of paper and paperboard listed in column 1 are further identified by the numbers in parentheses following each, being the code numbers for each on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Forms OPM-514 (for the last quarter of 1941) and WPB-514 (for the first quarter of 1942), respectively as indicated.

[General Conservation Order M-241-a]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account and for export, of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of pulp, paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3096.2 General Conservation Order M-241-a—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Converter" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing from pulp, paper and/or paperboard any of the commodities or articles referred to in paragraph (b).

(b) Restrictions on consumption of pulp, paper and/or paperboard in the manufacture of certain converted products. (1) No converter shall during the first calendar quarter of 1943, or any calendar quarter thereafter, consume in the manufacture of any article or class of articles on List A any quantity, in tons, of pulp, paper and/or paperboard greater than the quantity determined by applying the percentage figure on List A opposite the designation of such article or class of articles to either, at the option of the converter:

(i) The quantity, in tons, of pulp, paper and or paperboard consumed by such converter in the manufacture of such article or class of articles during the corresponding quarter of 1942; or

(ii) One-fourth of the total quantity of pulp, paper and/or paperboard consumed by such converter in the manufacture of such article or class of articles during the entire calendar year of 1942.

(2) From and after February 15, 1943, no converter shall consume in the manufacture of any article or class of articles underlined on List B any quantity of pulp, paper, or paperboard.

It shall be the duty of each converter to determine in the first instance which, if any, of his products are included among the articles and classes of articles on Lists A and B. In case of doubt he may apply to the Director General for Operations, in writing, describing the product in question, for a specific ruling, by telegram or letter, determining whether or not the same is so included. The Director General for Operations may of his own motion in any case, by telegram or letter, issue a specific ruling determining whether or not a particular product of a particular converter is so included.

(c) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

PART 3123—FLOOR FINISHING AND FLOOR MAINTENANCE MACHINES AND INDUSTRIAL VACUUM CLEANERS

[Limitation Order L-222]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export of the materials used in the manufacture of floor finishing and floor maintenance machines and industrial vacuum cleaners; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3123.1 Limitation Order L-222—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Floor finishing or floor maintenance machines" means any motorized or hand-powered mechanical device, designed for the purpose of floor finishing or maintenance. The term includes, but is not limited to, the types of machines on List A attached to this order as amended from time to time, and excludes independent motor-operated vacuum producing units, floor sanding machines and machines specifically designed for the manipulation of wet cement.

(2) "Floor finishing" and "floor maintenance" include, but are not limited to, the operations of grinding, staining, sealing, scraping, oiling, waxing or polishing floors or decks, and the collection and removal of dust, grime, oil, reclaimable materials or refuse from floors or decks, either separately or in conjunction with the operations of washing, scraping, sterilizing and wiping floors or decks.

(3) "Floor sanding machines" means machines used for the smoothing of floors or decks, other than stone or tile floors, by the use of abrasives such as, but not limited to, sandpaper and steel wool.

(4) "Vacuum cleaners" means machines in which a combination of a motor operated vacuum producer (stationary or portable), an air impeller line, and a portable tool with attachments is used for the collection and removal by suction of dust, oil, reclaimable materials or refuse, in either the wet or dry state.

(5) "Industrial vacuum cleaners" means all vacuum cleaners other than those designed primarily for household use, exclusive of motor-operated vacuum producing units incorporated in floor sanding, floor finishing or floor maintenance machines.

(6) "Blowers" means machines in which a combination of a motor operated air pressure producer, an air impeller line, and a portable tool with attachments is used for the removal of dust, materials or refuse by air pressure.

(7) "New machines" means machines which have neither been used nor sold, rented or lent for the purpose of being used for floor sanding, floor finishing, floor maintenance or vacuum cleaning, and also machines which have been used solely for demonstration or trial loans.

(8) "Supplies" means replaceable items, such as, but not limited to, polishing brushes, cleaning brushes, sanding drums and discs, stones, hoses and bags, which are expended in the operations of floor sanding, floor finishing, floor maintenance, and vacuum cleaning.

(9) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the fabrication or assembly of new floor sanding machines, new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines, or new industrial vacuum cleaners, or of parts designed specifically for such machines, and includes wholesaling or retailing subsidiaries or divisions of such a person.

(10) "Distributor" means any person engaged in the business of selling, renting or lending new floor sanding machines, new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines, or new industrial vacuum cleaners, other than a manufacturer.

(b) Restrictions on production—(1) Floor sanding machines. No manufacturer shall fabricate or assemble any new floor sanding machines or parts for such new machines except as follows:

(i) On and before January 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may start to fabricate parts, for the assembly of new floor sanding machines, from materials which are still in the form in which he received them, provided that the materials which he starts to fabricate can be fabricated into parts and can be assembled into new floor sanding machines within the time limits set by paragraphs (b) (1) (ii) and (b) (1) (iii) of this order.

(ii) On and before March 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may fabricate parts for the assembly of new floor sanding machines.

(iii) On and before March 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may assemble new floor sanding machines.

(2) Floor finishing or floor maintenance machines. No manufacturer shall fabricate or assemble any new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines or parts for such new machines, except as follows:

(i) On and before January 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may start to fabricate parts, for the assembly of new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines, from materials which are still in the form in which he received them, provided that the materials which he starts to fabricate can be fabricated into parts and can be assembled into new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines within the time limits sets by paragraphs (b) (2) (ii) and (b) (2) (iii) of this order.

(ii) On and before March 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may fabricate parts for the assembly of new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines.

(iii) On and before March 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may assemble new floor finishing or floor maintenance machines.

(3) Industrial vacuum cleaners. No manufacturer shall fabricate any parts for new industrial vacuum cleaners except as follows:

(i) On and before January 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may start to fabricate parts, for the assembly of new industrial vacuum cleaners, from materials which are still in the form in which he received them, provided that the materials which he starts to fabricate can be fabricated into parts within the time limit set by paragraph (b) (3) (ii) of this order.

(ii) On and before March 15, 1943, but not thereafter, a manufacturer may fabricate parts for the assembly of new industrial vacuum cleaners, provided that if the Director General for Operations shall fix a production quota for such manufacturer, the number of machines for the assembly of which such manufacturer fabricates parts shall not exceed such production quota. Whenever production quotas are assigned by the Director General for Operations, he will take into consideration the number of machines already completed and the number of machines needed to be completed to meet, but not to exceed, the total requirements for such machines as determined by the Standard Products Committee.

(4) Repair parts other than supplies. (i) During the calendar quarter commencing January 1, 1943, and during any calendar quarter thereafter, no manufacturer shall fabricate repair parts having an aggregate manufacturing cost in excess of two per cent of that manufacturer's billed sales of new floor sanding machines, new floor finishing and floor maintenance machines, and new industrial vacuum cleaners during the calendar year of 1941.

(5) Supplies. Except as otherwise specifically provided, the restrictions of paragraph (b) of this order shall not apply to supplies other than suction attachments used in the conversion of portable industrial blowers to industrial vacuum cleaners.

(c) Restrictions on transfer. (1) No manufacturer or distributor shall sell, rent, lend or deliver any of the following types of new machines without authorization on Form PD-722:

Within five days after their expiration, all expired authorization forms shall be returned for cancellation to the War Production Board, Service Equipment Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L-222.

(2) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the sale, rental, loan, or delivery of new machines from one manufacturer or distributor to fill an order, or part of an order received by the latter for such machines if the filling of the order has been authorized on Form PD-722.

(d) Procedure for authorization. All persons making application for the authorization required by paragraph (c) hereof shall make such application on Form PD-722.

(e) Applicability of other orders and priorities regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[Limitation Order L-241]

PART 1316—COTTON TEXTILES

[MPR 11]

FINE COTTON GOODS

The title, preamble and §§ 1316.1 to 1316.14, inclusive, of Revised Price Schedule No. 11 [1]—Fine Cotton Goods—are amended, renumbered and reissued as Maximum Price Regulation No. 11—Fine Cotton Goods.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 11 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industries which will be affected by this regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this maximum price regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable, and comply with the requirements of section 3 and the other requirements of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and will effectuate the purpose of said Act.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 11 is hereby issued.

§ 1316.1 Prohibition against dealing in fine cotton goods at prices above the maximum. Except as provided in § 1316.3 (a) no person shall sell or deliver and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any fabrics covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed herein, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1316.2 Less than maximum prices. Prices lower than the maximum prices set by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1316.3 To what transactions, fabrics and persons this regulation applies, and the relation to other regulations— (a) What transactions are covered and the relation to other regulations. (1) This regulation covers all sales and deliveries of fabrics listed in paragraph (b) below other than (i) any sale or delivery which is covered by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation;[4] and (ii) sales or deliveries made by a wholesaler, jobber or retailer in the performance of a recognized distributive function. A sale or delivery performs a "recognized distributive function" only if it advances the goods sold to the next stage of distribution. It follows that sales by any person to a converter or finisher, by one jobber to a competitive jobber, and by one manufacturer of commodities from cloth to another are covered by the regulation.

(2) Any sale or delivery covered by this regulation is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation [5] or to Maximum Price Regulation No. 157.[6]

(b) What fabrics are covered. (1) This regulation covers:

(iii) Unfinished box-loom clip-spot marquisettes and beat-up marquisettes made of combed or carded cotton yarn or any combination thereof.

(c) What persons are covered. This regulation covers all persons, including individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations and any other organized groups; their agents or legal successors; the United States, any government and any agencies or political subdivisions thereof.

§ 1316.4 Maximum prices. (a) The maximum prices established herein are prices f. o. b. the seller's point of shipment, net ten days.

(b) For seconds, short lengths and remnants of any fabric subject to the maximum prices set in this regulation, the maximum prices shall be discounted as follows:

None of the premiums allowable hereunder is applicable, however, to any fabric which, in its basic construction, is normally manufactured by means of the process on which such premium is predicated.

TABLE III

The maximum price for any fabric covered by this regulation for which a specified price is not set forth or ascertainable from Tables I and II, shall be the applicable poundage price set forth below:

Cloths:	Price (cents per pound)
Lawn	75
Broadcloths	60
Voiles	75
Dimities	75
Marquisettes	65
Other fabrics	50

A seller may, however, request the Office of Price Administration to determine in place of such poundage price a special maximum price for a particular fabric. The request shall contain a complete description of the fabric (including the width; the cloth count; the weight; detailed production costs; and a statement of the price requested). Even if such a request has been made, the poundage price set forth above shall govern until the Price Administrator has issued a special maximum price.

§ 1316.5 What the contracts of sale and invoices must contain. (a) Every seller shall deliver to the purchaser at the time the contract is made a written contract of sale which shall contain:

(1) The date on which the sale or contract of sale was made;

(2) A full description of the materials sold including:

(i) The width;

(ii) The cloth count;

(iii) The number of yards per pound;

(iv) Any feature of the cloth for which a premium is allowed or discount required;

(3) The quantity sold;

(4) The terms of sale; and

(5) The prices.

(b) With each delivery the seller shall transmit to the purchaser an invoice or similar document which shall either contain the information required by paragraph (a) above or make reference to the contract in which such information is set forth.

§ 1316.6 Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a device to increase the consideration obtained above the maximum price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and the like.

§ 1316.7 Applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contract" is here used to mean any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 1, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States", or any subcontract under contracts with such persons.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price established by this Regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of material which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, contracts, deliveries, and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to appropriate refund if the requested adjustment is denied in whole or in part. The seller must notify the buyer in writing that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration. In appropriate situations where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

However, the filing of a petition shall not be construed as authorizing transactions at a price above the maximum price.

§ 1316.8 Records and reports—(a) Records. Every person making purchases or sales subject to the regulation shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, complete and accurate records which will show a complete description of the items sold; the name and address of the buyer or seller; the date of the sale and the price paid or received.

(b) Reports. Persons affected by this regulation shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED, AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

SALES BY CANNERS OF TUNA, BONITO, AND YELLOWTAIL

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of tuna, bonito, and yellowtail have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of tuna, bonito, and yellowtail prevailing between October 1, 1941 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below the average price of such commodities in the year 1941.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1364.651 to 1364.662 inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1364.651 Prohibition against dealing in tuna, bonito, and yellowtail at prices above the maximum. On or after January 13, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no canner, or agent or other person acting on behalf, or under control, of such canner shall sell or deliver any tuna, bonito, or yellowtail, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive from a canner any tuna, bonito, or yellowtail at prices higher than those set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.662; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of tuna, bonito, and yellowtail to a purchaser if prior to January 13, 1943, such tuna, bonito, or yellowtail has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1364.652 Conditional agreement. No canner of tuna, bonito, or yellowtail shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1364.662 in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 299 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment.

§ 1364.653 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export tuna, bonito, or yellowtail shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.654 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1364.662 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1364.656 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a purchase or sale of tuna, bonito, or yellowtail in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing therein, after January 12, 1943, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity and a description of the grade or brand, style of pack, and container size of tuna, bonito, or yellowtail.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1364.657 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 299 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 299 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any act or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.658 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Regulation No. 299 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.659 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 299 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, other than at retail, rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) and finished rotenone insecticides, and no person shall buy or receive, other than at retail, rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) and finished rotenone insecticides, in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in the Appendices hereto, lettered A to H, incorporated herein as § 1372.167 to § 1372.174 inclusive, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, That the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 shall not apply to sales if, prior to January 13, 1943, the commodity was received for shipment to the purchaser by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, prohibiting purchasers from paying in excess of the maximum prices, shall not be applicable to any war procurement agency or any contracting officer thereof, and any contracting officer or any paying finance officer of such agency shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1372.153 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation [1] with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1372.154 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1372.155 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1372.156 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of a commodity, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during March 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during March 1942 the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall be regarded as having included such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298.

(2) In all other cases if, at the time the seller determined his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax did not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller did state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after March 31, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased; except that the tax on transportation imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for the purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity subject of this regulation, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by any person transporting the commodity for hire, and it shall not be treated under any provision of this regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.

§ 1372.157 Petitions for amendment. Any person subject to any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1372.158 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust to or fix at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. Where a petition for amendment under § 1372.157 has been duly filed, and requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to the seller to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition thereof.

§ 1372.159 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) or finished rotenone insecticides, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding or otherwise; without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the price limitations set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 shall not be evaded by improper classification of any rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) or finished rotenone insecticides, improper application of extras, splitting of orders into small quantities or exchange of formulae in order to increase prices, or by decreasing or discontinuance of cash discounts.

§ 1372.160 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement, actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1372.161 Records and reports. (a) Each person selling within the continental United States rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) or finished rotenone insecticides other than at retail, shall preserve and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for as long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, remains in effect, all available records of prices, costs, pricing methods, delivery charges, allowances and discounts, on all sales of rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) and finished rotenone insecticides made by such seller since January, 1941.

(b) Persons affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

§ 1372.162 Filing of prices and pricing methods. (a) Each person selling other than at retail any rotenone product shall report to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., within ten days after its determination, his maximum price for each of his rotenone products, except roots, powder, resin, chemically pure rotenone, technically pure rotenone, solvate, or products priced in § 1372.168 (Appendix B (7)) hereof. Such maximum price shall be reported for each class of purchaser and for each kind and type of package. Each product shall be described by brand or trade mark, if any, and by the kinds and amounts of ingredients contained in the product.

(b) Each person selling liquid extract shall report to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., within ten days after the price was determined, an explanation of how he computed his maximum price for such liquid extract.

(c) Each person who establishes a maximum price for a rotenone insecticide under the provisions of Appendix F hereof, shall report within 10 days after the establishment of such price to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an explanation of how he computed his maximum price.

§ 1372.163 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade of any person producing rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) or finished rotenone insecticides are or have been sold or otherwise transferred after March 1, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business or continues to produce rotenone roots, rotenone products (unfinished) or finished rotenone insecticides in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligations to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the tansfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record and filing of price provisions of this regulation.

Under an OPA maximum price regulation the manufacturer of ---------- is

§ 1372.166 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 298 shall become effective January 13, 1943.

§ 1372.167 Appendix A: Maximum price for rotenone roots. (a) The maximum price for root containing not more than 12 per cent moisture, seller to pay all costs of freight, insurance, entry, analysis, weighing, and the like, shall be the sum of (1) the price paid f. o. b. foreign shipping point, landed weight basis, (2) transportation costs by boat or boat and rail from shipping point to United States port, (3) marine and war risk insurance at lowest available rates, and (4) one and one-quarter cents ($.0125) per pound of landed weight.

(b) For lots of root containing more than 12 per cent moisture, the maximum price calculated in (a) above shall be adjusted downward so that the buyer does not pay more for the lot, including freight, marine and war risk insurance and importer's margin, than he would if the lot had contained 12 per cent moisture when landed at United States port.

§ 1372.168 Appendix B: Manufacturers' maximum prices for rotenone products (unfinished)

For the purposes of this paragraph, the pure rotenone content shall be computed to the nearest tenth of one per cent (nearest tenth of one unit).

2. Resin. (a) The maximum price shall be $3.25 per pound f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

3. Liquid extract. (a) The maximum price per gallon f. o. b. manufacturer's plant shall be the sum of the number of pounds of 30% rotenone resin required to make one gallon of liquid extract, multiplied by $2.55 per pound of such resin, plus the cost of one gallon of the solvent used in the manufacture of the liquid extract, plus 25 cents for each 1% of rotenone contained in the liquid extract.

4. Chemically pure rotenone. (a) The maximum price shall be $12.25 per pound f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

5. Technically pure rotenone. (a) The maximum price shall be $9.75 per pound f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

raw materials, packages, manufacturing and other expenses, (v) changes in the selling price since January 1, 1941, and (vi) the seller's maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation. When such authorization is given, it will be accompanied by instructions as to the method for determining the maximum price. Within ten days after such price has been determined, the seller shall certify the price to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. The price so reported shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) If the seller has a maximum selling price under the General Maximum Price Regulation for the product, he shall continue to use such maximum selling price until a maximum price has been established under (a) above; but within 30 days after the effective date of this regulation, he shall apply for such maximum price.

§ 1372.169 Appendix C: Manufacturer's maximum prices for dry, finished rotenone insecticides not made from dust bases: The price shall be the lower of the following:

1. The highest price charged to a purchaser of the same class in March, 1942, or

2. A price computed by adding items (a), (b), (c), and (d), below:

(a) The price most frequently charged to a purchaser of the same class in June, 1941, or on the latest date prior to June, 1941, on which the product was sold,

(b) The increase in the cost of pure rotenone guaranteed in the product, between the first half of 1941 and December 31, 1942, calculated according to the following provisions:

(i) Manufacturers who do not process root:

The increase in the cost of rotenone shall be calculated by determining the average delivered cost of rotenone purchased in the period January-June, 1941, inclusive (or, if no such purchase was made in such period, the delivered cost of rotenone purchased on the latest date prior to January 1, 1941), and by subtracting such delivered cost from the maximum delivered cost of rotenone contained in the same type and quality of rotenone-bearing material on December 31, 1942; but such increase in cost of pure rotenone shall not exceed $3.40 per pound of pure rotenone contained in the finished product.

(ii) Manufacturers who process imported root:

The increase in the cost of rotenone shall be calculated by multiplying the pounds of pure rotenone guaranteed in the finished product by $3.10.

(c) The difference between the delivered cost of packages and raw materials other than rotenone on the latest dates prior to July 1, 1941, on which purchases of such commodities were made, and the maximum delivered cost of the same items on December 31, 1942;

(d) Forty cents per hundred pounds, or $0.004 per pound, of the finished product.

§ 1372.170 Appendix D: Manufacturer's maximum prices for finished rotenone insecticides made from dust bases. The maximum price shall be the lower of the following:

1. The highest price charged to a purchaser of the same class in March, 1942, or

2. A price computed by adding items (a), (b), and (c) below:

(a) The price most frequently charged to a purchaser of the same class in June, 1941, or on the latest date prior to June, 1941 on which the product was sold

(b) The increase in the delivered cost of all raw materials and packages between June, 1941, or on the latest date prior thereto on which such commodities were purchased, and the maximum delivered cost of the same commodities on December 31, 1942.

(c) Forty cents per hundred pounds, or $0.004 per pound, of the finished product.

§ 1372.171 Appendix E: Manufacturer's maximum prices for other finished rotenone insecticides. The maximum price shall be the highest price for which the insecticide was sold or delivered in March 1942, to a purchaser of the same class; or if no sale or delivery was made in March 1942, the highest price at which the insecticide was offered for sale and delivery in March 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

§ 1372.172 Appendix F: Manufacturer's maximum prices which cannot be established under Appendix C, D or E. (a) If a seller cannot determine his maximum price under the above provisions, he shall select the finished rotenone insecticide most closely similar to the product being priced and for which a maximum price has been established, and he shall add to (if the cost of the product being priced is greater) or subtract from (if such cost is less) the maximum price of the similar product the difference between the total cost of all raw materials and packages used in the manufacture of the similar product and the total cost of all raw materials and packages used in the manufacture of the product being priced.

(b) If the product being priced is a dry, finished insecticide and the seller is no longer selling a similar product, but sold a similar product in 1941, he shall compute the maximum price for the similar product according to the formula in Appendix C; and he shall add to (if the cost of the product being priced is greater) or subtract from (if such cost is less) the maximum price so computed, the difference between the total cost of all raw materials and packages which would be used in the manufacture of the similar product and the total cost of all raw materials and packages used in the manufacture of the product being priced.

§ 1372.173 Appendix G: Wholesaler's maximum prices of finished rotenone insecticides. The maximum price at which a wholesaler may sell to a dealer shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) If the maximum price which may be charged by the manufacturer from whom the wholesaler buys the commodity is not changed by this regulation, the wholesaler's maximum selling price shall be the highest price at which he delivered or offered for delivery the commodity in March 1942.

(b) If the maximum price which may be charged by the manufacturer from whom the wholesaler buys the commodity is reduced by this regulation, the wholesaler's maximum selling price shall be reduced by a like amount in dollars and cents.

(c) If the wholesaler did not sell the commodity in March 1942, he shall establish his maximum selling price by adding to his delivered cost of the commodity the dollar and cent margin between his delivered cost and his maximum selling price on the commodity most closely similar to the commodity being priced.

§ 1372.174 Appendix H: Maximum prices which cannot be established under Appendix C, D, E, F or G. (a) If a seller cannot determine his maximum price under any of the provisions of Appendix C, D, E, F or G, he shall take as his maximum price the maximum price of the closest competing seller of the same class.

(b) If a seller cannot in anywise determine his maximum price, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., for authorization to establish a maximum price, in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation as amended.

(e) Where lumber is shipped by rail from a mill having milling-in-transit arrangements with a carrier to a planing mill, owned by the same person, for further processing before delivery to the purchaser, that person may apply for permission to figure transportation charges on the basis of the through rail freight rate from the first mill to final destination in the following case:

(1) Where the hurricane of September 1938 damaged and destroyed a substantial portion of the timber near which the planing mill had been located so that the mill has been compelled to rely primarily on more distant sources of timber; and

(2) Where it has not been practicable to move the planing mill near other sources of timber because of excessive moving costs, shortages of mill labor and insufficient standing timber in any single location to warrant moving the mill.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch, of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be acted upon by letter. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

In the matter of an exception from the provisions of Section 1 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act to permit the award of contracts for the production of training films.

Whereas, the Secretary of War has made a written finding that the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35) in contracts for the production of training films for the United States Army will seriously impair the conduct of Government business; and

Whereas, the Secretary of War has requested that an exception be granted under section 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act permitting the award of such contracts without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of the Public Contracts Act; and

Whereas, the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees has joined in the request for the exemption; and

Whereas, I find that justice and public interest will be served by granting the request of the Secretary of War,

Now, therefore, I do hereby grant an exception pursuant to the powers vested in me by section 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35) permitting the award of contracts during the present war for the production of training films without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Act.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. A-1508]

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 4 for classification and pricing of gob pile or reject coal for both rail and truck shipment.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 16, 1942, and an amended petition filed on September 23, 1942, by District Board No. 4, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition, as amended, requested amendment of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for all Shipments Except Truck by the addition of a price exception to read as follows:

Low grade reject or bone coal recovered from gob piles, bins or picking tables, if crushed to not more than 2", shall take the price of the size to which crushed when shipped into market areas 13, 14 and 17.

And, of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for Truck Shipment, by the addition of the following price exception:

The price of low grade reject or bone coal recovered from gob piles, bins or picking tables, which has not been crushed, shall, when sold for truck delivery from rail mines to Market Areas 13, 14 and 17, be $1.75 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, gob pile or bin. The invoices for such coal shall carry the designation "Reject" instead of size group number.

Petitioner requested temporary relief, pending final disposition of its petition.

Petitions of intervention were field by District Boards 1, 2 and 6 and by John DeCorte, et al. (17 others), code members in District 4. The office of Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel ("Consumers' Counsel") filed a notice of appearance.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was duly held before Charles S. Mitchell, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard, and at which the petitioner, all interveners, and Consumers' Counsel appeared and participated. The record was thereupon submitted to the undersigned for consideration of the matter of granting temporary relief.

It appears from the evidence that, in the course of preparation, as coal moves through the tipple, inferior particles and impurities are removed; that a small quantity of the coal so removed is reject or bone coal, described as substandard coal containing a high ash content and frequently high in sulphur as compared with the standard grades of coal; that in the past this coal has usually been dumped on the gob pile and wasted; and that now, owing to the excessive demand for coal occasioned by war activities and the insufficient supply of coal, markets for such reject or bone coal are available. It seems that approximately only 1 or 2 percent of all coal produced in District 4 is reject coal. Apparently such crushed reject coal is mixed with regular screenings, the resultant mixture containing not over 10% of reject coal. Proximate analyses were introduced in evidence to show that the quality of crushed reject coal is about the same as that of $^3/_8$" x 0 screenings and that while it is slightly inferior to screenings of the larger size, it is coarser. Thus petitioner argued that crushing reject coal and mixing it with natural screenings does not enhance the quality of the mixture, and that there is no reason for requiring the crushed screenings mixture to be priced higher than natural screenings.

The minimum prices for rail shipments of slack coal produced in District 4 by crushing are 15¢ above those for slack coal produced at the same mines by screening. Petitioner requests that the minimum prices for gob pile or reject coal crushed to not over 2" and shipped by rail to Market Areas 13, 14 and 17 be reduced to those for natural screenings.

Petitioner also contends that uncrushed gob pile, bone or reject coal is inferior in quality to, and cannot be sold at the established minimum prices for District 4 standard coal. It appears that uncrushed reject coal can be marketed for domestic use in the nearby mining communities where retail yard service is limited. Petitioner requests the establishment of a minimum price of $1.75 per net ton f. o. b. the mine ($1.95 in view of the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 21, dated August 28, 1942) for gob pile, bone or reject coal, limited in its application to shipments by truck from rail mines to adjoining mining communities, in no instance to be greater than 20 miles from the mine.

Although there seems to have been some opposition to petitioner's requests, particularly so far as the uncrushed reject coal to be shipped by truck is concerned, the increased demand for coal occasioned by the exigencies of the war and the promise that District 4 producers, if the requested relief is granted, would be enabled to meet this increased demand, if only to some small degree, impel me to grant temporary relief, pending the final disposition of this proceeding.

I find that a satisfactory showing has been made for the granting of temporary relief in this matter, substantially as requested.

In order to prevent abuse of the privilege granted, and to protect the consuming public, certain regulations or restrictions are imposed, however, particularly as to clear invoicing of the product sold.

It is therefore ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above entitled matter, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted as follows:

(1) Commencing forthwith, there is added on page 3 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck, under the hearing "(B) Price Exceptions" a paragraph, to read as follows:

Low grade reject or bone coal recovered from gob piles, bins or picking tables, if crushed to not more than 2", shall take the price of the size to which crushed, when shipped into Market Areas 13, 14 and 17. Provided, however, That invoices for such coal contain a notation that such coal is crushed reject coal, or when mixed with natural screenings, that the mixture is one of crushed reject coal and natural screenings.[1]

(2) Commencing forthwith, there shall be added on page 3 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for Truck Shipments, under the heading "(B) Price Exceptions", a paragraph, to read as follows:

The price of low grade reject or bone coal recovered from gob piles, bins or picking tables, which has not been crushed, when sold for truck delivery from rail mines to be delivered to a destination no more than 20 miles from the mine, gob pile or bin, shall be $1.95 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, gob pile or bin, Provided, however, That the invoices, sales ticket, or other memoranda of sale for such coal shall contain the designation "Reject".

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to constitute an expression of opinion regarding the granting of final or permanent relief in this proceeding.

Dated: January 7, 1943.

Director.

[F. R. Doc. 43-417; Filed, January 8, 1943; 11:15 a. m.]

[1] This order is not intended, nor shall it be construed, to revise the effective minimum price heretofore established for low grade, reject (Size Group 11) coal of the Wheeling Township No. 2 Mine of the Wheeling Township Coal Mining Company.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 9 to reduce the minimum prices applicable to washed coals approximately 10 mesh x 0 in size, produced at the Sentry Mine (Mine Index No. 72) of the Sentry Coal Mining Company, a code member in District No. 9, to the same minimum prices applicable to the coals in Size Group 25 produced at the Beech Creek Mine (Mine Index No. 1) of the Beech Creek Coal Company, in District No. 9.

LOWELL-LAWRENCE, MASS., MARKETING AREA

HANDLING OF MILK

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed marketing agreement, as amended, and to Order No. 34, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a), General Regulations, as amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration with respect to an amended marketing agreement and to an amended marketing order regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1019, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proceeding was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration as the result of written petitions filed by the New England Milk Producers' Association, Inc., for a public hearing to receive evidence on several amendments it proposed. Other amendments were proposed by handlers after all interested parties had been notified by letter of the pending petition. It was concluded from consideration of the various proposed amendments that the hearing should be held and a notice of hearing was accordingly issued on September 18, 1942. The hearing was convened September 30, 1942, at Andover, Massachusetts. The hearing included, in addition to the industry proposals, consideration of proposals for amendments made by the Dairy and Poultry Branch, Agricultural Marketing Administration.

The major issues developed at the hearing were concerned with (1) the classification of milk actually lost in handling operations (commonly known as shrinkage) and classification of buttermilk, (2) the level of prices for Class I milk both inside and outside the marketing area, (3) differentials to be allowed for cost of handling milk at country plants, (4) differentials to reflect cost of transporting milk to the market, (5) the Class II skim milk price level, and (6) the need for increasing the assessment for cost of administration of the order. In addition several proposals of an administrative nature were also considered.

With respect to these issues, it is concluded from the record:

(1) Actual plant shrinkage should be reclassified from the present arrangement, which requires shrinkage associated with the handling of each class of milk to be in the respective class, to an arrangement whereby all actual shrinkage up to 2 percent of the quantity of milk received by handlers shall be Class II milk and the Class I price level should be increased 1 cent per hundredweight to offset the effect of such reclassification on handlers' net cost for Class I milk.

(2) The Class II price for milk received at country plants should be revised to reflect transportation allowances by 50-mile zones in line with average rates from such zones reflected by the "New England Joint Tariff, M–3," and to reduce the amount now reflected as a plant handling allowance from 21.5 to 20.0 cents per hundredweight.

(3) The Class I price should be increased to $4.10 per hundredweight, 3.7 percent butterfat milk, delivered at handlers' city plants, whenever the price of 92-score butter at New York is 45 cents or more per pound.

(4) The Class II skim value should be revised to provide a value for skim milk based on prices published by the United States Department of Agriculture for roller process skim milk powder for both human consumption and animal feed, the yield factor and manufacturing cost factor to be as now provided in milk marketing Order No. 27 (New York metropolitan marketing area).

(5) The assessment for cost of administration of the order should be increased from 3 cents to 4 cents per hundredweight of milk.

(6) Administrative amendments should be made to revise the definition of the term "Secretary" to include any person who may be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary, to amplify the powers of the market administrator to disseminate statistics and information concerning the operation of the order, to amplify the provision relating to the responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk, to clarify the powers of the market administrator with respect to access to books and records necessary to verify reports of handlers, to revise the classification of milk sold to a plant beyond the marketing area, to revise the application of the order to milk shipped to a plant subject to the order regulating the Greater Boston marketing area, to revise the allocation of milk of a handler's own production in computing his pool, to delete an obsolete reference to the Massachusetts Milk Control Board, and to add a new section entitled "Agents," which will allow the Secretary by designation in writing to name any officer or employee of the United States or any division of the United States Department of Agriculture to act as his agent in connection with this regulation.

From the evidence in the record it is concluded that the other proposals for amendments heard at the hearing should not be adopted. These include reclassification of buttermilk from Class I to Class II, reduction of the difference between the Class I price at city plants and country plants of from 13 to 8 cents per hundredweight, extension of the city plant Class I price to include all milk delivered from producers' farms to receiving plants located within 40 miles of the City Hall of Lowell or Lawrence, and provision for pricing Class I milk sold outside the marketing area at prevailing prices in such outside markets, if such prices are different from the Lowell-Lawrence price.

The following proposed amended marketing order prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, as amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out. The proposed amended marketing agreement is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the proposed amended marketing order.

[1] Acting pursuant to authority delegated by the Secretary of Agriculture under the Act of April 4, 1940 (54 Stat. 81; 7 F.R. 2656).

Proposed Marketing Order, As Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, Marketing Area[1]

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held at Andover, Massachusetts, September 30, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to Secs. 2 and 8 (e) of said act, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e, are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers, defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as so amended, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(5) Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers.

§ 934.5 Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. Subject to verification by the market administrator, all milk received by a handler from producers or from his own production shall be classified in the classes set forth in (b) of this section in accordance with its utilization by him, except as follows:

(1) Subject to (c) of this section, milk or skim milk moved to another handler or to a plant subject to another order of the Secretary may be classified as reported by both the selling and the receiving handlers, or by the seller alone if the receiver submits no report or if the two reports do not agree: Provided, That no greater quantity shall be classified as Class II milk than the total milk or skim milk utilized by such receiver as Class II milk, unless the receiver is a cooperative association as determined pursuant to § 934.11 (b), in which event the milk shall be classified in the same manner as though it were received by the association directly from producers.

(2) Milk or skim milk disposed of to persons not handlers who distribute milk or manufacture milk products, and exclusive of milk disposed of to a plant subject to another order of the Secretary, shall be Class I milk, not in excess of the total quantity of Class I milk, or skim milk, at such plant.

(c) Milk delivered by producers to other markets. Milk received by a handler at one of his plants not subject to the provisions hereof from persons reported by him as under contract to have their milk received and paid for as part of his supply for the marketing area shall be considered as received from producers and classified (i) as Class II milk if received at a plant of that handler, the handling of milk in which plant is subject to the order regulating the handling of milk for the Greater Boston marketing area, and (ii) as Class I milk if received at a plant of that handler the handling in which plant is not subject to the order regulating the Greater Boston marketing area.

(d) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. [In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler from producers the burden rests upon the handler who receives milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.]

§ 934.6 Minimum class prices—(a) Class I price to associations of producers. Each handler shall pay an association of producers, at the time set forth in § 934.10 (a) and subject to the butterfat differential calculated pursuant to § 934.10 (c), for Class I milk delivered in bulk from such association's receiving plant to such handler's plant located within 20 miles of the city hall in Lowell or Lawrence, not less than the applicable price pursuant to (b) (1) of this section plus 13 cents.

(b) Class I price to producers. Each handler shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 934.10, for Class I milk delivered by them, not less than the following prices:

Under 40	[illegible]
40 and over but under 45	[illegible]
45 or over	[illegible]

(2) For milk delivered from producers' farms to such handler's plant not located within 20 miles of the city hall in Lowell or Lawrence the price per hundredweight during each delivery period shall be the price effective pursuant to (1) of this paragraph, less an amount per hundredweight equal to the sum of 13 cents and the average of the freight rates (considering 85 pounds to one 40-quart can), from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to Lowell and to Lawrence, calculated according to the lowest applicable rail tariffs for the transportation in carload lots of milk in 40-quart cans.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the milk which was disposed of during each delivery period by each handler as Class I milk from a handler's receiving plant located within 20 miles of the city hall in Lowell or Lawrence shall be considered to have been, first, that milk which was received directly from producers' farms at such plant, and then that milk which was shipped from the nearest receiving plant not located within 20 miles of the city hall in Lowell or Lawrence.

(c) Class II prices. Each handler shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 934.10 for Class II milk delivered by them not less than the following prices per hundredweight:

(2) For such milk delivered to a handler's receiving plant not located within 20 miles of the city hall in Lowell or Lawrence, a price which the market administrator shall compute by combining in one sum such of the following computations as apply:

(i) Divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, multiply this result by 3.7 and subtract the amount set forth in (c) of this section [for the railroad freight mileage zone of the average distance from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to Lowell and to Lawrence;

[(ii) For any delivery period for which no cream price as described in (i) of this subparagraph is reported, multiply the average price reported for such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market by 1.4, multiply this result by 3.7; and subtract the amount set forth in (d) of this section for the railroad freight mileage zone of the average distance from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to Lowell and to Lawrence; and

[(iii) For all delivery periods except April, May, and June, compute any plus amount for skim value which results from the following: From the average of all the dry skim milk powder quotations for car lots for "human food products (roller process) in barrels" and for "animal feed products (hot roller) in bags" (using midpoint of any range as one quotation) published during such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for New York City, subtract 4 cents; and multiply this result by 7.5.]

(iv) For the April, May, and June delivery periods, compute any plus amount for skim value which results from the average of the skim value computed pursuant to (iii) of this subparagraph and a value obtained as follows: compute the average of all quotations (using midpoint of any range as one quotation) published during the delivery period in the Oil, Paint, and Drug Reporter, for domestic 20–30-mesh casein in bags in car lots at New York, subtract 6.6 cents and multiply this result by 2.2; except that if either computation results in a minus amount, the other shall be used in lieu of the average.

Freight zones (miles):	Class II, cents per cwt.
21–100	22.0
101–150	25.5
151–200	26.5
251–300	27.5

§ 934.7 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who receives milk from producers shall, with respect to milk or cream which was received by such handler during such delivery period, report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant from producers, including the quantity, if any, received from his own production.

(2) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer.

(3) Receipts at each plant pursuant to § 934.8 (c).

(4) The respective quantities of milk which were sold, distributed, or used, including sales to other handlers, classified pursuant to § 934.5.

(b) Reports of handlers who receive no milk from producers. Handlers who receive no milk from producers shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require.

(c) Reports as to producers. (1) Each handler shall submit to the market administrator within 10 days after his request, with respect to any producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator, and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name, post office address, and farm location, (ii) the total pounds of milk delivered, (iii) the average butterfat test of milk delivered, and (iv) the number of days on which deliveries were made.

(2) Each handler shall submit to the market administrator, within 10 days after his request, made not earlier than 15 days after the end of the delivery period, his producer payroll for such delivery period, which shall show for each producer; (i) the daily and total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof, and (ii) the net amount of such handler's payments to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(3) On or before the 18th day after each handler becomes subject to the provisions hereof, he shall report to the market administrator a schedule of the transportation rates which were charged and paid for the transportation of milk from the farm of each producer to such handler's receiving plant, and such information with respect to distances involved as the market administrator may require.

(4) On or before the 18th day after any changes are made in the schedule filed in accordance with (3) of this paragraph, a copy of the revised schedule with the effective dates of such changes as may appear in the revised schedule.

(5) On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall report the names of any persons whose milk such handler is reporting pursuant to § 934.5 (c) and § 934.8 (c) and include a certification that these persons have contracts as specified therein.

(d) Announcement of transportation rates. On or before the 30th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall mail to all handlers who receive milk from producers and shall publicly announce the rate or rates of such deductions made by each handler, as reported, pursuant to (3) and (4) of paragraph (c) of this section, and such information with respect to the distances involved and so reported as the market administrator may deem advisable.

(e) Verification of reports. [For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the market administrator as required by this order or for the purpose of obtaining the information required in any such report where it has been requested and has not been furnished, each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to:

[(1) Examine such books, papers, records, copies of income tax reports, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, and memoranda as the market administrator deems relevant and which are within the control (i) of any such handler from whom such report was requested, (ii) of any person having, either directly or indirectly, actual or legal control of or over such handler, or (iii) of any subsidiary of any such handler;

[(2) Weigh, sample, and test milk and milk products; and

§ 934.8 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who receive no milk from producers. The provisions hereof, except as set forth in § 934.7, shall not apply to a producer-handler nor to a handler whose sole source of milk supply consists of receipts from other handlers.

(b) Milk received from producer-handlers. Milk of a producer-handler's own production which is delivered in bulk to another handler shall be considered as being delivered by a producer unless the receiving handler is also a producer-handler.

(c) Producers for other markets. Milk received from producers who are reported by a handler as under contract to have their milk received and paid for as part of that handler's supply for a market other than the marketing area, shall be reported under a separate category, and the provisions of § 934.10 and § 934.11, shall not apply.

(d) Milk subject to the Greater Boston order. The provisions hereof shall not apply, except as provided in § 934.5 to the handling of milk received at any handler's receiving plant which is subject to the provisions of the order of the Secretary regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area unless such handler [not including a cooperative association as qualified pursuant to § 904.11 (a) of such order, sells, distributes, or disposes of less than 10 percent of his total receipts of milk as Class I milk in the Greater Boston marketing area].

§ 934.9 Minimum composite prices to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 934.8, the value of milk disposed of by each handler, in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the quantity of such handler's Class I milk the quantity of milk received pursuant to § 934.8 (c) from producers who are reported as having contracts applying to the Greater Boston marketing area;

(2) Subtract from the quantity of such handler's Class I milk or of his Class II milk according to the classification thereof as the same is reported and classified pursuant to § 934.5, the quantity of milk received by such handler from other handlers;

(3) Subtract from the quantity of such handler's Class II milk the quantity of milk received pursuant to § 934.8

(c) from producers who are reported as having contracts applying to markets other than the Greater Boston marketing area; and

(4) Multiply the remainder of the quantity of milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to § 934.6 (b) and § 934.6 (c) and add together the resulting value of each class.

(b) Computation of composite prices. The market administrator shall compute for each handler the composite price per hundredweight of milk received from producers during each delivery period in the following manner:

(1) Add to the total value computed pursuant to (a) of this section the amount of the differential applicable pursuant to § 934.10 (d);

(2) Subtract any amounts required to be paid under the order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston marketing area pursuant to § 934.8 (d); and

(3) Divide the value remaining after subtraction pursuant to (2) of this paragraph by the total quantity of milk included in the computation made pursuant to (a) (4) of this section.

(c) Announcement of composite prices. The market administrator shall mail to all handlers who receive milk from producers and shall publicly announce prices resulting from the computations pursuant to (a) and (b) of this section, and other related information, as follows:

(1) On or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period, he shall announce the composite price, the Class II price, and the butterfat differential.

(2) On or before the last day of the month after the end of the delivery period, he shall announce the total quantity and value of Class I milk and Class II milk included in such computations.

§ 934.10 Payments to producers—(a) Time and method of payments. On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment, subject to the differentials set forth in this section, for the total value of milk received by him from producers during such delivery period, as computed in accordance with § 934.9 (a), as follows:

(1) To each producer, except as provided in (2) of this paragraph, at not less than the composite price per hundredweight computed for such handler pursuant to § 934.9 (b).

(2) To producers who are members of an association of producers, a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers under (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Correction of errors in payments. Errors in making any of the payments required by this section shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors. Any correction affecting all producers delivering to any handler during the period in which such error occurred shall be corrected as the market administrator shall determine to be equitable, either by (1) adjustment of the account of each individual producer who delivered during such period on the basis of a recomputation of the price of such handler, or (ii) addition or subtraction of the amount of such correction to or from the value of all milk received by such handler in the delivery period during which such error was determined, computed as set forth in § 934.9 (a).
